

Dwight P. Green '12, New Fund Chairman

Dwight P. Green

The alumni have already received advance word from Dwight P. Green '12, General Chairman of the 1953-54 University of Chicago Law School Fund. As this issue of the RECORD goes to press, we are happy to announce that the anticipatory gifts and pledges give this year's Committee a running start on the coming drive.

Many of the chairmen in Chicago have already been appointed, and they are at work organizing their efforts for next spring. This year, in addition to the previous state organization throughout the country, greater emphasis will be placed on across-the-board class contributions, with alumni throughout the nation joining with their classmates in Chicago to build class totals.

Serving with Dwight Green on the Fund Committee are: Edward Felsenthal '10, Charles Holton '10, David Levinson '12, Morris E. Feiwell '15, Edward Stofft '23, Herbert C. DeYoung '28, Thomas Mulroy '28, Stanley A. Kaplan '33, Earle F. Simmons '35, P. Newton Todhunter '37, Owen Fairweather '38, Laurence A. Carton '47, Lawrence Howe, Jr. '49, James J. McClure '49, and Abner Mikva '51. Of course, Glen A. Lloyd '23, University Trustee and President of the Law School Alumni Association, is ex officio very much a member of the Fund Committee.

Morry Feiwell is doubling also in an elder statesman role and as chairman of the classes of 1914 to 1922. Under his dynamic chairmanship last year, great progress was made in organizing the classes and telling the story of the School's needs and opportunities to hundreds of alumni.

Morris E. Feiwell