I. HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

A school of law and jurisprudence was contemplated in the original plan for the University of Chicago. The school should, according to William Rainey Harper, the first president of the University, be more than a training institution for admission to the bar. An education in law, President Harper said, "implies a scientific knowledge of law and of legal and juristic methods. These are the crystallization of ages of human progress. They cannot be understood in their entirety without a clear comprehension of the historic forces of which they are the product, and of the social environment with which they are in living contact. A scientific study of law involves the related sciences of history, economics, philosophy—the whole field of man as a social being." Consequently, the law school was not to be an institution which had a merely nominal connection with the University, and it was not to be separated either by location or by spirit from the University at large. It should be an organic part of the University, in close touch with the other divisions, embodying the spirit and purpose of University life and, in turn, contributing to that life.

In 1902 President Harper's plan was approved by the Trustees, and the Law School was opened in October of that year. The goal of the School as stated in the first Announcements was "to afford adequate preparation for the practice of law as a profession in any jurisdiction in which the common law prevails, and to cultivate and encourage the scientific study of systematic and comparative jurisprudence, legal history, and principles of legislation."

The University of Chicago Law School has been a member of the Association of American Law Schools since the School was founded in 1902. It has been on the approved list of the American Bar Association since the standards of that association were adopted in 1921.

II. GENERAL STATEMENT

The curriculum of the Law School is designed to provide the essential training required for preparation for the practice of law, and for scholarly work in the science of law. Emphasis is placed on a knowledge of the history, principles, and purposes of legal institutions, the operation of these institutions in the modern world, and the development of skills of legal craftsmanship. The basic curriculum incorporates the traditional legal fields and disciplines essential to the work of the law. Where relevant and practicable, the data and theories of the social sciences are used to further the study of law. The usual, although not exclusive, form of instruction is the case method; emphasis is also placed on individual instruction through a legal writing and research program which is required of every student. Opportunity for specialization is provided in the second and third years of each student's program.

III. ADMISSION OF STUDENTS

All applications for admission are subject to the approval of the Faculty.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE UNDERGRADUATE (J.D.) PROGRAM

Application for admission to the J.D. Program may be made by students who will have received a Bachelor's degree from an approved college. The Law School does not require that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects. In exceptional cases students who will not have satisfied the requirements for a Bachelor's degree from an approved college prior to entering Law School, but who have had three years of college work, may be admitted to the J.D. Program. In such case the student may be required to qualify for admission on the basis of performance on the University’s General Education Test.

The school does not require the Law School admission test administered by Educa­tion­ a1 Testing Service, Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey, but suggests that this test be taken and invites the submission of the test report.

Application for admission must be made upon a form obtained from the Office of the Law School. Official transcripts of all college records must be sent to the School. Students are selected principally on the basis of their college records and the material furnished in their application for admission; where appropriate, consideration may be given to the General Education Test. In special cases a personal interview with the applicant may be required.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE (LL.M.) (J.S.D.)
PROGRAM

Candidacy for the degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) or for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) is open to students who are the holders of a first degree in law from an approved law school. Application for admission must be made upon a form obtained from the Office of the Law School. Official transcripts of all college and law school records must be sent to the School.

IV. REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREES

The degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) is awarded to students who (1) have been in residence for nine full quarters; (2) have shown by their standing in course examinations and by their individual investigations and reports a mastery of the field for which they receive the requisite units of credit; (3) have shown an adequate mastery of English; and (4) have successfully completed the work in the elective seminars or equivalent individual work approved by the Faculty. A single course unit is the equivalent of four hours per week for one quarter. To qualify for residence credit for a quarter, the student must take 12 or more course hours (3 course units). Credit for 135 course hours (33\(\frac{3}{4}\) course units), and an over-all grade average of 68 or above are required for graduation. The degree of Doctor of Law, cum laude, is awarded to candidates who have satisfied the requirements with distinction.

V. EXAMINATIONS, GRADING, AND RULES

Normally a written examination is required at the completion of each course. For each course the work of each student is graded according to the following scale: A, 80 and above; B, 74–79; C, 68–73; D, 60–67; F, below 60. These grades are recorded as numerical grades in the Office of the Law School and as letter grades in the Office of the Registrar of the University. A minimum grade of 60 is required before course credit may be received. At the end of the third and sixth quarters, the student, in order to remain in the School, must have an over-all average of 68. In computing averages, all grades will be counted on a weighted course-hour basis.

Regular class attendance is required as a condition of receiving credit for work done.
The privilege of membership in the School may be withdrawn for unsatisfactory classwork or attendance.

The program of each student is subject to the approval of the Dean. Normally all work for the first three quarters is required. A legal writing, research, and moot court program\(\footnote{Law 411 may be substituted for moot court.} \) is also required of every student. Students are permitted to specialize in the second and third years. Members of the Faculty may prescribe special qualifications for admission to particular courses or seminars.

In order to achieve credit for 135 course hours in nine quarters, the student must take an average of 15 course hours (3 1/4 course units) per quarter. Unless special permission is granted, no student may take more than 17 course hours in any quarter.

VI. COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

FIRST-YEAR COURSES

Unless special permission is granted, the student must take all courses listed below for the first-year program. The numbers in parentheses at the end of each course description represent the value of the course in terms of course hours per quarter.

202. CONTRACTS. Promises and consideration—the bargain; fairness, duress, mistake, supervening events, default as an excuse, damages; an introduction to multiple party transactions; contracts and competition. Aut (4) and Win (4), Sharp.

203. CRIMINAL LAW. The criminal act, criminal intent, consent, justification, crimes against the person and against property; selected material in the administration of criminal law. Aut (3) and Win (3), Puttkammer.

204. CIVIL PROCEDURE. English and American court structure; common law and equitable remedies and the union of law and equity; the framing of issues. Spr (4), Ming.

205. REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY. Present and future interests in land and chattels; restrictions on the creation of future interests; conveyances inter vivos, including land contracts; adverse possession and statutes of limitation. Win (4) and Spr (6), Dunham, Tefft.

206. TORTS. Protection of personal integrity, including freedom from contact, defamation, etc., compensation for personal injuries; protection against injuries to property interests; protection of consumers, purchasers, and investors; protection of business and other interests from wilful invasion; theories of civil liability. Aut (3) and Win (3), Kalven.

207. AGENCY. Study of vicarious liability, workmen's compensation, and the allocation of risks in various types of business organizations, with emphasis on the effect of employer control of business operations and profit-taking. Spr (4), Steffen.

249. TUTORIAL WORK. Intensive training in analysis, research, and exposition of legal and related social materials by means of work on a series of individual projects under supervision. Aut (2), Win (2), Spr (2), Kalven and Bigelow Teaching Fellows.

SECOND- AND THIRD-YEAR COURSES

With the exception of the second- and third-year tutorial work, which comprises required courses, the program for the second and third years is elective. Courses recommended, but not required, as second-year courses are marked with an asterisk.

301. ADMINISTRATIVE LAW. * Right to notice; opportunity to be heard; adequacy of notice; elements of fair administrative procedure; what constitutes a fair hearing; administrative proceedings and res judicata; judicial control of administrative proceedings. Spr (4), Sears.

302a. CONSTITUTIONAL LAW. * Enforcement of written constitutions; three departments of government; the federal system; powers of the national government; interstate and foreign commerce; personal liberty; political and social rights; due process and equal protection; eminent domain; retroactive laws. Aut (3) and Win (4), Sears.

302b. CONSTITUTIONAL LAW. * The Constitution of the United States. A developmental presentation of the usual topics of constitutional law. Attention will be given to the political background of the Constitution; the process of drawing and adoption; the intended meaning of the document; and the process by which the accepted modern theories of the Constitution came to be substituted therefor. Aut (4) and Win (4), Crosskey.

303. COMMERCIAL AND INVESTMENT PAPER. * A study of commercial and banking transactions, with particular regard to the development and use of notes, drafts, checks, bonds, and share certificates, the concept of negotiability, and the problem of statutory codification. Aut (5), Steffen.

* Students taking Constitutional Law must elect Law 302a or Law 302b.

* May be taken with Law 311.

305. Economic Analysis and Public Policy. * The pricing process and the allocation of resources in a free-market system; monopoly and restraint of trade; monetary theory and the credit system; industrial fluctuations; economic analysis and economic policy. Spr (4), Director.

306. Family Law. Marriage and the family as social and legal institutions; legal relations between members of the family and between the family and outsiders; dissolution of the family. Aut (4), Rheinstein.

309. Trial Practice. Preparation for trial and trial practice, with emphasis on the function of judges, juries, masters, and referees; the conclusiveness and effect of judgments and decrees. Win (4), Ming.

310. Corporation Law. * Distribution of control; application of the fiduciary principle to directors, officers, shareholders, and promoters; the procuring and maintaining of corporate capital. Win (5), Katz.

311. Commercial Law Practice. * Problems in the law of sales, letters of credit, chattel security, and collection of negotiable instruments with special emphasis on the techniques of problem analysis, counselling and statutory construction. Aut (2), Win (2), Spr (2), Mentschikoff.

349. Second-Year Tutorial Work. Drafting, analysis of financial statements. A study of various legal problems and the drafting under supervision of contracts, leases, and other papers, including statutory provisions, and the preparation of supporting memoranda. Win (2) and Spr (2), Steffen and others.

401. Taxation. Income, gift, and estate taxation by the national government; the taxation of families as income-receiving and wealth-holding units; the taxation of business income and capital gains; the relationship of taxation to monetary and fiscal policy; and the role of taxation in a private enterprise economy. Aut (4) and Win (4), Blum.

402. Trusts. Problems relating to the creation and administration of trusts; contemporary use of the trust device. (3) Dunham. [Not given in 1951-52.]

403. Bankruptcy and Reorganization. Credit aspects of inflation and deflation; problems of investment, debt, and failure in a fluctuating economy; debtor relief, including corporate reorganization plans; corporate capital structures. Spr (4), Blum.

404. Labor Law. The legal framework for collective bargaining, strikes, picketing, and other forms of concerted pressure; the relationship of that framework to the general problem of regulating monopoly; the selection of the collective bargaining representative, the relationship of the representative to the individual employee, including the regulation of the internal affairs of labor organizations; the negotiation, administration, and enforcement of collective bargaining arrangements. Spr (4), Meltzer.

405. Law of Competition and Monopoly. The structure of American industry, the theory of competition and monopoly; the development of patents and trade-marks; problems of unfair competition; the enforcement of the antitrust laws against restraints of trade and against monopoly. Spr (4), Director, Levi.

406. Evidence. The proof of facts in issue in trials at law and equity, with incidental treatment of hearings before administrative tribunals, covering burden of proof, presumptions, and judicial notice; the examination, competency, and privilege of witnesses; logic in relation to problems of circumstantial evidence and relevancy; the exclusionary rules of evidence. Aut (6), Meltzer.

407. Modern Real Estate Transactions. A study of land marketing transactions with particular regard to problems of the development of urban land, of marketing urban land, whether by sale or by lease, of financial acquisition of urban land, and of marketable title and title examination. The problems are illustrated with materials from the area of marketing of housing. Aut (4), Dunham.

408. Conflict of Laws. The problems arising when important facts of a case occur in states or countries having different rules of law. Win (4), Rheinstein.

409. Arbitration. Evaluation, legal aspects, and techniques of arbitration process in commercial and labor matters. (Limited to sixteen students.) Win (4), Mentschikoff.

410. Jurisprudence—Law in Our Society. A horse-sense approach to a selection of basic problems facing the lawyer today as craftsman, as a citizen, and as a person. Written critiques required weekly. Spr (4), Llewellyn.

* Prerequisite for Law 310.

* Recommended as preparation for Law 401, Law 403, Law 404, and Law 405.

* Law 304 is a prerequisite.

* May be taken with Law 303.
411. LEGAL ARGUMENT. The general theory of argument, centered on the appellate brief, preparation, critical discussion, and rewriting of briefs from records. Limited enrolment.\(^7\) Win (4), Llewellyn.

412. INSURANCE. A study of the insurance contract, with some reference to the peculiar responsibilities of the insurance company. [Not given in 1951–52.]

413. DECEDENTS' ESTATES. Testamentary capacity; dispositions in contemplation of death; execution, revocation, republication, and revival of wills; intestate succession; probate and administration; title and powers of executors and administrators; payments of debts, legacies, and distributive shares. [Not given in 1951–52.]

449a. THIRD-YEAR TUTORIAL WORK—MOOT COURT. Preparation of briefs and oral argument of appellate cases.\(^6\) Win (2), Kaloen and Bigelow Teaching Fellows.

449b. TUTORIAL WORK—INDUSTRY STUDIES. The writing of an industry study is intended to give the student experience in summarizing and analyzing the salient characteristics of an industry in terms of its products and their uses; the relative concentration of its productive facilities (financially, technologically, and geographically); the principal factors in its structure, organization, and trade practices which may explain its “competitive” or “noncompetitive” character (e.g., technology, patent control, marketing techniques, relationship to principal raw-material sources), and antitrust history. Bowman, Bursler. [Not given in 1951–52.]

SEMINARS

451. SEMINAR ON USE OF LAND. A study of common law and statutory rules relating to the use of land and an examination of selected modern programs for affecting and controlling the use of urban and rural lands. Win (3), Tefft.

452. SEMINAR ON COMPARATIVE LAW—SOCIOLOGY OF LAW. Interpretation and discussion of selected chapters of Max Weber's Economy and Society. Win (3), Rheinstein.

453. SEMINAR ON PSYCHOLOGY AND LAW. An inquiry into some of the psychological assumptions underlying contemporary law. Spr (3), Kaloen, Sharp.

454. SEMINAR ON THE STEEL INDUSTRY. The seminar will attempt to evaluate legal and economic problems relating to “competition” and “monopoly” in the steel industry. Basic issues which have been raised with respect to public policy on steel will be traced through previous hearings and court cases. Students will be expected to prepare economic briefs on both sides of these issues and to analyze and evaluate recommendations for or against congressional action. Win (3), Bowman.

455. SEMINAR ON TAXATION. An examination of some areas of contemporary importance under the federal tax system. Spr (3), Blum, Kaloen.

456. SEMINAR ON CORPORATE SECURITIES. Comparative study of types of debt and equity securities. (3) Katz. [Not given in 1951–52.]

457. SEMINAR ON THE CHEMICAL INDUSTRY. An analysis of economic and legal problems involved in the structure of the chemical industry with particular emphasis on recent antitrust litigation.\(^8\) Aut (3), Bursler.

460. SEMINAR ON LAW REVISION: CONTRACTS. A study of proposals for legislative treatment of traditional private law problems, with special relevance to contracts and related topics. (3) Sharp. [Not given in 1951–52.]

465. SEMINAR ON INDETERMINATE SENTENCE, PAROLE, AND PRISON ADMINISTRATION. A study of current problems in these areas of Criminal Law Administration from both a legal and a sociological viewpoint. Some field work and study of “live” cases will be included. Lohman. [Not given in 1951–52.]

466. SEMINAR ON MONEY, BANKING, AND EMPLOYMENT. Discussion of past and proposed plans for dealing with the problem of economic instability. Win (3), Director.

471. SEMINAR ON LABOR LAW. A consideration of selected problems in collective bargaining, government labor policy, and the regulation of internal affairs of labor organizations. Spr (3), Meltzer.

472. SEMINAR ON PATENTS. Problems in the field of patents and trade-marks; for students who have had Law 405. (3) Director, Levi. [Not given in 1951–52.]

475. SEMINAR ON CIVIL LIBERTIES. An examination of the extent to which contemporary American law protects speech from direct or indirect governmental regulation. The study will include such areas as obscenity, defamation, group defamation, contempt of court, picketing, breaches of the peace, and it will pay special attention to political and seditious speech. Spr (3), Kaloen, Ming.

480. SEMINAR ON CONFLICT OF LAWS. Discussions of selected problems of choice of law and their solutions in American and foreign courts. Win (3), Rheinstein.

\(^7\) Law 411 may be substituted to meet the requirements of Law 449a.

\(^8\) Law 411 may be substituted to meet the requirements of Law 449a.

\(^*\) Students may elect either Law 454 or Law 457.
481. Seminar on Fundamental Legal Conceptions. Discussions and comparisons of fundamental conceptions of private law in the common law and the civil law systems. Term papers and class discussions of problem cases. Spr (3), Rheinstein.

482. Seminar on Public Utilities. The application and implications of the "regulated monopoly" theory in federal, state, and city regulation of public utility rates and services, with some examples from the region. (3) Ming. [Not given in 1951–52.]

484. Seminar on International Law. International law, with some reference to proposals for international government and to the characteristics of international lawlessness. Aut (3), Sharp.

COURSES FOR SUMMER SESSION, 1952

The Law School will be in session for the Summer Quarter, 1952. A special announcement will be made at a later date as to the courses to be offered.

VII. PROGRAMS OF ADVANCED STUDY

THE LL.M. PROGRAM

The LL.M. Program consists of three quarters of advanced and specialized work chiefly in the form of seminar and independent study. Programs are individually planned and may include work in various departments of the University supplementary to the legal field of specialization. Each program for the LL.M. degree will be supervised by a member of the Faculty of the Law School.

THE J.S.D. PROGRAM

The degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) is awarded to research students who have been in residence for three quarters, have pursued such studies as the Faculty has prescribed, and have submitted a dissertation which has been accepted by the Faculty as a creditable contribution to legal science.

VIII. PROFESSORSHIPS AND TEACHING FELLOWSHIPS

The John P. Wilson Professorship in Law was established in 1929 with funds contributed for the John P. Wilson Memorial Foundation by John P. Wilson, Jr., and Anna Wilson Dickinson as a memorial to their father, John P. Wilson, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar. The present holder of this professorship is Roscoe T. Steffen.

The James Parker Hall Professorship in Law was established in 1930 by the alumni of the School in memory of James Parker Hall, Dean of the School from 1904 until his death in 1928. The present holder of this professorship is Wilber G. Katz.

The Max Pam Professorship in Comparative Law was established in 1935 in memory of Max Pam, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar, with funds allocated by the Trustees under the will of Mr. Pam. The present holder of this professorship is Max Rheinstein.

Under the will of Harry A. Bigelow, the University is to receive, upon the death of certain life-beneficiaries, the remainder of a trust fund for the establishment of the Harry A. Bigelow Professorship in Law. Mr. Bigelow was Dean of the Law School from 1929 to 1939, and a member of the Faculty of the Law School from 1904 until his death in 1950.

The Harry A. Bigelow Teaching Fellowships were established in 1947 in honor of Harry A. Bigelow. The fellowships are awarded to law graduates of high standing.

IX. GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS AND RESEARCH FUNDS

The Law School has available a number of fellowships for graduate students.

The James Nelson Raymond Fellowship was created in 1933 and 1934 by Anna Louise Raymond in memory of her husband, James Nelson Raymond. The annual income is awarded to research students in law.

University Fellowships. A limited number of fellowships are reserved for research students in law.

The Frieda and Arnold Shure Research Fund was established in 1945 by Frieda and Arnold Shure.

X. THE COMPARATIVE LAW RESEARCH CENTER

The Comparative Law Research Center was established in 1949 to promote research in the field of Comparative Law. Professor Max Rheinstein, Max Pam Professor of Comparative Law, is Director of the Center. During the past year the staff of the Center has consisted of the following: Stojan Bajic, Dr. jur. (Leipzig, Germany), formerly professor at the University of Ljubljana, Yugoslavia; Friedrich von Fischer, Dr. jur. (Bern, Switzerland), member of the Bar of Bern, Switzerland; Samuel Stoljar, LL.B., LL.M., of Gray's Inn, Barrister-at-Law, Holt Scholar of Gray's Inn, Hume Scholar of University College, England; Alise Vagelis, graduate of the Law School of the University of Riga, Latvia, and Dr. jur. (Hamburg, Germany).

XI. STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS AND LOANS

The Law School awards a limited number of full-tuition scholarships to outstanding students designated by selected colleges. In addition, a number of scholarships are available each year for law students of outstanding ability who need financial assistance. Some of these scholarships are for full tuition, some for half-tuition, and some in amounts in excess of the tuition charge. In the case of veterans, scholarship awards may be made as cash grants to supplement government living allowances. Approximately one-fourth of the Law School Scholarship aid is reserved for entering students.

The Henry C. Murphy Scholarship Endowment provides aid for worthy boys to secure an education, preference to be shown to those who plan to adopt journalism as their profession.

The LaVerne Noyes Foundation Scholarships (for veterans of World War I [1917-19] and their descendants) are awarded on the basis of service in the armed forces of the United States in World War I.

In addition to the general University scholarships, the Law School has available The James Nelson Raymond Scholarship established in 1930 from a fund given by Anna Louise Raymond in memory of her husband, James Nelson Raymond.

Two Francis Kosmerl Fellowships, each in the amount of $1,000, were established in 1948 by a bequest under the will of Francis Kosmerl, a former student of the Law School. One fellowship is awarded annually to an outstanding student in the entering class, and one to an outstanding student in the Senior Class in the Law School.

The Class of 1915 Scholarship, a full-tuition scholarship endowed by the Class of 1915, is awarded annually, upon vote of the Law Faculty, to an outstanding student in the Junior Class of the Law School.

The Edwin B. Mayer Scholarship provides tuition aid to a student in the Law School.

The Leo F. Wormser Scholarships were established in 1935 by friends of Leo F. Wormser, J.D., 1909, as a memorial to him. In 1940 a gift to this fund was made by Mrs. Leo F. Wormser in memory of Mr. Wormser's mother, Mrs. Frida Wormser; and additional gifts have also been made to this scholarship fund by friends of Leo F. Wormser.

Application for scholarships should be made upon a form obtained from the office of the Dean of Students of the Law School.

In addition to scholarship aid, the Law School has available several specially endowed loan funds as well as general University loan funds.

The special loan funds available exclusively to students of the Law School include the Ernst Freund Fund, the James Parker Hall Fund, the Floyd R. Mechem Fund, the Harry A. Bigelow Fund, the Clark B. Whittier Fund, the Anna Louise Raymond Fund, and the Julius Rosenthal Fund.

A form of application for a loan may be obtained from the office of the Dean of Students of the Law School.

For further information on scholarships and loans, consult the University Announcements: A General Statement.
XII. CONFERENCES AND MEETINGS

The Law School recognizes its responsibility as a law center to contribute to the development of the law through research and co-operation with the Profession. It recognizes also the importance of such activities as broadening influences in the education of law students.

Special student seminars with members of the Bench and Bar are an integral part of the program of the School. Among those who participated in such seminars during the year 1950–51 are Hon. Hugo L. Black, Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States; Hon. Francis Biddle, former Attorney General of the United States; Mr. Casper W. Ooms, former United States Commissioner of Patents and a graduate of the Law School; Mr. Benjamin V. R. Cohen, member of the United States delegation to the United Nations Assembly and a graduate of the Law School; Hon. Walter Schaefer, Justice of the Illinois Supreme Court and a graduate of the Law School; Mr. Richard Bentley of the Illinois Bar; Mr. Dwight P. Green, member of the Illinois Bar and a graduate of the Law School; and Mr. Willard L. King, member of the Illinois Bar and a graduate of the Law School.

A special student-faculty dinner is held each quarter. In the Autumn Quarter the dinner was with the Federal Judges of the Seventh Circuit. Speakers at the dinner were Chief Judge Earl J. Major and Professor William W. Crosskey. The Winter Quarter dinner was with members of the Antitrust Bar in Chicago. Speakers at the dinner were Hon. Lowell Mason, Commissioner of the Federal Trade Commission, and Mr. Hugh B. Cox, member of the District of Columbia Bar. The Spring Quarter dinner was in honor of Professor John Jewkes, Professor of Economic Organization, Oxford University, and Professor Roy Forbes Harrod, of Christ Church College, Oxford University. Professor Jewkes was the speaker at this dinner.

The Law School conducts three public conferences each year on legal problems. The Autumn Quarter conference was on the Uniform Commercial Code and was under the chairmanship of Professor Roscoe Steffen. Speakers included Professor Karl Llewellyn; Miss Soia Mentschikoff; Mr. Albert E. Jenner, Jr., Illinois Commissioner on Uniform State Laws; and Mr. Howard L. Barkdull, member of the Ohio Bar and President of the Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws.

The Winter Quarter conference was on Criminal Law Enforcement and was under the chairmanship of Professor E. W. Puttkammer. Speakers included Mr. Daniel Duke, former Assistant Attorney General of Georgia; Mr. Max Lowenthal of the New York Bar; Hon. J. Howard McGrath, Attorney General of the United States; Mr. Rudolph Halley, Chief Counsel, Kefauver Committee; Mr. Donald S. Leonard, Chief, Michigan State Police; Dean O. W. Wilson, School of Criminology, University of California; Mr. Joseph D. Lohman, Chairman, Division of Correction, State of Illinois; Mr. Virgil Peterson, Operating Director, Chicago Crime Commission; Mr. M. P. Akers, Executive Editor, Chicago Sun-Times.

The Spring Quarter conference was on Illinois Constitutional Amendments and was under the chairmanship of Professor Kenneth C. Sears. Speakers included Mr. Samuel W. Witwer, Jr., of the Illinois Bar; Professor Rubin G. Cohen, University of Illinois College of Law; Professor Richard G. Browne, Illinois State Normal University; Hon. Dwight H. Green, former Governor of Illinois; Hon. George B. McKibbin, former Director of Finance of the State of Illinois; Hon. Arthur T. Vanderbilt, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey; Hon. Laurence Hyde, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Missouri; Hon. Howard L. Doyle, United States District Attorney; Hon. William R.
Dusher, Judge, Circuit Court, Rockford, Illinois; Hon. Harry M. Fisher, Judge, Circuit Court, Cook County, Illinois; Philip E. von Ammon, Counsel, A.T. & S.F. Railway System, Chicago, Illinois; Professor Mabel Newcomer, Chairman, Department of Economics, Vassar College; Hon. George W. Mitchell, former Director of Finance of the State of Illinois; Mr. Louis Ancel, Attorney for the Illinois Municipal League; Mr. Abraham Brussel, Assistant Counsel, Congress of Industrial Organizations; Mr. Robert S. Cushman, of the Illinois Bar; and Mr. Joseph H. Wright, General Solicitor, Illinois Central Railroad Company.

A grant from the William Volker Fund of Kansas City made it possible for the Law School to conduct a conference on the Economics of Mobilization, on April 6, 7, and 8. Seventy-five leaders in law, economics, business, and government participated in the proceedings, which were held at The Greenbriar, White Sulphur Springs, under the direction of Professor Aaron Director. These proceedings will be published by the University of Chicago Press.

The Law School participates annually in a Federal Tax Conference, in co-operation with University College, Downtown Center, and the School of Business. The participation of the Law School in this Conference is under the chairmanship of Professor Walter Blum. The 1951–52 Conference will be held on October 31 and November 1, 2, 1951.

XIII. STUDENT ACTIVITIES AND HONORS

The University of Chicago Law Review, founded in 1933, is published by the School under the management of a Board of Editors composed of students. Members of the second-year classes who rank highest in scholarship are invited to become competitors for election to the staff of the Review. From this group the Board of Editors chooses the editorial staff. The Editor-in-Chief for 1950–51 was Abner J. Mikva. The Managing Editors were Howard Adler, Jr., Arnold M. Chutkow, Edward De Grazia, Herbert C. Ephraim, and Maynard J. Jaffe. The Associate Editors were Paul J. Allison, John Borst, Lawrence M. Friedman, Charles A. Lippitz, Alan S. Maremont, Charles F. Russ, Jr., and David M. Sloan.

The Chicago Chapter of the Order of the Coif is an honor society founded to encourage scholarship and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Its members are elected each spring from the 10 per cent of the graduating class who rank highest in scholarship. In 1951 the elected members were Paul J. Allison, George Anastaplo, John Borst, Arnold Chutkow, Herbert Ephraim, Miles Jaffe, Robert Kharasch, Lawrence Lee, Abner Mikva, and Sheldon Stein.

The University of Chicago Law School Student Association sponsors various legal and social student functions throughout the year. All students in the School are members; officers are elected from each of the three classes. The officers for 1950–51 were: President, Robert N. Kharasch; Vice-President-Treasurer, Jack Whorton; Secretary, Freda Gould; Chairmen of Committees, Paul Allison, Michael Daniels, and Albert Jones.

XIV. PLACEMENT

The Law School has a placement office to help students find suitable employment after their graduation. The placement office collaborates with the Law School Alumni Association, special placement groups in large cities, and the University's general placement office in securing information about openings in law offices, corporations, and government offices throughout the country, and in furnishing information about University of Chicago Law School graduates.

Early in their third year, students submit placement data indicating their plans and preferences after graduation. It is important that these records, which facilitate appropriate recommendations, be filled out accurately and be kept current. Accordingly, students whose plans or preferences change during the third year are asked to indicate such changes to the placement office. All third-year students have a personal interview concerning placement with Dean Carter, who is Director of Placement. Members of the faculty are also available for consultation and advice.

XV. BUILDING AND LIBRARY

The Law School occupies a building situated on the Quadrangles of the University near Fifty-ninth Street and University Avenue. The cornerstone was laid on April 2, 1903, by President Theodore Roosevelt. Built of Bedford stone in the English Gothic style, its external appearance is suggestive of the Chapel of Kings College, Cambridge. In the basement are seminar rooms, a clubroom, lockers, women's lounge, and library stack­ rooms. On the first floor are two large classrooms, a courtroom, the office of the Law School, the office of the Dean, and the office of the Dean of Students. The mezzanine floor is occupied by the main library stackroom. Opening into the stackroom are the offices of the Faculty. On the third floor is the Law Library reading-room, a great hall one hundred and eighty feet long and fifty feet wide, with timbered roof and clerestory windows on all sides. A bridge affords a direct connection between the reading-room of the library of the Law School and the Harper Memorial Library.

On the walls of the building are hung the Charles B. Pike Collection of etchings and engravings of English and American judges and lawyers and also portraits of various members of the Faculty and benefactors of the School.

The Law Library has substantially all the reported decisions of the courts of the United States and of England, Scotland, Ireland, Canada, Australia, and the other parts of the British Empire, together with the statutes and session laws, textbooks, periodicals, digests, encyclopedias, and sets of classified and annotated reports of these jurisdictions.
The Library has as well an extensive collection of the original briefs and records of cases in the Supreme Court of the United States. It also has a representative collection of the reports and opinions of various state and federal administrative agencies and the proceedings of various bar associations. The Library has an important collection of materials dealing with Greek and Roman law and the law of Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Mexico, Spain, and Switzerland. In addition, the students of the School have ready access to the Harper Memorial Library and to the libraries of the Public Administration Clearing House and of the Rosenwald Museum of Science and Industry.

To supplement general library appropriations, the Law Library has four special funds at its disposal. These are the James Nelson Raymond Memorial Fund, established in 1929 by Anna L. Raymond as a memorial to her husband, James Nelson Raymond, an eminent businessman of Chicago; the Wallace Heckman Memorial Fund, established in 1929 by Mrs. Wallace Heckman as a memorial to her husband, Wallace Heckman, business manger of the University from 1903 to 1924; the William B. Hale Fund, established in 1944 by the family of Mr. Hale to further the study of monopoly; and the Francis S. Kosmerl Law Library Fund, established in 1948 by a bequest under the will of Mr. Kosmerl, a former student of the School.

XVI. SUGGESTIONS FOR PRE-LEGAL STUDY

The Law School does not require that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects. A broad general education is thought more important for the student of law than specialized study in fields closely related to law.
Such a general education should include study of the social sciences, including economics and history; the humanities, especially philosophy and literature; and the elements of physical and biological sciences and mathematics. It is also of great importance that a law student should have acquired habits of precision, fluency, and economy in writing and speaking. (Ability to use a typewriter is of practical value to law students.)

A list of books suggested for college students considering the study of law may be secured from the office of the Dean. A booklet by members of the Faculty on The Study and Practice of Law may be ordered for fifty cents from the University of Chicago Bookstore, Fifty-eighth Street and Ellis Avenue, Chicago 37. On request addressed to the Dean’s Office, copies will be sent to college pre-legal advisers and other faculty members interested in legal education.

XVII. FEES AND OTHER INFORMATION

Application fee. An application fee of $5.00 must accompany the original application for admission to the University. No part of the fee is refundable nor is it applicable as an advance payment on other fees.

Tuition fee. The tuition fee in the Law School is $214 a quarter. A student is required to pay full tuition unless a reduced program of work and a reduction of fees are approved by the Dean. The same fees apply to visitors.

Deposit on admission. An applicant who is accepted for admission into the Law School is required to make a deposit of $35 within two weeks after notice of acceptance has been sent. This deposit will be applied on the tuition fee and will be refunded only in the event that illness or other sufficient cause prevents an applicant from entering the School at the beginning of the quarter for which he has been accepted.

For further information concerning payment of bills, refunds, estimated expenses, living accommodations, University Health Service, and other matters of interest to the students, see the University Announcements: A General Statement.

LIBERAL EDUCATION AT CHICAGO

Since 1930 the University of Chicago has been developing a collegiate program concerned only with liberal education. The College which administers that liberal education is a four-year unit which students may enter after two years of high school. Most students entering the College after completing the sophomore year of high school are able to meet the requirements for the Bachelor's degree by the age of nineteen. Students may enter the College at the beginning of the Summer or of the Autumn Quarter, 1951, or at Midyear (about February 1), 1952.

An illustrated booklet entitled If You Want an Education may be obtained by writing to the Admissions Counselor, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37, Illinois.
