

Max Rheinstein

Fellowship for Rheinstein

MAX RHEINSTEIN, Max Pam Professor of Comparative Law, is spending the academic year 1965-66 as a Fellow of the Center for Advanced Studies in the Behavioral Sciences, at Palo Alto, California. He is one of forty-eight scholars from thirty-seven different universities awarded fellowships. The Center, sometimes referred to as "the leisure of the theory class," gives its visiting fellows an opportunity for a year of work at research of their own choosing, free of teaching responsibilities, administrative distractions or any sort of commitment to publish.

Professor Rheinstein joined the Law Faculty in 1935, as Max Pam Assistant Professor of Comparative Law; he became a full professor in 1942. He is a member of the International Academy of Comparative Law, First Vice-President of the International Faculty of Comparative Law, honorary professor of the University of Freiburg, and a Commander of the Order of Merit of the Federal Republic of Germany. He has received honorary degrees from the University of Stockholm, the University of Basel, the University of Louvain, and the University of Brussels.
