

Addendum

Well, that's it for the first twenty-five! It might simplify procedures if you would let the Law School know from time to time what you are doing for the next twenty-five. This brings to mind the fact that, after the above success story, the School might think it exaggerated unless some healthy contributions are forthcoming from every one of you. The Law School has made great strides. Those of you who are in touch know that there truly are a new set of "greats" training the minds of the future. The School has outgrown its physical capacity. It needs your help and deserves your support.

To all of you the best of everything to be wished for. To those of you who have taken the trouble to fill out your questionnaire, it has been a real pleasure to hear from you; it is a genuine loss to the School not to have heard from the others. Looking ahead to our fiftieth, however, it is hoped that another classmate will groom himself to further this adulatory saga of the Class of '30.
