The Kreeger Chair

The Julius Kreeger Professorship of Law and Criminology has been established at the Law School in memory of a distinguished alumnus who was, for more than forty years, a prominent practitioner in Chicago.

Norval R. Morris, Professor of Law at the School since the Autumn Quarter, 1964, has been appointed to the chair.

The Kreeger Professorship was established with a gift from Mrs. Arthur Wolf in memory of her late husband, Julius Kreeger. In presenting the gift, Mrs. Wolf said: "I can think of no way more fitting to honor the memory of my late husband. Through the establishment of this professorship, my family and I hope to encourage the study of criminal law and advance the community's knowledge of how to deal effectively with one of society's greatest problems, that of criminal behavior."

Julius Kreeger, born in Chicago in 1896, received both his Ph.B., in 1917, and his J.D., in 1920, from the University. He practiced from 1921 until 1935 with the firm of Felsenthal, Struckman and Berger, and from 1935 until 1946 as a partner of Mayer and Kreeger; in 1946 he opened his own offices.

Mr. Kreeger was president of Motoramp Garages of Illinois, past President of the Standard Club and served on the board of Michael Reese Hospital Research Foun-

Israel's Highest Judge

The Honorable Shimon Agranat, JD'29, has recently been elevated to the Presidency of the Supreme Court of Israel. Justice Agranat entered private practice in Palestine upon graduation from the Law School. He has been a member of the Supreme Court of Israel for several years and was serving, at the time of this appointment, as Relieving President of the Court, the second-ranking member.

Puzzle: Who is the former President and who is the current President of The University of Chicago?
