10-6-1950

New Law Head Wants to Make 'Good Law School Even Better'

Fred Winsberg

Follow this and additional works at: https://chicagounbound.uchicago.edu/edward_levi_documents

Recommended Citation
Fred Winsberg, "New law head wants to make 'good law school even better,'" Chicago Maroon, October 6, 1950.

This Media is brought to you for free and open access by the Edward H. Levi at Chicago Unbound. It has been accepted for inclusion in Edward H. Levi Documents by an authorized administrator of Chicago Unbound. For more information, please contact unbound@law.uchicago.edu.
It's not a rumor this time!

T. S. Eliot will grace UC

The perennial rumor that T. S. Eliot is to lecture here has bloomed again, but this year the flower will bear fruit. Eliot will be here for the better part of the winter quarter, conducting a small seminar and presenting public lectures for the Committee on Social Thought.

The aim of the course is to be given in Leon Mandel Hall. Admission is by application. Applications may be obtained at any time, on or before October 10, at 8:30 p.m., at which time they have already been given out. This lecture is concerned with the vocational aims of education, since the d s m a d for education is greatly exceeds the supply. Loud speakers will carry the address into the Reynolds Club where any lectures in Measure in quite the desired facilities, many will not be able to hear the (see ELIT, page 5).

first half of this year, as counsel for the Congressional sub-committee on irresponsible monopolies, he conducted hearings on steel and newsprint.

Levi is a co-author of the law school's elliptical Elements of Law, and the book, "An Introduction to Legal Reasoning" (1949). Of the running season for the clubs and fraternities. Rushable men and women will be approached by these organizations in the near future with invitations to rush, but whether you're rushable or not, you're.

Please, slags, no drugs—come assorted, Saturday by Sheila Brinkin

Here is your big opportunity! The first big chance you've been offered in the next quarter! Meet new, exciting, people.

An all-campus mixer will be presented tomorrow night at 9 p.m. in the Memorial Center and Inter-Fraternity and Inter-Club Councils.

Jim Barclay and his band will be on hand to provide the music and hostesses from Inter-Fraternity and Inter-Club will be on hand to provide the music and hostesses from Inter-Fraternity and Inter-Club Councils.

Jim Barclay and his band will be on hand to provide the music and hostesses from Inter-Fraternity and Inter-Club Councils.

Sam Parks to spark discussion at Ida

Sam Parks, Progressive Party candidate for Congress from the first Congressional district, will speak Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Ida Noyes sun parlor. He will oppose Democrat Dawson and Republican Candidate Davis.

The speech will provide the opportunity to discuss the joint Inter-Fraternity and Inter-Club Councils.

Jim Barclay and his band will be on hand to provide the music and hostesses from Inter-Fraternity and Inter-Club Councils.

Jim Barclay and his band will be on hand to provide the music and hostesses from Inter-Fraternity and Inter-Club Councils.

Sam Parks, who is secretary-treasurer of District 1, UPWA, will be a speaker at the meeting. A third speaker will be an active church worker. In 1940 he was forced to leave Memphis, Miss., as a result of his militant trade union work.

Parks, who is secretary-treasurer of District 1, UPWA, will be a speaker at the meeting. A third speaker will be an active church worker. In 1940 he was forced to leave Memphis, Miss., as a result of his militant trade union work.

The scheduled YPA meeting will be sponsored by the RSA group with Parks as guest speaker. Refreshments will be served at the evening meeting will also be on the agenda.

Sam Parks

Student Government elections will be held on November 2 and 3, giving everyone on campus the opportunity to vote for members of the student governing body. Petitions can be made available after October 2 in the office of the director of student activities, Reynolds, 202. Deadline for submitting petitions is Friday, October 25 at 5 p.m. Voting for candidates in the elections are the following:

1) One quarter of residence in this quarter for those voting to the election (either spring or fall quarter). 2) A "C" average in all courses passed for the spring and fall quarters for students in the college department.

The requirements for candidacy in the elections are the following:

1) One quarter of residence in this quarter for those voting to the election (either spring or fall quarter). 2) A "C" average in all courses passed for the spring and fall quarters for students in the college department.

The requirements for candidacy in the elections are the following:

1) One quarter of residence in this quarter for those voting to the election (either spring or fall quarter). 2) A "C" average in all courses passed for the spring and fall quarters for students in the college department.

The requirements for candidacy in the elections are the following:

1) One quarter of residence in this quarter for those voting to the election (either spring or fall quarter). 2) A "C" average in all courses passed for the spring and fall quarters for students in the college department.
This week's letters protest

Coaches

Red Feather fund seeks volunteers

Is capitalism here to stay?
Whether you agree or disagree, you can no longer deny that it is here to stay,