for a public lecture on some phase of the problems of government, to be given by an experienced citizen who has held public office.

The Henry C. Simons Memorial Lectureship was established in 1955 as a biennial lectureship in the field of law and economics, in honor of Henry C. Simons, for many years a distinguished member of the Faculty of the Law School and of the Department of Economics.

XVI. Student Activities and Honors

The University of Chicago Law Review, founded in 1933, is published by the School under the management of a Board of Editors composed of students. Students ranking highest in scholarship upon completion of their first year are invited to become competitors for election to the staff of the Review. From this group the editorial staff and the Board of Editors are chosen. The Editor-in-Chief for the year 1956–57 was Dallin H. Oaks. Managing Editors were Bert Z. Goodwin, Wesley J. Liebeler, Sidney L. Rosenfeld, and Terry Sandalow. Associate Editors were Ronald J. Aronberg, Stanley Block, Martin Bogot, Robert C. Claus, George I. Cowell, Kenneth W. Dam, C. Curtis Everett, Miriam C. Feigelson, Howard G. Krane, Peter D. Lederer, and Harry B. Sondheim. For the forthcoming year of 1957–58, the Editor-in-Chief will be Robert Zener. The Managing Editors will be James Beaver, Alden Guild, and Francis Kareken. The Associate Editors will be William Brackett, Richard Goodman, Philip H. Hedges, Ralph Long, Fred Mardell, John Ritsher, Terry Satinover, and Ronald Tonidandel.

The Moot Court Committee conducts the Hinton Competition, a competitive moot court program open to all students who have completed the moot court segment of the first-year tutorial course. Prizes are awarded to winners of the competition; the team which represents the Law School in national competition is selected from among the most successful competitors. Chairman of the Moot Court Committee during the academic year 1956–57 was Richard Berryman. The Committee made the following awards for achievement in the 1956–57 competition. Competition winners: Richard Berryman, John Radcliffe, Alan Swan, Frederick Yonkman. Best brief: James C. Goodale, Sanford Katz, David Y. Klein. Best oral argument: Morton A. Brody. Representatives of the School in the national competition in 1956–57 were Terry Lunsford, Alan Swan, and Frederick Yonkman. The Law School’s team in the 1957–58 national competition will be composed of Morton A. Brody, James C. Goodale, and Robert T. Cornwell. The Chairman of the Hinton Competition for 1957–58 will be Robert T. Cornwell.

The Edwin Mandel Legal Aid Clinic, made possible through a gift in 1957 from Mr. Edwin F. Mandel, will be established during the academic year 1957–58 to provide needed legal services for indigent persons and training for law students in the handling of cases under supervision.

The University of Chicago Law School Student Association is composed of the entire law student body and is affiliated with the American Law Student Association, a national organization sponsored by the Junior Bar Conference and the American Bar Association. The organization sponsors various legal and social student functions throughout the year. The staff of the Student Lawyer Journal, published by the American Law Student Association, is selected from the University of Chicago Law Student Association. The Association officers are selected from each of the three classes. The officers for 1956–57 were: President, John Radcliffe; Vice-President, Theodore Huszagh; Secretary and Treasurer, Gloria Martinez. The president of the Association for 1957–58.
is John G. Satter, Jr. The editor-in-chief of the Student Lawyer Journal for 1957-58 is Joe A. Sutherland.

The Chicago Chapter of the Order of the Coif is an honor society founded to encourage and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Its members are elected each spring from the ten per cent of the graduating class who rank highest in scholarship. In 1957 the elected members were Martin Lee Bogot, Kenneth W. Dam, Joseph DuCoeur, Charles Curtis Everett, Bert Z. Goodwin, Wesley James Liebeler, Dallin Harris Oaks, and Terry Sandalow.

The Joseph Henry Beale, Jr., Prize, named in honor of the first Dean of the Law School, is awarded to the first-year law student whose work in the first-year tutorial program is judged by the Faculty to be most worthy of special recognition. The prize for 1956–57 was awarded to Kenneth Howell.

The Walter Wheeler Cook Prize, named in honor of a distinguished member of the Law Faculty from 1910 to 1916, is awarded to the student whose work in the second-year tutorial program is judged by the Faculty to be most worthy of special recognition.

The “Wall Street Journal” Award is given annually to a student for excellence in work in the field of corporation law. The award for 1956–57 was given to Francis A. Kareken.

The Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company and the Bancroft-Whitney Company, joint publishers of American Jurisprudence, annually make available the relevant separately bound subjects from American Jurisprudence as an award to the highest ranking students in various course areas.

The Nathan Burkan Memorial Competition Prizes, sponsored by the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers, are available annually to two students whose papers in the field of copyright law are deemed by the Faculty to be worthy of the prizes.

The Institute for International Order offers two prizes for winning essays on subjects designated annually.

The Lawyers Title Award, sponsored by the Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation, Richmond, Virginia, is awarded annually to a student for excellence in work in the field of real estate.

XVII. Placement

The Law School maintains a placement office to help students find suitable employment after their graduation. In collaboration with the Law School Alumni Association, special placement groups in large cities, and the University's general placement office, it secures information about openings in law offices, corporations, and government offices throughout the country, and furnishes information about University of Chicago Law School graduates. The Placement Office also assists in arrangements for teaching positions; through the Comparative Law Center efforts are made to place properly qualified students in research centers and other institutions abroad and to help foreign students to find opportunities for study and research in American law.

Early in their third year, students submit placement data indicating their plans and preferences after graduation. It is important that these records, which facilitate appropriate recommendations, be filled out accurately and kept up to date. Accordingly students whose plans or preferences change during the third year are asked to indicate such changes to the Placement Office. In the event that a student enters the armed forces following his graduation, the facilities of the Placement Office are available to him upon