

MEMORIAL FUNDS

The John P. Wilson Professorship of Law.—This professorship was established in 1929 by Mr. John P. Wilson, Jr., a member of the Chicago Bar, and Mrs. Anna W. Dickinson, as a memorial to their father, Mr. John P. Wilson, who was for many years an eminent member and leader of the Chicago Bar.

The Max Pam Professorship of Comparative Law.—This professorship was established in 1935 by the Trustees under the last will and testament of Mr. Max Pam in memory of Mr. Pam, who was for many years an eminent member and leader of the Chicago Bar.

The James Parker Hall Professorship of Law.—This professorship was established by the Alumni of the Law School in memory of James Parker Hall, who was from 1904 to 1928 the Dean of the Law School and an outstanding legal scholar.

The James Nelson Raymond Memorial Fund.—This fund was established in 1929 by Mrs. Anna L. Raymond as a memorial to her husband, James Nelson Raymond, for many years one of the leading manufacturers of Chicago. The income from the fund is used for the purchase of books for the University of Chicago Law Library.

The Wallace Heckman Memorial Fund.—This fund was established in 1929 by Mrs. Wallace Heckman as a memorial to her husband, Mr. Wallace Heckman, the Business Manager of the University from 1903 to 1924. The income from the fund is used for the purchase of books for the University of Chicago Law Library.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Raymond Scholarships.—Established in 1930 by Mrs. Anna L. Raymond in memory of her husband, James Nelson Raymond. There are three scholarships, each of about $500 a year. These are awarded to needy students whose work is of a character to give evidence of high legal ability.

Leo F. Wormser Scholarships.—Established in 1935 by friends of Leo F. Wormser as a memorial to him. Mr. Wormser was a graduate of the Law School and a distinguished member of the Chicago Bar. Three scholarships, each paying full tuition, are awarded annually from this fund.

Twenty-fifth Anniversary Scholarship.—A scholarship contribution made annually by the class which graduated from the Law School twenty-five years previously. It may be awarded as a unit or divided between two students.

University Scholarships.—University scholarships, each yielding a portion of the tuition fees for an academic year, are awarded to meritorious Law School students needing financial assistance. Preference is given to students of high rank. A certain number of these University scholarships are reserved for meritorious students of high rank entering the Law School. Certain services are required in return for these scholarships.

Scholarship awards for the Summer Quarter and for the following academic year are made on May fifteenth of each year. Applications should be made in due form upon an application blank which may be secured from the office of the Dean of the Law School.

The La Verne Noyes Foundation, established July 5, 1918, by the gift of Mr. La Verne Noyes, provides part tuition fees for students who (1) shall themselves have served in the Army or Navy of the United States in the war for liberty into which the Republic entered on April 6, 1917, providing that such service was terminated by honorable discharge; or (2) shall be descendants by blood of anyone who served in the Army or Navy of the United States in said war, provided that such service was terminated by an honorable death or an honorable discharge.

The stipulated period of service for eligibility at the present time is a minimum of five months. Assistance for students eligible to receive aid from the Noyes Foundation is granted at all levels of the College, the Divisions, and the Professional Schools.

La Verne Noyes Scholarships are awarded for one quarter only at a time but upon reapplication are continued during the student's period of residence in the University. Reapplication consists of an oral or written statement to the secretary (Cobb Lecture Hall, Room 203) that the scholarship is desired for a given quarter. Students in residence should make a request for the next quarter at the time of receiving the voucher at the beginning of any quarter, or, in case of uncertainty, as soon as plans are formulated, but not later than two weeks in advance of the opening of the quarter. Students not in residence are required to make application in writing not less than two weeks in advance of the opening of the quarter.

FELLOWSHIPS

James Nelson Raymond Fellowship.—The James Nelson Raymond Fellowship was created in 1933 and 1934 by Mrs. Anna Louise Raymond in memory of her husband. The income is awarded to a graduate student in law whose record gives satisfactory evidence of a capacity for distinguished work in legal investigation or research.

University Fellowships.—Several fellowships are available to candidates for the degree of J.S.D. and may be awarded to suitable applicants in the discretion of the Law Faculty.

Applications for the award of Fellowships should be made not later than March 1. Directions for making such applications will be sent upon request.

LOAN FUNDS

There are numerous loan funds established through the generosity of various friends of the Law School. Loans may be obtained from these funds by Law School students upon a proper showing of the need of financial assistance. Such loans are available only to students who have had at least three quarters of residence in the School.

The Ernst Freund Loan Fund was established in 1922 by the late Professor Ernst Freund, and since his death has been augmented by other contributions.

The James Parker Hall Loan Fund was established by the alumni of the Law School, in memory of the late Dean Hall.

The Floyd R. Mechem Loan Fund for Law Students was established in 1921 by the late Professor Floyd R. Mechem.

The Anna Louise Raymond Loan Fund was established by Mrs. Anna L. Raymond in 1932 for the benefit of students in the Law School, preference to be given to women students.

The Julius Rosenthal Fund was established in 1903 by Judge Julian W. Mack in memory of Julius Rosenthal.

The Clark B. Whittier Law Loan Fund was established by Professor Clark B. Whittier in recognition of his previous connection with the University of Chicago Law School as a member of its Faculty.

University Tuition Loan Funds.—The University has established a loan fund from which loans may be made to students in need of financial assistance. The amount of the loan is limited to one-half of the student's tuition charge. The loans bear interest at 5 per cent, are not for over one year, but may on proper showing be extended.
