

Faculty Notes

PROFESSOR E. W. PUTTKAMMER was selected last spring by the University of Arkansas to serve as University Distinguished Lecturer for 1955. Professor Puttkammer spoke on "Universities as Factors in International Understanding."

WILBER G. KATZ, James Parker Hall Professor of Law, spoke this autumn at Wesleyan University on "The Profession of Law—a Social Accounting." Under a joint arrangement between Wesleyan University and The Law School, a member of this Faculty delivers a public lecture at Wesleyan each year. Professor Katz's lecture was the third in this series.

During the Annual Meeting of the American Bar Association in Philadelphia last August, DEAN EDWARD H. LEVI spoke on "Antitrust Policy in Distribution" as part of a Symposium on the Report of the Attorney General's National Committee To Study the Antitrust Laws.

MRS. RAYA S. DREBEN, Bigelow Fellow for 1955-56, has been named winner of the 1955 Nathan Burkan Memorial Competition, conducted by the American Society of Composers and Publishers. Mrs. Dreben, Phi Beta Kappa graduate of Radcliffe College and an alumna of the Harvard Law School, wrote her prize-winning paper on "Publication and the British Copyright Law."

On the occasion of the annual meeting of the Association of General Counsel, PROFESSOR BERNARD MELTZER arranged for a Round Table on Selected Collective-Bargaining Problems. In addition to presiding over the round table, Professor Meltzer acted as a commentator on the discussion concerning "'Defensive' and 'Bargaining' Lockouts under the Taft-Hartley Act and Antitrust Legislation." Earlier in the quarter, Professor Meltzer spoke to members of the Illinois State Bar Association on the subject of "Employer Free Speech and the National Labor Relations Board."
