

Three New Appointments

GRANT GILMORE, formerly William K. Townsend Professor of Law at Yale University, has been appointed Professor of Law at The University of Chicago Law School.

Professor Gilmore received his A.B. from Yale in 1931, and his Ph.D., in Romance Languages, in 1936. He then taught French at Yale College until entering Yale Law School, from which he was graduated in 1942. He practiced in New York City, served in the armed forces, and returned to the Yale Law faculty in 1946.

He has served as Associate Reporter for the Uniform Commercial Code, and is currently at work on a book on insured transactions. He is the author of numerous articles and co-author, with Charles L. Black, Jr., of The Law of Admiralty, which has become the standard work in the field.

Professor Gilmore's principal areas of interest are contracts, commercial transactions, negotiable instruments, and admiralty. During this, his first quarter at the Law School, he is teaching the first-year course in contracts.

EDMUND W. KITCH, a graduate of the Law School in the Class of 1964, has been appointed Assistant Professor of Law. A native of Wichita, Kansas, Mr. Kitch was graduated from Yale College, magna cum laude, in 1961, and received the J.D. from The University of Chicago, cum laude, in 1964, where he served as a managing editor of the Law Review. In 1964-65 he was Assistant Professor of Law at Indiana University. During the current academic year he will teach the courses in Regulation of Competition, Agency, and Patents, Trademarks and Copyright, and a seminar in Legislation.

GEORGE E. FEE, JR., JD'63, has been appointed Assistant Dean and Director of Placement. Following his graduation from Tufts University, in 1957, he served for three years as an officer in the U.S. Marine Corps. After graduation from the Law School in 1963, Mr. Fee was associated with the firm of Peabody, Arnold, Batchelder & Luther, in Boston, and subsequently joined the staff of Little, Brown and Company, where he has been Associate Editor of the Law Book Department.
