The Munro Doctrines

During his stay at the Law School as a Visiting Professor, Sir Leslie Munro delivered a series of three public lectures. The topic of the first was “The Minority Position of the Western Powers in the Enlarged General Assembly of the United Nations, with Particular Reference to Their Financial Burdens.” In the second lecture, Sir Leslie discussed “The Tendency of the United States and Certain European States to Work Through NATO and Like Organizations Rather Than Through the United Nations.” The final lecture was devoted to “The International Commission of Jurists—Its Present and Future Functions.” That lecture appears elsewhere in this issue of the Record.

During the current academic year, the Faculty has also been enriched by the presence of Jean-Jacques C. A. Rey, of the University of Brussels; Xavier Blanc-Jouvan, of the University of Aix-Marseille, Aix-en-Provence; J. Duncan M. Derrett, Reader in Hindu Law at the School of Oriental and African Studies, the University of London; and William Twining, Faculty of Law, University College, Dar es Salaam, Tanganyika.
