GENERAL INFORMATION

MEMORIAL FUNDS

John P. Wilson Professorship of Law.—Mr. John P. Wilson, Jr., a member of the Chicago Bar, and Mrs. Anna W. Dickinson in 1929 established a trust fund to endow a chair of law to be entitled “The John P. Wilson Professorship of Law,” as a memorial to their father, Mr. John P. Wilson, who was for many years an eminent member and leader of the Chicago Bar.

James Nelson Raymond Memorial Fund.—Mrs. Anna L. Raymond in 1929 established a trust fund to be known as “The James Nelson Raymond Memorial Fund,” as a memorial to her husband, James Nelson Raymond, for many years one of the leading manufacturers of Chicago. The income from this fund is used for the purchase of books for the University of Chicago Law Library.

Wallace Heckman Memorial Fund.—Mrs. Wallace Heckman in 1929 established a trust fund to be known as “The Wallace Heckman Memorial Fund,” as a memorial to her husband, Mr. Wallace Heckman, the Business Manager of the University from 1903 to 1924. The income from the fund is used for the purchase of books for the University of Chicago Law Library.

ORDER OF THE COIF

The Order of the Coif is a national law-school honor society, founded to encourage scholarship and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Its members are selected during the Spring Quarter each year from the 10 per cent of the third-year class who rank highest in scholarship.

LAW REVIEW

The University of Chicago Law Review was founded in 1933. It is published as a quarterly. The organization and management of the Review is vested in the students of the Law School with assistance from the Faculty. Opportunities are afforded all students to try for a position on the editorial board of the Review, and in addition thereto all students are eligible to contribute and publish in their own names notes and comments on recent cases. A Faculty prize of $25 is given annually for the best student contributions to the Review.
