with University College, Downtown Center, and the School of Business. The participation of the Law School in this Conference is under the chairmanship of Professor Walter Blum.

XV. STUDENT ACTIVITIES AND HONORS

The University of Chicago Law Review, founded in 1933, is published by the School under the management of a Board of Editors composed of students. Members of the second-year class who rank highest in scholarship are invited to become competitors for election to the staff of the Review. From this group the Board of Editors chooses the editorial staff. The Editor-in-Chief from June, 1951, through February, 1952, was Edwin P. Wiley. The Managing Editors were Leo Herzel, Alexander H. Pope, and Bernard Weisberg. The Associate Editors were Howard Hoosin, Leonard R. Lamensdorf, Henry G. Manne, F. Raymond Marks, Jr., Walter Roth, A. Bruce Schimberg, and Melvin Spaeth. For the Spring Quarter, 1952, the Editor-in-Chief was Leo Herzel. The Managing Editors were Leonard R. Lamensdorf, Walter Roth, A. Bruce Schimberg, and Melvin Spaeth. The Associate Editors were Dale Broeder, Howard A. MacLeod, Alexander Polikoff, F. Raymond Marks, Jr., and Henry F. Manne.

The Chicago Chapter of the Order of the Coif is an honor society founded to encourage scholarship and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Its members are elected each spring from the 10 per cent of the graduating class who rank highest in scholarship. In 1952 the elected members were Julian R. Hansen, Elizabeth B. Head, Henry G. Manne, Alexander H. Pope, Walter Roth, Bernard Weisberg, and Edwin P. Wiley.

The University of Chicago Law School Student Association is comprised of the entire law student body and is affiliated with the American Law Student Association, a national organization sponsored by the Junior Bar Conference and the American Bar Association. The organization sponsors various legal and social student functions throughout the year. Officers are elected from each of the three classes. The officers for 1951–52 were: President, Burton W. Kanter; Vice-President–Treasurer, Ralph Mantynband; Secretary, George J. Phocas. Committee chairmen: Moot Court, Robert S. Clarke; Court Trips, Jason E. Bellows; Dance, Richard B. Kramer; Skits, Leon Gabinet.

The Joseph Henry Beal, Jr., Prize, named in honor of the first Dean of the Law School, is awarded to the first-year law student whose work in the first-year tutorial program is judged by the Faculty to be most worthy of special recognition.

The Walter Wheeler Cook Prize, named in honor of a distinguished member of the Law Faculty from 1910 to 1916, is awarded to the student who has written the best essay pursuant to the work of the second- and third-year seminars.

XVI. PLACEMENT

The Law School has a placement office to help students find suitable employment after their graduation. In collaboration with the Law School Alumni Association, special placement groups in large cities, and the University’s general placement office it secures information about openings in law offices, corporations, and government offices throughout the country, and furnishes information about University of Chicago Law School graduates.

Early in their third year, students submit placement data indicating their plans and preferences after graduation. It is important that these records, which facilitate appropriate recommendations, be filled out accurately and be kept current. Accordingly, students
