The Order of Wig and Robe offers an annual scholarship prize to the student who attains the highest standing in the work of the first two years. Students under both the Four-Year and the Three-Year programs are eligible for the award. In 1942–43 the Wig and Robe prize was awarded to John Paul Good of the Class of 1943.

The Nu Beta Epsilon fraternity has donated to the Law School a scholarship cup. A replica of the cup is awarded annually to the student who attains the highest standing in the work of the first year, and his name is engraved upon the scholarship cup. Students under both the Four-Year and the Three-Year programs are eligible for the award. In 1942–43 the Nu Beta Epsilon Cup was awarded to Dale M. Stucky of the Class of 1944.

The Nathan Burkan Memorial Prize, established in 1937 by the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers in memory of Nathan Burkan, is an annual prize of $100 awarded to a member of the Senior class for the best paper on copyright law.

XI. STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The University of Chicago Law Review, founded in 1933, is published by the School under the management of a Board of Editors composed of students. In the autumn of each year the fifteen members of the second-year classes who rank highest in scholarship are invited to become competitors for election to the staff of the Review. From this group the Board of Editors chooses the editorial and business staff of the Review.

Because the size of the student body has been drastically reduced by the war, the management of the Review for the period of the emergency has been assumed by the Faculty. Professor Ernst W. Puttkammer has been designated Editor-in-Chief and a staff of student editors has been organized to assist with the publication of the Review.

The Board of Editors for 1942–43 was composed of the following: John Paul Good, Norman E. Jorgensen, co-editors-in-chief; William J. Durka, I. Frank Harlow, Joseph R. Harrison, Jr., George W. Overton, Jr., Sylvester J. Petro, George B. Pletsch, M. Virginia Spence, Charles D. Stein, Dale M. Stucky, James M. Wilson, editors; John W. Cervenka and Henry Synek, business managers.

The University of Chicago Law School Bar Association is an affiliated branch of the Illinois State Bar Association. Membership in the Association is open to any student in the Law School, and officers are chosen from the student body. A number of meetings are held each year, at which judges or distinguished members of the bar give informal talks upon matters of professional interest. In 1943 the Association established a scholarship to asassist veterans of World War II to resume their studies in the School. The officers of the Bar Association for 1942–43 were John W. Cervenka, president; N. Nancy Chioles, secretary; George B. Pletsch, treasurer.

The Barristers’ Club is a moot court club which was organized in 1938 to afford its members training in the preparation of briefs and argument of cases on appeal. The Club selects its members upon the basis of the record made in the moot court work of the School and in the annual examinations.
The Club aids in the supervision of the moot court class, participates in inter-school and intraschool moot court appellate and trial court competition.
The officers of the Barristers’ Club for 1942–43 were George B. Pletsch, president; A. Dagny Johnson, secretary.

The University of Chicago Legal Aid Group provides legal aid service at the University of Chicago Settlement.

Four legal fraternities, Nu Beta Epsilon, Phi Alpha Delta, Phi Delta Phi, Wig and Robe, and one legal sorority, Kappa Beta Pi, maintain chapters in the School.

XII. FEES AND OTHER INFORMATION

FEES AND EXPENSES

1. Tuition fee.—The tuition fee in the Law School is $125 a quarter. A student is required to pay full tuition unless a reduced program of work and a proportionate reduction of fees are approved by the Dean. The same fees apply to visitors. Candidates for the degrees of Master of Laws (L.L.M.) and Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) pay a tuition fee of $100 a quarter.

2. Registration fee.—A registration fee of $3.00 is payable each quarter.

3. Health Service fee.—A fee of $3.00 is required quarterly of all students.

4. Graduation fee.—The graduation fee for each degree is $20.

5. Late fee, Student Health Service.—$2.00. See page 17.

6. Payment of bills.—Registration is not complete until the quarterly fees are paid. Fees are payable at the Office of the Bursar, Press Building, Room 100, during the first five days of the quarter, beginning with the first day of registration. For failure to pay the fees within that period a charge of $5.00 is added.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS

All of the residence halls for men heretofore operated by the University will be occupied by members of the Armed Forces beginning with the Autumn Quarter, 1943. However, every effort will be made by the University to provide satisfactory living quarters for civilian students. The Office of the Bursar maintains a listing and an inspection service of accommodations available in private houses and apartments in the neighborhood of the University.
Since the renting of such accommodations by correspondence is unsatisfactory, the lists are not sent by mail. The University has a limited number of apartments for rental to married students working for higher degrees. In
