The Entering Class - 1960

The Law School Class of 1963 includes, among its 134 members, representatives of 26 states and the District of Columbia. Those states are Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Idaho, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Texas, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia and Wisconsin. The 134 entering students came to the Law School from 66 different colleges and universities. They are:

Amherst College
Boston College
Bowdoin College
Brigham Young University
Brown University
California Inst. of Tech.
U. of California at Los Angeles
Carleton College
Carmen Inst. of Tech.
University of Chicago
Coe College
Colby College
Colorado College
Columbia University
University of Connecticut
Cornell University
Dartmouth College
DePauw University
DuPaul University
Georgetown University
Harvard University
Holy Cross College
Hamilton College
Harpur College
Hobart College
College of Idaho
University of Illinois
Illinois Inst. of Tech.
Kalamazoo College
Knox College
Lake Forest College
Lawrence College
Loyola University (Chicago)

Macalester College
Marquette University
Maryville College
University of Michigan
Michigan State University
Middlebury College
University of Nebraska
City College of New York
Northwestern University
Notre Dame University
Ohio State University
Ohio Wesleyan University
University of Pennsylvania
Pomona College
Princeton University
University of Rochester
Reed College
Southern Methodist University
Southern Illinois University
Stanford University
Swarthmore College
Syracuse University
Trinity College
Tulsa University
Washburn College
Wesleyan University
Wheelock College
Whittier College
University of Wisconsin
Wittenberg College
Xavier University
Yale University

Some of those present at the Reunion of the Class of 1934, about which more appears elsewhere in this issue of the Record.

The Class of 1934 Reunion

In early autumn, the Class of 1934 held a reunion luncheon in downtown Chicago. Harold L. Lipton was chairman of the group which arranged the gathering; Adolph A. Rubinson acted as Toastmaster. The Law School was represented by Professor Sheldon Tefft. Mrs. Jack O. Brown was a guest of the Class. Mrs. Brown in the former Isabelle Muir, well known to many alumni as secretary to Dean Harry Bigelow. Members of the Class attending included Victor J. H. Baier, Walter W. Baker, Joseph M. Baron, Max Barth, Miss Florence Broady, Jack O. Brown, Lawrence W. Gidwitz, Herbert J. Greenberg, Brinmon Grow, Samuel R. Hassen, Miss Charlotte Hornstein, Samuel J. Horwitz, Walter V. Leen, Harold L. Lipton, Joseph J. Mack, Graydon Megan, Hubert C. Merrick, Benjamin Ordower, Harold Orinsky, Stephen G. Proksa, Adolph A. Rubinson, Arthur W. Schulson, Edward R. Scribano, H. Leo Segall, James R. Sharp (of Washington, D.C.), Solomon Spector, Louis Terkel, Ned P. Veatch, Daniel S. Wentworth and Nathan Wolfberg.

The Teaching Fellows for 1959-60 gathered in the Charles Evans Hughes Seminar Room. Left to right: Ronald Cuydol Finley, J.D., University of Chicago Law School; George J. Alexander, LL.B., University of Pennsylvania Law School; Charles M. Jacobs, J.D., University of Chicago Law School; Bernard W. M. Donnelly, LL.B., University of London; Edward J. C. Alban, B.A., Oxford University; Peter B. Poules, LL.B., Cambridge University; Richard K. Batin, B.C.L., Oxford University; and Walter M. Van Ceron, Dr.Jur., University of Louvain. All except Mr. Van Ceron, who was a Teaching Fellow in the Foreign Law Program, were Bigelow Teaching Fellows and Instructors.