

Some of those present at the Reunion of the Class of 1934, about which more appears elsewhere in this issue of the Record.

The Class of 1934 Reunion

In early autumn, the Class of 1934 held a reunion luncheon in downtown Chicago. Harold L. Lipton was chairman of the group which arranged the gathering; Adolph A. Rubinson acted as Toastmaster.

The Law School was represented by Professor Sheldon Tefft. Mrs. Jack O. Brown was a guest of the Class. Mrs. Brown in the former Isabelle Muir, well known to many alumni as secretary to Dean Harry Bigelow. Members of the Class attending included Victor J. H. Baer, Walter W. Baker, Joseph M. Baron, Max Barth, Miss Florence Broady, Jack O. Brown, Lawrence W. Gidwitz, Herbert J. Greenberg, Brimson Grow, Samuel R. Hassen, Miss Charlotte Hornstein, Samuel J. Horwitz, Walter V. Leen, Harold L. Lipton, Joseph J. Mack, Graydon Megan, Hubert C. Merrick, Benjamin Ordower, Harold Orlinsky, Stephen G. Proksa, Adolph A. Rubinson, Arthur W. Schulson, Edward R. Scribano, H. Leo Segall, James R. Sharp (of Washington, D.C.), Solomon Spector, Louis Terkel, Ned P. Veatch, Daniel S. Wentworth and Nathan Wolfberg.