

XIX. Student Activities and Honors

The University of Chicago Law Review, founded in 1933, is published by the School under the management of a Board of Editors composed of students. Students ranking highest in scholarship upon completion of their first year are invited to become competitors for election to the staff of the Review. From this group the editorial staff and the Board of Editors are chosen. For the year 1960-61, Erwin A. Tomaschoff was Editor-in-Chief until his graduation in December, when Richard M. Harter became the new Editor-in-Chief. The Managing Editors were Donald E. Egan, James E. Hautzinger, C. Keith Rooker, and (until December) Richard M. Harter. The Associate Editors were Richard F. Broude, John M. Cannon, Mary Ann Glendon, Thomas N. Jersild, Donald A. Mackay, Allen M. Turner, Donald M. Wessling, Michael W. Zavis, Donald S. Zinn, and, for a part of the year, Richard C. Fox and Earl Johnson. The Editor-in-Chief for 1961-62 is David P. Earle III. Managing Editors are Charles H. Gustafson, John M. Junker, Henry H. Stern, Jr., and Gerald S. Witherspoon. The Associate Editors are Donald W. Graves, Richard Harris, Richard L. Marcus, Fred A. Mauck, Bethilda Olson, Gerald Sherman, Stephen E. Tallent, William L. Velton, and Norman Vieira.

The Moot Court Committee conducts the Hinton Competition, a two-year round robin moot court program open to all students after their first year who wish to advance their technique in the art of brief writing and oral argument. Prizes are awarded to winners of the competition; the team that represents the Law School in national competition is selected from among the most successful competitors in the second year. Co-Chairmen of the Committee during the academic year 1960-61 were Donald L. Janis and Edward N. Thomson. The following awards for achievement were made in the 1960-61 competition: Lawrence H. Eiger and Donald L. Janis, competition winners; in the second year competition, Frederick W. Huszagh and Thomas B. Rutter, best brief; and Ronald L. Engel, best oral argument. Fred K. Grant received the American Association of Trial Lawyers' Cup for the best oral argument of the region. The Law School's team in the 1960-61 national competition was composed of Fred K. Grant, Robert C. Bills, Jr., and Larry P. Scriggins. The 1961-62 national moot court team is composed of Ronald L. Engel, Frederick W. Huszagh, and Thomas B. Rutter. The Chairman of the Committee for 1961-62 is Harold S. Russell.

The Edwin F. Mandel Legal Aid Clinic, made possible through a gift from Mr. Edwin F. Mandel, was established in 1957 to provide needed legal services for indigent persons and for the training of Law School students in the handling of cases under supervision. Henry J. Kaganiec is Director of the Edwin F. Mandel Legal Aid Clinic. The 1960-61 officers were Jerry Pruzansky, President; George P. Blake, First Vice-President; Donald C. Dowling, Second Vice-President; and Thomas D. Schwartz, Secretary-Treasurer. The officers for 1961-62 are Alvin G. Becker, President; David S. Chernoff, Vice-President; and Robert D. Baldwin, Secretary-Treasurer. The members of the Board of Directors are James T. Canivan, Robert A. Woodford, and William G. Pfefferkorn.

The University of Chicago Law School Student Association is composed of the entire student body and is affiliated with the American Law Student Association, a national organization sponsored by the Junior Bar Conference and the American Bar Association. The Student Association sponsors various legal and social functions throughout the year. The 1960-61 officers were Richard H. Newhouse, Jr., Chairman; James A. Malkus, Vice-President; James A. Donohoe, Secretary; and David S. Chernoff, Treasurer. The President of the Senior Class for 1961-62 and Chairman of the Council of the Association is Martin N. Burke III.

The Chicago Chapter of the Order of the Coif is an honor society founded to encourage and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Its members are elected each spring from the 10 per cent of the graduating class who rank highest in scholarship. In 1960-61 the elected members were Richard F. Broude, Gary L. Cowan, Donald E. Egan, Richard C. Fox, Richard M. Harter, James E. Hautzinger, Donald A. Mackay, Nancy G. McDermid, Clifton K. Rooker, Erwin A. Tomaschoff, Donald M. Wessling, and Donald S. Zinn.

The Joseph Henry Beale Prize, named in honor of the first Dean of the Law School, is awarded to the first-year student whose work in the first-year tutorial program is judged by the Faculty to be most worthy of special recognition. The prize for 1960-61 was awarded to Dorsey D. Ellis, Jr., and George W. Liebmann.

The Institute for International Order offers two prizes for winning essays on subjects designated annually.

The Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company and the Bancroft-Whitney Company, joint publishers of American Jurisprudence, annually make available the relevant separately bound subjects from American Jurisprudence as an award to the highest ranking students in various course areas.

The Lawyers Title Award, sponsored by the Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation, Richmond, Virginia, is awarded annually to a student for excellence in work in the field of real estate. The award was given in 1960-61 to James E. Hautzinger.

The Edwin F. Mandel Award is made annually to that member of the graduating class who, during his Law School career, has contributed the most to the Legal Aid program, both in the quality of the work done and the conscientious exercise of legal aid responsibilities. The award for 1960-61 was made to James Valentino, Jr.

The Nathan Burkan Memorial Competition Prizes, sponsored by the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers, are available annually to two students whose papers in the field of copyright law are deemed by the Faculty to be worthy of the prizes. The first prize for 1960–61 was awarded to Ronald G. Hillebrand and the second prize to Gerald Sherman.

The “Wall Street Journal” Award is given annually to a student for excellence in work in the field of corporation law. The award for 1960–61 was given to Louis E. Rosen.
