

The University confers the degree of A.B., Ph.B., or S.B. upon Law students admitted to candidacy for the degree of J.D. who have completed nine Majors (one year) of work in the Law School, and, in addition to the admission requirements to a Junior College, have satisfied one of the following requirements:

a) Students who have pursued all their college work in the University must complete the courses prescribed for the college in which they are registered.

b) Students admitted to the University with less than eighteen Majors (two years) of credit from other colleges must make up the deficiency below eighteen Majors by taking prescribed college work for which they have not credit; above eighteen Majors, pre-legal courses may be taken to satisfy any further deficiencies in prescribed work, except English.

c) Students admitted to the University with at least eighteen Majors (two years) of credit from other colleges are required to complete only enough college work to give them altogether twenty-seven Majors, and may take pre-legal courses to satisfy any deficiencies in prescribed work, except English.

If a student has deviated more than three Majors from a regular course of study required at the college from which he comes, the relief from prescribed work permitted to him under b) and c) above will be diminished by the amount of such deviation in excess of three Majors. Pre-legal courses may be taken or substituted to satisfy this extra deficiency.

Students already holding such degrees from other colleges may obtain an academic degree from the University upon satisfying the above requirements.

The degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) is conferred upon candidates therefor who are college graduates and have completed the three-year professional course.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B) is conferred upon candidates therefor who have completed the professional course with a high average standing.

To obtain either of the professional degrees it is necessary to complete twenty-seven Majors of law work, distributed over nine Quarters of law school residence, of which at least nine Majors of work and three Quarters of residence (including the last Quarter for which credit is given) must have been at this School. The work of the first year and the Practice courses are required.

Candidates for either of the professional degrees who complete the course with high distinction will receive the degree cum laude.

No professional degree will be conferred upon any student markedly deficient in English, and no student may receive both an academic and a professional degree in the same Quarter.
