must have completed the requirements for admission to the Junior Colleges of the University.

b) Admission to the professional course as candidates for the degree of LL.B. is granted:

1. To students over twenty-one years old who are qualified for admission to the Junior Colleges of the University (the usual college entrance requirements—ordinarily equivalent to four years of high-school work). The degree is granted to those only who complete the course with a high average standing.

c) Unclassified students.—In rare instances students over twenty-one years old who cannot meet the above requirements will be admitted as unclassified students, if the Law Faculty are convinced that their previous training will enable them satisfactorily to pursue the work. Such students are not candidates for a degree.

III. ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING.

Students from other law schools in good standing, who are otherwise qualified to enter this School, will ordinarily receive credit for work and residence satisfactorily completed at such schools corresponding in amount and character to that required at this School. Not more than eighteen Majors of work or six Quarters of residence will be thus credited, and the Faculty reserves the right to refuse such credit, in whole or in part, save upon examination.

Students who are candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must be twenty-two years old to be admitted to second year standing, and twenty-three years old to be admitted to third year standing.

No credit will be given for work not done in residence at a law school.

DEGREES.

The University grants the degree of A.B., Ph.B., or S.B. to Law students who have complied with the requirements for admission to candidacy for the degree of J.D. (including the Junior College entrance requirements) and who have successfully completed one year of the professional courses of the Law School. Students who are not graduates of colleges whose work is equivalent to at least 27 Majors' (three years) work in the University must obtain the Bachelor's degree from the University before receiving the degree of J.D.

The degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) is granted to candidates therefor who are college graduates and have successfully completed the three-year professional course.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) is granted only to candidates therefor who have successfully completed the professional course, and have maintained a high average standing in their work.

To obtain either of the professional degrees it is necessary satisfactorily to complete twenty-seven Majors of law work, distributed over nine Quarters of law school residence, of which at least nine Majors of work and three Quarters of residence (including the last Quarter for which credit is given) must have been at this School. The required Practice courses must also be taken.

Candidates for either of the professional degrees who complete the course with high distinction will receive the degree cum laude.

No student may receive both an academic and a professional degree in the same Quarter.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

THE UNIVERSITY YEAR.

The system prevailing in the University of dividing the work into Quarters is adopted in the Law School. The Quarters are designated as the Summer, Autumn, Winter, and Spring Quarters, beginning respectively in 1904 and 1905 on June 18, Oct. 1, Jan. 2, and April 1. Each Quarter has two Terms. A recess of about one week occurs between the end of each Quarter and the beginning of the next, except that there is no recess between the end of the Spring and the beginning of the Summer Quarter, and that there is a recess during September at the end of the Summer Quarter.

MAJORS AND MINORS.

Courses of instruction are arranged upon the basis of Majors and Minors. A Major (Mj)=4 or 5 hours instruction a week for the Quarter. A Minor (M)=that amount of instruction for one Term (half the Quarter).

ROUTINE OF ENTRANCE.

Applications should be addressed to The University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill. If the student coming from another institution holds a degree, he should present his diploma; if not certain that his degree is equiva-
