

Moot Court

The Law School's Moot Court Team, composed of Lewis Ginsberg and Lawrence Rubinstein, is continuing the record of achievement established in the last four years. Messrs. Ginsberg and Rubinstein recently won the Regional Competition, defeating the University of Illinois in the final round. They also won the additional Regional Competition based on quality of brief alone. They represented the School in the national competition held in New York in mid-December under the sponsorship of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York. Both Mr. Ginsberg and Mr. Rubinstein are residents of Chicago and graduates of the College of the University of Chicago.
