III. ORGANIZATION AND EQUIPMENT

GENERAL STATEMENT

The University of Chicago Law School was established in 1902. It aims to give a thorough legal training to students whose education and maturity have fitted them to pursue serious professional study. The method of instruction employed—the study and discussion of cases—is designed to give an effective knowledge of legal principles and to develop the power of independent legal reasoning. The course of study offered, requiring three academic years for completion, is not local in its scope, but constitutes a thorough preparation for the practice of law in any English-speaking jurisdiction. By taking advantage of the Quarter system (see "General Information," p. 6, below) students may complete the course in two and one-fourth calendar years.

Only college graduates or students who have had college work equivalent to three years in the University are admitted as regular students, candidates for the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.).* The University permits one year of law to be counted as the fourth year of college work, and confers an academic Bachelor's degree upon candidates for J.D. who have com-

*This form of degree (Juris Doctor) has been chosen as appropriate for graduate professional work, after consultation with other graduate law schools and in the expectation of its adoption by them in the near future.
ANNOUNCEMENTS

It is very desirable that the preliminary education of law students should include work in History, Economics, and Political Science, and provision has been made in the third college year for pre-legal study devoted chiefly to these subjects. This course is not required, but students expecting to study law are strongly advised to pursue it. Its suggested topics are found below, p. 7, under “Pre-Legal Courses.”

THE LAW BUILDING

The Law School occupies a new building within the University Quadrangles, erected especially for it in 1904. It is three stories high, 175 feet long, and 80 feet wide, built of stone in the English Gothic style of architecture. On the first floor are four lecture-rooms, two of which are in amphitheater form. The mezzanine floor is occupied by the library stack-room, connected with the reading-room above by electric book lifts and designed to contain steel stacks for 80,000 volumes. Opening into the stack-room are studies for members of the Faculty. On the third floor is the reading-room, a great hall with high tim-bered ceiling, 180 feet long and 50 feet wide, lighted on all sides by Gothic windows. It has wall shelves for 14,000 books and provides space for tables accommodating over 400 readers. Adjoining the reading-room is the office of the Dean. In the basement is a smoking-room, and the locker-room containing several hundred steel-mesh lockers for the use of students. The building is lighted by electricity, is artificially ventilated, is provided with an interior telephone system, and in every respect is thoroughly equipped for its purpose.

THE LIBRARY

The Law Library contains 27,000 volumes. Except a few county court decisions, it includes all of the American English, Irish, Scotch, Canadian, Australian, New Zealand, and higher Indian reports, with their digests; all past and present codes and statutory revisions of those jurisdictions; all English, Irish, and Scotch statutes, and (except the early laws of some of the older states) the session laws of all the American states and Canadian provinces; all collateral reports and series of classified cases in use; an extensive collection of treatises, periodicals, trials, and legal miscellany; and a working library in French, German, Spanish, and Mexican law.

Students in the Law School may use the other University libraries, containing about 400,000 volumes.

PRACTICE COURSES, MOOT COURTS, AND PUBLIC SPEAKING

To familiarize students with the more generally prevailing rules of procedure in American courts, courses in Practice are offered continuing through two years. The course for second-year students deals with proceedings in suits before judgment; and the course for third-year students includes judgments, their enforcement and review, various special proceedings, and the preparation of briefs and arguments. Both courses are required of all law students.

A number of law clubs exist which hold Moot Courts with the advice and assistance of members of the Faculty. Students are encouraged to form or join these bodies and to take part in their proceedings.

The University courses in Public Speaking and Debate are open without extra charge to students of the Law School, and the latter maintain one of the University debating societies. Law students are eligible for the University prize debates, and for places upon the intercollegiate debating teams.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

ADMISSION TO THE PRE-LEGAL COURSE

Admission to the pre-legal course is granted to students who have completed the University or elsewhere at least eighteen Majors (two years) of college work. Credit will be given for acceptable work done in other institutions of collegiate rank.

Such students, after completing enough pre-legal work (see “Pre-Legal Courses,” p. 7, below) to give them altogether twenty-seven Majors (three years) of credit in the University, will be admitted to the Law School as candidates for the degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.). Upon the completion of one year of law and the satisfaction of the requirements stated below, p. 5, under “Degrees,” they will receive an academic Bachelor’s degree from the University.

The pre-legal course is not required for admission to the Law School, but students intending to study law are strongly advised to pursue this course in their third college year and to choose their Junior College electives with this view. Candidates for the degree of LL.B. are also urged to take some pre-legal work, if possible, before entering the Law School.

ADMISSION TO THE LAW SCHOOL

a) Admission to the Law School as candidates for the degree of J.D. is granted:

1. To college graduates whose degrees represent college work equivalent to twenty-seven Majors (three years) in the University.

2. To students who have completed in the University or elsewhere twenty-seven Majors (three years) of col-le work.* Credit will be given for acceptable work done in other institutions of collegiate rank. Before receiving the degree of J.D. such students must obtain from the University an academic degree, and are permitted to count toward this one year of law. The requirements for academic degrees will be found below, under “Degrees.”

b) Admission to the Law School as candidates for the degree of L.L.B. is granted:

1. To students over twenty-one years old who have completed high-school or college work equivalent to

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Students from other law schools of high grade who are otherwise qualified to enter the School, will ordinarily receive credit (not exceeding two years in amount) for work and residence satisfactorily completed at such schools corresponding in character to that required at this School. The right is reserved to refuse such credit, in whole or in part, save condi-tionally or upon examination. (See “Regulations,” p. 6 below.)

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must be twenty-two years old to be admitted to second-year standing, and twenty-three years old to be admitted to third-year standing.

No credit will be given for work not done in residence at a law school.

DEGREES

The University confers the degree of A.B., Ph.B., or S.B. upon Law students admitted to candidacy for the degree of J.D. who have completed nine Majors (one year) of work in the Law School, and, in addition to the admission requirements to a Junior College, have satisfied one of the following requirements:

a) Students who have pursued all their college work in the University must complete the courses prescribed for the college in which they are registered.

b) Students admitted to the University with less than eighteen Majors (two years) of credit from other colleges must make up the deficiency below eighteen Majors by taking prescribed college work for which they have not credit; above eighteen Majors, pre­ legal courses may be taken to satisfy any further de-ciencies in prescribed work, except English.

c) Students admitted to the University with at least eighteen Majors (two years) of credit from other colleges are required to complete only enough college work to give them altogether twenty-seven Majors, and may take pre­legal courses to satisfy any de-ciencies in prescribed work, except English.

If a student has deviated more than three Majors from a regular course of study required at the college from which he comes, the relief from prescribed work permitted to him under b) and c) above will be diminished by the amount of such deviation in excess of three Majors. Pre­legal courses may be taken or sub-sstituted to satisfy this extra deficiency.

Students already holding such degrees from other colleges may obtain an academic degree from the University upon satisfying the above requirements.

The degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) is conferred upon candidates therefor who are college graduates and have completed the three-year professional course.

The degree of Bachelor of Laws (L.L.B.) is conferred upon candidates therefor who have completed the professional course with a high average standing.

To obtain either of the professional degrees it is necessary to complete twenty-seven Majors of law work, distributed over nine Quarters of law school residence, of which at least nine Majors of work and three Quarters of residence (including the last Quarter for which credit is given) must have been at this School.
The work of the first year and the Practice courses are required.

Candidates for either of the professional degrees who complete the course with high distinction will receive the degree cum laude.

No professional degree will be conferred upon any student markedly deficient in English, and no student may receive both an academic and a professional degree in the same Quarter.

FEES

1. Matriculation fee.— A matriculation fee of $5 is required of every student entering the University for the first time.

2. Tuition fee.—The tuition fee in the Law School is $50 a Quarter ($35 a Term) for regular work (three Majors). Students who take half work or less, pay half fees, and receive residence credit pro rata. With the consent of the Dean, Law students may take extra work in any department of the University without extra charge.

*By special permission of the Dean admission may be granted to students who have credit for but twenty-four Majors, but such students must make up the deficiency before obtaining an academic degree from the University. Such permission will ordinarily be granted only in the Autumn Quarter to enable students to take advantage of courses beginning then. (See “The Quarter System,” p. 6, below.)

† Such a degree from any other institution, if representing twenty-seven Majors of work, will be accepted.

Students not registered in the Law School pay $5 a Major extra for each law course taken, except required law courses taken by fourth-year students registered in the College of Commerce and Administration, and law courses offered by members of the Department of Political Science as part of the work of that Department. Undergraduate students not registered in the Law School must pay $20 for each Major law course taken as extra work.

For the pre­legal course the tuition fee is $10 a Quarter for regular work. For extra work $1.5 a Major is charged.
3. Diploma Fee.—The charge for the diploma of the University is $10.

SCHOLARSHIPS
A small number of scholarships, each yielding a portion of the tuition fees for an academic year (three Quarters), are awarded annually to meritorious members of the Law School needing such assistance, in return for service in the Law Library. A preference is given to students of high rank. Scholarships for the Summer Quarter only are awarded separately upon similar terms. All applications for scholarships for the Summer Quarter and for the succeeding year, accompanied by statements regarding the age, education, occupation, scholarship, and other qualifications of the applicant, should be made in writing to the Dean before June 1.

REGULATIONS
Law students who are candidates for an academic degree from the University must conform to the general rules and regulations governing Senior College students. A number of these rules are waived in the case of students already holding college degrees representing twenty-seven Majors of work.
In any one Quarter first-year students may not register for more than three Majors, nor other students for more than three and one-half Majors of work, without the consent of the Dean.
Students may not take examinations (except to remove conditions) in more than ten and one-half Majors of resident work in any three consecutive Quarters.
The work of the first year and the Practice courses are required. The second and third-year courses are elective and need not be taken in any fixed order.
To obtain credit toward a law degree for any work done in the School students must pass the regular examinations, which are by printed questions to be answered in writing. Examinations in courses continuing more than one Quarter will be held only at the completion of the course. No special examinations will be given, nor will partial credit be allowed for any unfinished course, or for one in which the student has not passed in the examination. Additional examinations in first-year subjects only will be held the last week in September for admission to advanced standing and for the removal of conditions. Aplication for admission to these examinations should be made not later than September 15. Other conditions may be removed or advanced standing obtained at the regular examinations. Students who pass below a certain grade in a course must take it again before re-examination.
Regular attendance at class exercises is required as a condition of receiving credit for work done, and the privilege of membership in the School may be withdrawn for unsatisfactory work or attendance.

GENERAL INFORMATION

THE QUARTER SYSTEM
The system prevailing in the University of dividing the work into Quarters is adopted in the Law School.
The Quarters are designated as the Summer, Autumn, Winter, and Spring Quarters, beginning respectively in 1906-7 on June 18, October 1, January 2, and April 1.
Each Quarter is eleven to twelve weeks long, and is divided into two Terms. A recess of about one week occurs between the end of each Quarter and the beginning of the next, except that there is no recess between the end of the Spring and the beginning of the Summer Quarter, and that there is a recess during September at the end of the Summer Quarter. Any three Quarters count as an academic year, and it is thus possible to complete the three-year law course in two and one-fourth calendar years.
The work in the Law School is so arranged that it is very much better for beginning first-year students to enter at the opening of the Summer or Autumn Quarter than at any other time. The beginning courses given then are not repeated later, and, while it is possible for such students to enter in the Winter, they are sometimes unable then to obtain full work for which they are prepared. Senior College students should plan their work to enter the Law School in June or October. Students admitted to advanced standing may usually enter without difficulty in the middle of the Summer or Winter Quarters, or at the beginning of any Quarter. No courses begin in the middle of the Autumn or Spring Quarters.

MAJORS AND MINORS
The credit value of courses of instruction is reckoned in Majors and Minors. A Major (Mj) is equivalent to four hours of instruction a week for a Quarter. A Minor (M) equals that amount of instruction for one Term (half a Quarter).

ROUTINE OF ENTRANCE
Applications and correspondence should be addressed to JAMES P. HALL, Dean of the Law School, University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill. A student from another institution should present his diploma; or, if he does not hold a degree equivalent to three years of college work in the University, he should bring a detailed statement of his work. Blank forms for such statements will be sent upon application. All credentials should be presented at the office of the Dean. In cases of doubt, correspondence is invited upon these matters before the student presents himself for admission. Directions for matriculation and registeration will be furnished in the Dean's office.

ROOMS, BOARD, AND GENERAL EXPENSES Nine dormitories have thus far been erected within the Quadrangles. The cost of furnished rooms in the dormitories is from $20 to $75 per Quarter of twelve weeks. This includes heat, light, and care. The Uni-University furnishes table board for men at moderate rates in the newly established University Commons in Hutchinson Hall.

All applications for rooms, or for information concerning rooms and board within or without the Quadrangles, should be made to the Registrar, who will send diagrams and prices upon application.

The following table will furnish an estimate of the annual expenses for thirty-six weeks of a student in the Law School residing within the Quadrangles:

It is believed that students who find it necessary to reduce expenses below the lowest of these estimates can do so. Rooms outside the Quadrangles, furnished, with heat, light, and care, may be obtained at from $1 a week upward, the $1 rate being easily secured where two students room together. Many places offer room and board from $4.50 upward. There are student clubs which secure board at cost, the rate during the past year ranging from $2.75 to $3.50 a week. A list of approved boarding places outside the Quadrangles is kept on file at the Information Office, Cobb Lecture Hall, where information regarding them may be obtained.

Self-Help for Students

A considerable number of students manage in various ways to earn a portion of their expenses while in the University. The needs of a large city afford opportunities to part of these, and a smaller number obtain remunerated service with the University. The latter resource is open to those only who have spent at least one quarter in residence at the University.

All inquiries regarding self-help for students should be addressed to the Information Office, Cobb Lecture Hall.

Privileges

Students in the Law School are entitled to all the privileges of the University. There is no additional charge (except a locker fee) for the use of the Bartlett Gymnasium, the swimming pool, or the tennis courts, for medical examination and advice from the University physician, or for admission to other courses in the University. Law students may become members of the Reynolds Club upon the same terms as other students.

IV. COURSES OF INSTRUCTION, 1906-7

Pre-Legal Courses

The pre-legal curriculum in the first year of the Senior Colleges (the third college year) is intended to direct the college work of prospective law students to studies especially useful to the future lawyer. It is not required, but students are strongly advised to pursue it, and to choose their Junior College electives with this view.

A choice among the courses offered in the University upon the following subjects is particularly recommended:

- Principles of Political Economy.
- Constitutional History of the United States.
- Roman Law.
- Oral Debates and Argumentation.
- Bookkeeping and Accounting.
- Railway Transportation and Regulation of Rates.
- Economic and Social History.
- Finance, and History and Theory of Banking.
- Organization of Business Enterprise.

Contemporary Society in the United States.

With the approval of the Dean of the Law School, other courses may also be accepted as pre-legal work, especially those offered in the departments of Political Economy, Political Science, and courses in English, American, and modern European History, and courses dealing with modern social and municipal problems. Students who have not had the course in Civil Government in the United States, or who have not completed the English Composition required in the Junior Colleges, will be expected to take these during the pre-legal year.

Note.—For detailed information concerning the above courses, see the Announcements of the Departments of Political Economy, Political Science, History, and Sociology, which will be sent upon application to the University of Chicago.

Professional Courses

[M]=Major course, four hours weekly for one Quarter. \[M]=Minor course, four hours weekly for one Term. \[DM]=Double Minor course, eight hours weekly for one Term. Many of the courses continue through more than one Quarter, and for these no partial credit will usually be given. All Summer Quarter courses are completed then]

* Besides candidates for the degree of J.D., the above list includes 21 candidates for the degree of LL.B. who have had two or more years of college work, and 7 who have had one year. Students from other colleges whose work in the University has been entirely in the Law School are credited to their former colleges only, though they may have obtained an academic degree from the University.
THE SUMMER QUARTER, 1906

The University of Chicago Law School continues its regular courses of instruction through the Summer Quarter. Full work is provided for both beginning and advanced students. The latter may continue their work during the summer, thus shortening the calendar time for the three-year course without reducing the period of actual residence; and beginning students may commence the study of law in the summer, to be continued either in the Autumn Quarter or in the next Summer Quarter. The summer work affords a special opportunity to teachers who wish to study law, to students in other law schools who wish to do extra work, and to young practitioners who desire systematically to pursue particular subjects. The courses announced below will be found described in numerical order on pp. 8-10 of this Announcement.

The Summer Quarter begins June 16 and ends August 31. The First Term ends July 25; the Second Term begins July 26. With the permission of the Dean, courses continuing through both Terms of the Quarter may be taken for the First Term only.
