

BOOKS RECEIVED

- Can Representative Government Do the Job? By Thomas K. Finletter. New York: Reynal & Hitchcock, 1945. Pp. 184. $2.00.
- Cases on Agency. By Warren A. Seavey. St. Paul: West Publishing Co., 1945. Pp. xxix, 676. $6.00.
- Claims to Territory in International Law and Relations. By Norman Hill. New York: Oxford University Press, 1945. Pp. vi, 248. $3.00.
- Crime and the Human Mind. By David Abrahamsen. New York: Columbia University Press, 1944. Pp. xii, 244. $3.00.
- English Courts of Law. By H. G. Hanbury. Oxford: Oxford University Press, 1944. Pp. 192. $1.25.
- Limits of Jurisprudence Defined, The. By Jeremy Bentham. Edited by Charles Warren Everett. New York: Columbia University Press, 1945. Pp. xxii, 358. $4.50.
- Racial State, The. By Gerhard Jacoby. New York: Institute of Jewish Affairs, 1944. Pp. xii, 355. $3.00.
- Reorganization of Congress, The: Report of Committee on Congress of the American Political Science Association. Washington: Public Affairs Press, 1945. Pp. 89. $1.00.