ANNOUNCEMENTS

The principal and many minor periodicals are found in the library in full sets.

The library owns a nearly complete set of the Central Sessions Cases, the records of the trials in England for nearly two centuries, and a great many other volumes of interesting trials. It is hoped that other departments of the University will avail themselves of these records for the study of crime, criminal psychology, and social conditions.

The number of volumes in the library is upward of 20,000, and all current issues are being kept up.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION.

A student enters the Law School either at the beginning of the pre-legal course or at the beginning of the professional course. Every student entitled to enter the professional course may at his option begin his work with the pre-legal course.

I. ADMISSION TO THE PRE-LEGAL COURSE.

A student, to be admitted to the pre-legal course, must be qualified for admission to the Senior Colleges of the University in accordance with the statements in the University Regulations, Article VI: “Admission,” section 3. §1. “Students entering the University from certain approved institutions in which they have completed two full years of work are admitted at once to the Senior Colleges.” §2. “Duly accredited graduates of state normal schools maintaining courses of study extending two years beyond the standard high-school courses, as determined by the state universities concerned, may be admitted to the Senior Colleges on conditions essentially the same as those extended to students from approved institutions, except that credit is given only for work of an academic or disciplinary nature, exclusive of strictly professional work.” §3. “Students entering from the above institutions with the credits stated in 1 and 2 present the customary letters of honorable dismissal, and a certificate in the case of each applicant that his standing is fully up to the average standing of his class.”

II. ADMISSION TO THE PROFESSIONAL COURSE.

Admission to the professional course is granted:

1) To all students who have successfully completed the pre-legal course.

2) To all students who are entitled to admission to the Graduate Schools in accordance with the University regulations (the Bachelor's degree from approved institutions is accepted without investigation as equivalent to that of the University), and to all students who are entitled to admission to the Senior Colleges with nine Majors' (the regular amount of one year's work) advanced standing. This latter requirement is usually equivalent to three years of college work.

3) Students from other law schools in good standing, entering or otherwise entitled to enter, receive credit for work done at such law schools, corresponding in amount and value to the work offered by this school.

All students entering the professional course of the Law School without having taken the pre-legal course must give satisfactory evidence of adequate knowledge of English and American constitutional history and civil government, or must acquire that knowledge during the Law School course.

Students who are candidates for the Bachelor's degree, and who are not yet entitled to admission to the Graduate Schools, conform to the general rules and regulations governing Senior College students.*

III. ADMISSION OF SPECIAL STUDENTS.

Candidates for admission to the Law School as special students (1) must be at least twenty-one (21) years of age; (2) must show good reason for not entering upon a regular course; (3) must satisfy the Dean and the particular instructors under whom they desire to study that they are prepared to carry the courses elected.

Special students conform to all regulations of the University, and, having been admitted, their continuance depends on the maintenance of a satisfactory standing. They are admitted as candidates for degrees only as stated below under “Degrees.”

ARRANGEMENT OF COURSES.

THE UNIVERSITY YEAR.

The system of dividing the academic work into Quarters is adopted for the Law School. The Quarters are designated as the Summer, Autumn, Winter, and Spring Quarters, beginning respectively in 1903 and 1904 on June 17, Oct. 1, Jan. 1, and April 1. A recess of one week occurs between the end of each Quarter and the beginning of the next except that there is no recess between the end of the Spring and the beginning of the Summer Quarter, and that there is a recess of about a month at the end of the Summer Quarter.

MAJORS AND MINORS.

Courses of instruction are arranged upon the basis of Majors and Minors. A Major (M) = 4 or 5 hours of instruction a week for the Quarter. A Minor (M) = that amount of instruction for one Term (half the Quarter).

DEGREES.

The University grants the degree of A.B., Ph.B., or S.B. to Law students who have successfully completed the first year of the professional curriculum of the Law School.

The degree of Doctor of Law, J.D., is granted to students who have obtained the degree of A.B., Ph.B., or S.B., and have successfully completed the professional curriculum.

Special students are not received as candidates for the degree of J.D. If qualified for admission to the Junior Colleges, they may be accepted as candidates for the degree of LLB. The degree is granted only if the candidate maintains a high standing in his work.

* See The Annual Register, 1902-3, pp. 77-9.

ROUTINE OF ENTRANCE.

Applications should be addressed to THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO, Chicago, Ill. If the student coming from another institution holds a degree, he should present his diploma; if he does not hold a degree, he should bring his letter of dismissal and a card of admission credits. These documents should be presented at the office of the Dean of the Law School. Detailed directions will be furnished in the Dean's office as to the mode of matriculating and registering for courses of instruction desired.

FEES FOR MATRICULATION, TUITION, ETC.

1. Matriculation Fee.—The matriculation fee is $5, and is required of every student on entrance to the University. It is payable but once.

2. Tuition Fee.—The fee for tuition is $50 a Quarter ($25 for a term) for the professional curriculum, and $40 a Quarter for the pre-legal curriculum. This fee is for regular work, three Majors or their equivalent. There will be no reduction to those taking less than the regular work but more than one Major. A reduction is made in case of students taking only one Major (or equivalent), one-half of the full tuition fee being charged.

3. Diploma and Certificate Fees.—The charge for the diploma of the University is $10, and the certificate $5.

4. Payment of Bills.—All tuition fees are due and payable on or before the first day of each Quarter. They are payable to the Registrar, Cobb Lecture Hall, Room A1.

ROOMS, BOARD, AND GENERAL EXPENSES.

Nine dormitories have thus far been erected in the Quadrangles. Two of these are reserved for the students of the Divinity School and four are for women. A University House is organized in each dormitory; each House has a Head, appointed by the President of the University, and a House Committee, elected by the members; also a House Counselor, selected from the Faculties of the University by the members of the House. The membership of the House is determined by election, and each House is self-governing under the general control of the University Council.

The cost of rooms in the dormitories is from $14.00 to $75.00 per Quarter of twelve weeks. This includes heat, light, and care. Each hall for women has its own dining hall and parlors. The cost of table board in these halls is $42.00 a Quarter.

All applications for rooms, or for information concerning rooms and board, within or without the Quadrangles, should be made to the Registrar.

For further details see special circulars as to rooms and board, which will be sent on application.

The following table will furnish an estimate of the annual expenses for thirty-six weeks of a student in the University residing within the Quadrangles:

It is believed that students who find it necessary to reduce expenses below the lowest of these estimates can do so. Rooms outside the Quadrangles, furnished, with heat, light, and care, may be obtained at from $1.00 a week upwards, the $1.00 rate being easily secured where two students room together. Many places offer room and board from $2.50 upwards. There are student clubs which secure board at cost. The rate during the past year ranging from $2.75 to $3.50 a week. A list of approved boarding places outside the Quadrangles is kept on file at the Information Office, Cobb Lecture Hall, and information regarding them may there be obtained.

IV. THE CURRICULUM.

The curriculum of the Law School covers one year of pre-legal studies, and a three years' course of professional law studies.

THE PRE-LEGAL CURRICULUM.

The pre-legal curriculum in the first year of the Senior College (the third year of the college course) is intended to direct the college work of those who expect to devote themselves to law, to studies which, without being professional, are related to jurisprudence, or otherwise are of special value and interest to the future lawyer.
