ADMISSION TO THE LAW SCHOOL

a) Admission to the Law School as candidates for the degree of J.D. is granted:
1. To college graduates whose degrees represent college work equivalent to twenty-seven Majors (three years) in the University.
2. To students who have completed in the University or elsewhere twenty-seven Majors (three years) of college work.* Credit will be given for acceptable work done in other institutions of collegiate rank. Before receiving the degree of J.D. such students must obtain from the University an academic degree, and are permitted to count toward this one year of law. The requirements for academic degrees will be found below, p. 5, under "Degrees."

b) Admission to the Law School as candidates for the degree of LL.B. is granted:
1. To students over twenty-one years old who have completed high-school or college work equivalent to 15 units of admission credit to the Junior Colleges of the University (the usual college entrance requirement)—ordinarily satisfied by four years of high-school work). The degree is granted to those only who complete the course with a high average standing.
2. Unclassified students.—In rare instances students over twenty-one years old who cannot meet the above requirements will be admitted as unclassified students, if the Law Faculty are convinced that their previous training will enable them satisfactorily to pursue the work. Such students are not candidates for a degree.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Students from other law schools of high grade, who are otherwise qualified to enter the School, will ordinarily receive credit (not exceeding two years) for work and residence satisfactorily completed at such schools corresponding in amount and character to that required at this School. The right is reserved to refuse such credit, in whole or in part, save upon examination.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must be twenty-two years old to be admitted to second-year standing, and twenty-three years old to be admitted to third-year standing.

No credit will be given for work not done in residence at a law school.

DEGREES

The University confers the degree of A.B., Ph.B., or S.B. upon law students admitted to candidacy for the degree of J.D. who have completed nine Majors (one year) of work in the Law School, and, in addition to the admission requirements to a Junior College, have satisfied one of the following requirements:
1. Students who have pursued all their college work in the University must complete the courses prescribed for the Junior College in which they are registered.
2. Students admitted to the University with less than eighteen Majors (two years) of credit from other colleges must make up the deficiency below eighteen Majors by taking prescribed Junior College work for which they have not credit; above eighteen Majors, pre-legal courses may be substituted for any further deficiencies in prescribed work, except English.
3. Students admitted to the University with at least eighteen Majors (two years) of credit from other colleges are required to complete only enough college work to give them altogether twenty-seven Majors, and may substitute pre-legal courses for any deficiencies in prescribed work, except English.

Students already holding degrees from other colleges may obtain an academic degree from the University upon satisfying the above requirements.

The degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) is conferred upon candidates therefor who are college graduates and have completed the three-year professional course.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) is conferred upon candidates therefor who have completed the professional course with a high average standing.

To obtain either of the professional degrees it is necessary to complete twenty-seven Majors of law work, distributed over nine Quarters of law school residence, of which at least nine Majors of work and three Quarters of residence (including the last Quarter for which credit is given) must have been at this School. The required Practice courses must also be taken.

Candidates for either of the professional degrees who complete the course with high distinction will receive the degree cum laude.

No professional degree will be conferred upon any student markedly deficient in English, and no student may receive both an academic and a professional degree in the same Quarter.

FEES

1. Matriculation fee.—A matriculation fee of $5 is required of every student entering the University for the first time.
2. Tuition fee.—The tuition fee in the Law School is $50 a Quarter ($25 a Term) for regular work (three Majors). Students who take half work or less pay half fees. There is no extra charge to students registered in the Law School for extra work taken with the consent of the Dean. Students not registered in the Law School must pay $5 a Major extra for each law course taken, except required law courses taken by fourth-year students registered in the College of Commerce and Administration, and law courses offered by members of the Department of Political Science as part of the work of that Department. Undergraduate students not registered in the Law

*By special permission of the Dean admission may be granted to students who have credit for but twenty-four Majors, but such students must make up the deficiency before obtaining an academic degree from the University. Such permission will ordinarily be granted only in the Autumn Quarter to enable students to take advantage of courses beginning then. (See "The Quarter System," p. 6, below.)
† Such a degree from any other institution, if representing twenty-seven Majors of work, will be accepted.
