III. ADMISSION OF STUDENTS

All applications for admission are subject to the approval of the Faculty.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE UNDERGRADUATE (J.D.) PROGRAM

Application for admission to the J.D. Program may be made by students who will have received a Bachelor's degree from an approved college prior to their beginning study in the Law School. It is not required that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects. In exceptional cases students who will not have satisfied the requirements for a Bachelor's degree from an approved college prior to entering Law School, but who have had three years of college work, may be admitted to the J.D. Program.

Students are selected principally upon the basis of their college records, the material furnished in their applications for admission, and the results shown on the Law School Admission Test. In special cases a personal interview with the applicant may be required. Preliminary questions concerning admission to the Law School and requests for copies of the application form should be addressed to the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. When this application form has been filled out, it should be sent to the Office of Admissions, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. Official transcripts of all college records must be sent to the Office of Admissions.

Arrangements should be made by applicants to take the Law School Admission Test administered by the Educational Testing Service, Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey. The results on this test should be reported directly to the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. The Law School Admission Test will be given at selected locations throughout the country on November 15, 1952; February 21, April 25, and August 8, 1953.

Graduates of an approved law school whose studies have been primarily in the Common Law may apply for admission to the third year of the undergraduate school as candidates for the J.D. degree.

Graduates of an approved foreign law school, whose studies have not been primarily in the Common Law, may apply for admission as candidates for the J.D. degree in regular course. The requirements for this degree may be met in part for such students by the recognition of credits not to exceed 45 course hours (11 1/2 units) if performance in residence demonstrates the effective value of the student's work in a foreign system.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE (LL.M.) (J.S.D.) PROGRAM

Candidacy for the degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) or for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) is open to students who are the holders of a first degree in law from an approved law school, whose undergraduate law work has been primarily in the Common Law, and who are qualified for advanced research in law. Application for admission must be made upon a form obtained from the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. Official transcripts of all college and law school records must be sent to the Office of Admissions, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.
ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Graduates of an approved foreign law school, whose studies have not been primarily in the Common Law, may apply for admission to the program designed to give a one-year introduction to Anglo-American law. Upon completion of this program, such students will be given a certificate of attendance and a certificate for courses successfully completed.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE COMPARATIVE LAW PROGRAM

Candidacy for the degree of Master of Comparative Law (M.Comp.L.) or for the degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.) is open to students who are graduates of an approved foreign law school and whose previous training, though not in the Common Law, qualifies them to undertake advanced research in law.

Application for admission to the Graduate Comparative Law Program must be made upon a form obtained from the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

IV. REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREES

The degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) is awarded to students who (1) have been in residence for nine full quarters; (2) have shown by their standing in course examinations and by their individual investigations and reports a mastery of the field for which they receive the requisite units of credit; (3) have shown an adequate mastery of English; and (4) have successfully completed the work in the elective seminars or equivalent individual work approved by the Faculty. A single course unit is the equivalent of four hours per week for one quarter. To qualify for residence credit for a quarter, the student must take 12 or more course hours (3 course units). Credit for 135 course hours (33\frac{1}{2} course units), and an over-all grade average of 68 or above are required for graduation. The degree of Doctor of Law, cum laude, is awarded to candidates who have satisfied the requirements with distinction.

The degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) is awarded to students who, having been admitted as candidates for the J.S.D. degree, have been in residence for three full quarters and have completed their studies with distinction.

The degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) is awarded to students who, having been admitted as candidates for that degree, have been in residence for three full quarters, have completed their studies with distinction, and have submitted a dissertation which has been accepted by the Faculty as a creditable contribution to legal science.

A certificate of attendance or a certificate for courses successfully completed will be given to graduates of foreign law schools who have been admitted to the Certificate Program and have been in residence for three full quarters.

The degree of Master of Comparative Law (M.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who, having been admitted as candidates for the degree of D.Comp.L., have been in residence for six full quarters and have completed their studies with distinction.

The degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who, having been admitted as candidates for that degree, have been in residence for six full quarters, have completed their studies with distinction, and have submitted a dissertation which has been accepted by the Faculty as a creditable contribution to the literature of comparative law.
SPECIAL SUMMER SEMINAR

A special summer seminar will be held from July 14 to July 25, 1952, on the subject "The Police and Racial Tensions." It is designed primarily for police and other law enforcement officials. Topics to be covered are: (1) Case Studies of Racial Violence; (2) Standard Police Practices in Treating General Problems of Violence; (3) The Special Problems of Violence in Situations of Racial Tension; (4) Recent Developments in the Law Affecting Racial and Related Forms of Discrimination; (5) The Role of the Police in Situations of Racial Tension; (6) A Positive Program for the Police and the Community.

The seminar will be under the direction of Joseph D. Lohman, Lecturer in Sociology; Chairman, Parole and Pardon Board, State of Illinois. Participants will include: William C. Bradbury, Assistant Professor of the Social Sciences; Jerome Hall, Professor of Law, Indiana University; Visiting Professor (Summer, 1952), Law School, University of Chicago; John I. Howe, Captain, Chicago Police Department; Harry Kalven, Jr., Associate Professor of Law; Edward J. Kelly, Superintendent of National Capital Parks, Washington, D.C.; David McCandless, Director, Southern Police Institute, Louisville, Kentucky; Helen McLean, M.D., Institute for Psychoanalysis; William R. Ming, Jr., Professor of Law; George Otlewis, Chief of Police, Chicago Park District; William L. Rowe, Deputy Commissioner, New York Police Department; Robert Redfield, Professor of Anthropology; Malcolm P. Sharp, Professor of Law. Persons desiring to attend the seminar should communicate with the Office of the Dean, Law School, The University of Chicago.

The following public lectures will be given in connection with the seminar:

THE LAW OF RACIAL DISCRIMINATION. HARRY KALVEN, JR., Associate Professor of Law.

SUMMER SESSION, 1953

The Law School will be in regular session in the Summer Quarter of 1953. A special announcement will be made at a later date concerning the courses to be offered.

VII. PROGRAMS OF GRADUATE INSTRUCTION

THE LL.M.-J.S.D. PROGRAM

For these degrees resident study for three full quarters is required. To qualify for residence credit for a quarter, the student must take 12 or more course hours (3 course units) in supervised research or in seminars or courses. Such study, including the student's independent reading and research in connection with his program, are expected to occupy his full time. Each student's program will be arranged individually in consultation with his faculty adviser. Graduate students may register for the seminars or courses available to undergraduate law students, but formal instruction in undergraduate courses will be supplemented by research assignments, and all graduate students will be required to take part in the General Graduate Seminar (489). The work in residence must be completed with distinction. The candidate for the J.S.D. degree must submit, not later than the end of his last quarter in residence, either his dissertation or a detailed outline of his project therefor.

THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Normally students in the Certificate Program will be required to be in residence for three full quarters. The required course for such students will include participation in the seminar on Problems of American Law for Foreign Students (488) and in observation tours and special discussion groups.
