

The Bigelow Fellows for 1954-55: Lawrence Greenapple, James Kostas, Robert Samek, David Jackson, and Leonard Braman

The Bigelow Fellows—1954-55

The Law School is pleased to announce the appointment of the Bigelow Fellows for the current academic year. They are:

Leonard Braman, who was graduated from the University of Virginia Law School and was an editor of their law review. He served for a year as clerk to Judge Prettyman and has been Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Columbia.

Lawrence Greenapple, who served as an editor of the law review at the Cornell Law School. He comes to us directly from service in the armed forces in Korea and Japan.

David C. Jackson, who did his law work at Brasenose College, Oxford University.

James C. Kostas, who was editor of the law review at the University of Kentucky.

Robert Samek, who holds a Senior Lectureship in Commercial Law at the University of Melbourne. He received his legal education at Cambridge University.

Bruce D. Larkin and Harold A. Ward III, Wormser Scholars for 1954-55.
