I. HISTORY AND ORGANIZATION

This year marks the fiftieth anniversary of the University of Chicago Law School. A school of law and jurisprudence was contemplated in the original plan for the University of Chicago. The school should, according to William Rainey Harper, the first president of the University, be more than a training institution for admission to the bar. An education in law, President Harper said, "implies a scientific knowledge of law and of legal and juristic methods. These are the crystallization of ages of human progress. They cannot be understood in their entirety without a clear comprehension of the historic forces of which they are the product, and of the social environment with which they are in living contact. A scientific study of law involves the related sciences of history, economics, philosophy—the whole field of man as a social being." Consequently, the law school was not to be an institution which had a merely nominal connection with the University, and it was not to be separated either by location or by spirit from the University at large. It should be an organic part of the University, in close touch with the other divisions, embodying the spirit and purpose of University life and, in turn, contributing to that life.

In 1902 President Harper's plan was approved by the Trustees, and the Law School was opened in October of that year. The goal of the School as stated in the first Announcements was "to afford adequate preparation for the practice of law as a profession in any jurisdiction in which the common law prevails, and to cultivate and encourage the scientific study of systematic and comparative jurisprudence, legal history, and principles of legislation."

The University of Chicago Law School has been a member of the Association of American Law Schools since the School was founded in 1902. It has been on the approved list of the American Bar Association since the standards of that association were adopted in 1921.

II. GENERAL STATEMENT

The curriculum of the Law School is designed to provide the essential training required for preparation for the practice of law, and for scholarly work in the science of law. Emphasis is placed on a knowledge of the history, principles, and purposes of legal institutions, the operation of these institutions in the modern world, and the development of skills of legal craftsmanship. The basic curriculum incorporates the traditional legal fields and disciplines essential to the work of the law. Where relevant and practicable, the data and theories of the social sciences are used to further the study of law. The usual, although not exclusive, form of instruction is the case method; emphasis is also placed on individual instruction through a legal writing and research program which is required of every student. Opportunity for specialization is provided in the second and third years of each student's program. The graduate program is planned to provide opportunity and guidance for research in the science of law. A special graduate program exists for foreign students whose undergraduate law training has not been primarily in the field of the Common Law and who desire to do research in comparative law.
III. ADMISSION OF STUDENTS

All applications for admission are subject to the approval of the Faculty.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE UNDERGRADUATE (J.D.) PROGRAM

Application for admission to the J.D. Program may be made by students who will have received a Bachelor's degree from an approved college prior to their beginning study in the Law School. It is not required that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects. In exceptional cases students who will not have satisfied the requirements for a Bachelor's degree from an approved college prior to entering Law School, but who have had three years of college work, may be admitted to the J.D. Program.

Students are selected principally upon the basis of their college records, the material furnished in their applications for admission, and the results shown on the Law School Admission Test. In special cases a personal interview with the applicant may be required. Preliminary questions concerning admission to the Law School and requests for copies of the application form should be addressed to the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. When this application form has been filled out, it should be sent to the Office of Admissions, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. Official transcripts of all college records must be sent to the Office of Admissions.

Arrangements should be made by applicants to take the Law School Admission Test administered by the Educational Testing Service, Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey. The results on this test should be reported directly to the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. The Law School Admission Test will be given at selected locations throughout the country on November 15, 1952; February 21, April 25, and August 8, 1953.

Graduates of an approved law school whose studies have been primarily in the Common Law may apply for admission to the third year of the undergraduate school as candidates for the J.D. degree.

Graduates of an approved foreign law school, whose studies have not been primarily in the Common Law, may apply for admission as candidates for the J.D. degree in regular course. The requirements for this degree may be met in part for such students by the recognition of credits not to exceed 45 course hours (11 1/2 units) if performance in residence demonstrates the effective value of the student's work in a foreign system.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE (LL.M.) (J.S.D.) PROGRAM

Candidacy for the degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) or for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) is open to students who are the holders of a first degree in law from an approved law school, whose undergraduate law work has been primarily in the Common Law, and who are qualified for advanced research in law. Application for admission must be made upon a form obtained from the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. Official transcripts of all college and law school records must be sent to the Office of Admissions, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.
ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Graduates of an approved foreign law school, whose studies have not been primarily in the Common Law, may apply for admission to the program designed to give a one-year introduction to Anglo-American law. Upon completion of this program, such students will be given a certificate of attendance and a certificate for courses successfully completed.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE COMPARATIVE LAW PROGRAM

Candidacy for the degree of Master of Comparative Law (M.Comp.L.) or for the degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.) is open to students who are graduates of an approved foreign law school and whose previous training, though not in the Common Law, qualifies them to undertake advanced research in law.

Application for admission to the Graduate Comparative Law Program must be made upon a form obtained from the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

IV. REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREES

The degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) is awarded to students who (1) have been in residence for nine full quarters; (2) have shown by their standing in course examinations and by their individual investigations and reports a mastery of the field for which they receive the requisite units of credit; (3) have shown an adequate mastery of English; and (4) have successfully completed the work in the elective seminars or equivalent individual work approved by the Faculty. A single course unit is the equivalent of four hours per week for one quarter. To qualify for residence credit for a quarter, the student must take 12 or more course hours (3 course units). Credit for 135 course hours (33\frac{1}{3} course units), and an over-all grade average of 68 or above are required for graduation. The degree of Doctor of Law, cum laude, is awarded to candidates who have satisfied the requirements with distinction.

The degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) is awarded to students who, having been admitted as candidates for the J.S.D. degree, have been in residence for three full quarters and have completed their studies with distinction.

The degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) is awarded to students who, having been admitted as candidates for that degree, have been in residence for three full quarters, have completed their studies with distinction, and have submitted a dissertation which has been accepted by the Faculty as a creditable contribution to legal science.

A certificate of attendance or a certificate for courses successfully completed will be given to graduates of foreign law schools who have been admitted to the Certificate Program and have been in residence for three full quarters.

The degree of Master of Comparative Law (M.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who, having been admitted as candidates for the degree of D.Comp.L., have been in residence for six full quarters and have completed their studies with distinction.

The degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who, having been admitted as candidates for that degree, have been in residence for six full quarters, have completed their studies with distinction, and have submitted a dissertation which has been accepted by the Faculty as a creditable contribution to the literature of comparative law.
V. EXAMINATIONS, GRADING, AND RULES

Normally a written examination is required at the completion of each course. For each course the work of each student is graded according to the following scale: A, 80 and above; B, 74–79; C, 68–73; D, 60–67; F, below 60. These grades are recorded as numerical grades in the Office of the Law School and as letter grades in the Office of the Registrar of the University. A minimum grade of 60 is required before course credit may be received. At the end of the third and sixth quarters, the student, in order to remain in the School, must have an over-all average of 68. In computing averages, all grades will be counted on a weighted course-hour basis.

Regular class attendance is required as a condition of receiving credit for work done. The privilege of membership in the School may be withdrawn for unsatisfactory classwork or attendance.

VI. COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

The program of each student is subject to the approval of the Dean. Normally all work for the first three quarters is required. A legal writing, research, and moot court program may be substituted for moot court.

is also required of every student. Students are permitted to specialize in the second and third years. Members of the Faculty may prescribe special qualifications for admission to particular courses or seminars.

Unless special permission is granted, the student must take all courses listed below for the first-year program. The numbers in parentheses at the end of each course description represent the value of the course in terms of course hours per quarter.

In order to achieve credit for 135 course hours in nine quarters, the student must take an average of 15 course hours (3½ course units) per quarter. Unless special permission is granted, no student may take more than 17 course hours in any quarter.

FIRST-YEAR COURSES

201. ELEMENTS OF THE LAW. The functions and problems of tribunals. The theory of legal rules and of the law-crafts. Rowe, Deputy Commissioner, New York Police Department; Robert Redfield, Professor of Anthropology; Malcolm P. Sharp, Professor of Law.

Persons desiring to attend the seminar should communicate with the Office of the Dean, Law School, The University of Chicago.

The following public lectures will be given in connection with the seminar:

THE LAW OF RACIAL DISCRIMINATION. HARRY KALVEN, JR., Associate Professor of Law.

SUMMER SESSION, 1953

The Law School will be in regular session in the Summer Quarter of 1953. A special announcement will be made at a later date concerning the courses to be offered.

VII. PROGRAMS OF GRADUATE INSTRUCTION

THE LL.M.-J.S.D. PROGRAM

For these degrees resident study for three full quarters is required. To qualify for residence credit for a quarter, the student must take 12 or more course hours (3 course units) in supervised research or in seminars or courses. Such study, including the student's independent reading and research in connection with his program, are expected to occupy his full time. Each student's program will be arranged individually in consultation with his faculty adviser. Graduate students may register for the seminars or courses available to undergraduate law students, but formal instruction in undergraduate courses will be supplemented by research assignments, and all graduate students will be required to take part in the General Graduate Seminar (489). The work in residence must be completed with distinction. The candidate for the J.S.D. degree must submit, not later than the end of his last quarter in residence, either his dissertation or a detailed outline of his project therefor.

THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Normally students in the Certificate Program will be required to be in residence for three full quarters. The required course for such students will include participation in the seminar on Problems of American Law for Foreign Students (488) and in observation tours and special discussion groups.

THE M.COMPL.-D.COMPL. PROGRAM

For these degrees resident study for six full quarters is required. To qualify for residence credit for a quarter, the student must take 12 or more course hours (3 course units) in supervised research or in seminars or courses. The study in residence is expected to occupy the full time of the candidates. The program of each candidate is arranged in consultation with a faculty adviser and will consist of study in courses or seminars or of research under the supervision of a member of the Faculty. Candidates are required to participate in the General Graduate Seminar (489). They will devote at least half of their study in residence to Anglo-American law, including the seminar on Problems of American Law for Foreign Students (488). The candidate for the degree of D.Compl. must submit, not later than the end of his last quarter in residence, either his dissertation or a detailed outline of his project therefor.

IX. PROFESSORSHIPS AND TEACHING FELLOWSHIPS

The John P. Wilson Professorship in Law was established in 1929 with funds contributed for the John P. Wilson Memorial Foundation by John P. Wilson, Jr., and Anna Wilson Dickinson as a memorial to their father, John P. Wilson, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar. The present holder of this professorship is Roscoe T. Steffen.

The James Parker Hall Professorship in Law was established in 1930 by the alumni of the School in memory of James Parker Hall, Dean of the School from 1904 until his death in 1928. The present holder of this professorship is Wilber G. Katz.

The Max Pam Professorship in Comparative Law was established in 1935 in memory of Max Pam, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar, with funds allocated by the Trustees under the will of Mr. Pam. The present holder of this professorship is Max Rheinstein.

Under the will of Harry A. Bigelow, the University is to receive, upon the death of certain life-beneficiaries, the remainder of a trust fund for the establishment of the Harry A. Bigelow Professorship in Law. Mr. Bigelow was Dean of the Law School from 1929 to 1939, and a member of the Faculty of the Law School from 1904 until his death in 1950.

The Harry A. Bigelow Teaching Fellowships were established in 1947 in honor of Harry A. Bigelow. The fellowships are awarded to law graduates of high standing.

X. GRADUATE FELLOWSHIPS AND RESEARCH FUNDS

The Law School has available a number of fellowships for graduate students. These include:

The James Nelson Raymond Fellowship, which was created in 1933 and 1934 by Anna Louise Raymond.

The Law Fellowships, which were established in 1952 by gifts of Law alumni to the Law School.

University Fellowships, a limited number of which are reserved for research students in law.

Application for fellowships in connection with graduate work leading to a graduate degree should be made to the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

Special Research Fellowships are available in connection with the various research programs of the School made possible through special grants and Law alumni gifts to the Law School Fund. Application for these fellowships should be made to the Dean of the Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

The Frieda and Arnold Shure Research Fund was established in 1945 by Frieda and Arnold Shure for the publication of legal studies of immediate importance for the public welfare.

XI. PROGRAM OF RESEARCH IN LAW AND THE BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

A program of research in law and the behavioral sciences has been made possible through a grant from the Ford Foundation. Special fellowships will be awarded by the Faculty for directed work on specific projects undertaken at the Law School pursuant to this program. Application for these fellowships should be made to the Dean of the Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

XII. THE COMPARATIVE LAW RESEARCH CENTER

The Comparative Law Research Center was established in 1949 to promote research in the field of Comparative Law. Professor Max Rheinstein, Max Pam Professor of Comparative Law, is Director of the Center. During the past year the staff of the Center has consisted of the following: Stojan Bajic, Dr. jur. (Leipzig, Germany), formerly professor at the University of Ljubljana, Yugoslavia; Sven Beckman, J.K., University of Uppsala, Sweden; Samuel Stoljar, LL.B., LL.M., of Gray’s Inn, Barrister-at-Law, Holt Scholar of Gray’s Inn, Hume Scholar of University College, England; Alise Vagelis, graduate of the Law School of the University of Riga, Latvia, and Dr. jur. (Hamburg, Germany).

XIII. STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS AND LOANS

The Law School awards a limited number of full-tuition National Honor Scholarships to outstanding students designated by selected colleges. In addition, a number of scholarships are available each year for law students of outstanding ability who need financial assistance. Some of these scholarships are for full tuition, some for half-tuition, and some in amounts in excess of the tuition charge. In the case of veterans, scholarship awards may be made as cash grants to supplement government living allowances. Approximately one-fourth of the Law School Scholarship aid is reserved for entering students.

The Henry C. Murphy Scholarship Endowment provides aid for worthy boys to secure an education, preference to be shown to those who plan to adopt journalism as their profession.

The LaVerne Noyes Foundation Scholarships (for veterans of World War I [1917–19] and their descendants) are awarded on the basis of service in the armed forces of the United States in World War I.

In addition to the general University scholarships, the Law School has available The James Nelson Raymond Scholarship established in 1930 from a fund given by Anna Louise Raymond in memory of her husband, James Nelson Raymond.

Two Francis Kosmerl Fellowships, each in the amount of $1,000, were established in 1948 by a bequest under the will of Francis Kosmerl, J.D. 1918. One fellowship is awarded annually to an outstanding student in the entering class, and one to an outstanding student in the Senior Class in the Law School.

The Class of 1915 Scholarship, a full-tuition scholarship endowed by the Class of 1915, is awarded annually, upon vote of the Law Faculty, to an outstanding student in the Junior Class of the Law School.

The Edwin B. Mayer Scholarship provides tuition aid to a student in the Law School.
The Leo F. Wormser Scholarships were established in 1935 by friends of Leo F. Wormser, J.D. 1909, as a memorial to him. In 1940 a gift to this fund was made by Mrs. Leo F. Wormser in memory of Mr. Wormser's mother, Mrs. Frida Wormser; and from time to time additional gifts have also been made to this scholarship fund by friends of Leo F. Wormser.

The James B. Blake Scholarship Fund was established in 1951 as a memorial to James B. Blake, J.D. 1907, by his friends.

The Mary Beecher Scholarship is awarded to an outstanding graduate of a women's college in the entering class of the Law School.

Application for scholarships should be made upon a form obtained from the office of the Dean of Students of the Law School. An exception to this procedure is made in the case of the award of a National Honor Scholarship. This award is granted upon the recommendation of a participating college, and application for it should be made to that college.

In addition to scholarship aid, the Law School has available several specially endowed loan funds as well as general University loan funds.

The special loan funds available exclusively to students of the Law School include the Ernst Freund Fund, the James Parker Hall Fund, the Floyd R. Mechem Fund, the Harry A. Bigelow Fund, the Clark B. Whittier Fund, the Anna Louise Raymond Fund, and the Julius Rosenthal Fund.

The Bernhardt Frank Loan Fund was established in 1952 by Louis H. Silver, J.D. 1928, in honor of his brother-in-law, Bernhardt Frank, for many years a member of the Chicago Bar and an outstanding appellate lawyer.

A form of application for a loan may be obtained from the office of the Dean of Students of the Law School.

For further information on scholarships and loans, consult the University Announcements: A General Statement.

XIV. CONFERENCES AND MEETINGS

The Law School recognizes its responsibility as a law center to contribute to the development of the law through research and co-operation with the Profession. It recognizes also the importance of such activities as broadening influences in the education of law students.

Special student seminars with members of the Bench and Bar are an integral part of the program of the School. Among those who participated in such seminars during the year 1951-52 are Hon. William J. Campbell, Judge of the United States District Court (Ill.); Hon. Joseph E. Daily, Chief Justice of the Illinois Supreme Court; Andrew J. Dallstream, member of the Illinois Bar and a graduate of the Law School; Hon. Harry M. Fisher, Judge of the Circuit Court, Cook County; Benjamin W. Heineman, member of the Illinois Bar; Stanley A. Kaplan, member of the Illinois Bar and a graduate of the Law School; Hon. Otto Kerner, Jr., United States Attorney; Hon. Willis W. Ritter, Judge of the United States District Court (Utah) and a graduate of the Law School; Miles Seeley, member of the Illinois Bar; Len Young Smith, President of Board, State Board of Law Examiners of Illinois; and Robert A. Sprecher, member of the Board of Law Examiners. Hon. Floyd E. Thompson, former Justice of the Illinois Supreme Court, was the speaker at a dinner for entering students and the Faculty in the Autumn Quarter.

A special student-faculty dinner is held in each Quarter. In the Autumn Quarter the dinner was with the presidents of the Bar Associations. The speakers were Mr. Howard Barkdull, President of the American Bar Association, and Professor Karl N. Llewellyn.
The Winter Quarter dinner had as its speaker Professor Robert Bowie, Harvard Law School, former Special Assistant to the Military Governor for Germany. The Spring Quarter dinner was with members of the Labor Law Bar in Chicago, with Mr. Donald Richberg as speaker.

Public lectures were given by Professor Arthur Goodhart, Master of University College, Oxford, and Professor Henry B. Ussing, Professor of Law at the University of Copenhagen, Denmark.

The Law School conducts three public conferences each year on legal problems. The Autumn Quarter conference was on Corporation Law and Finance, and was under the chairmanship of Professor Wilber G. Katz. Speakers included A. A. Berle, Jr., Professor of Law, Columbia University; Aaron Director, Professor of Economics, University of Chicago Law School; F. A. Hayek, Professor of Social and Moral Science, University of Chicago; Roger S. Foster, General Counsel, U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; Carlos L. Israels, Berlack and Israels, New York; Benjamin H. Weisbrod, of Wilson and McIlvaine, Chicago; Lawrence Bennett, of Milbank, Tweed, Hope and Hadley, New York; Homer Kripke, Assistant General Counsel, C.I.T. Finance Corporation, New York; John W. Kearns, Vice-President and Counsel, First National Bank, Chicago; George F. James, Director, Standard-Vacuum Oil Company, New York; Fowler Hamilton, of Cleary, Gottlieb, Friendly and Hamilton, New York; Philip M. Glick, General Counsel, Technical Cooperation Administration, Department of State.

The Winter Quarter Conference was on Divorce and was under the chairmanship of Professor Max Rheinstein. Speakers included Edwin A. Robson, Justice, Appellate Court of Illinois, First District; William C. Boyd, Member of the Illinois Bar; Harry J. Rudick, Member of the New York Bar; Paul W. Alexander, Judge, Court of Common Pleas, Lucas County, Ohio, and Chairman, Interprofessional Commission on Marriage and Divorce Laws; Meyer F. Nimkoff, Professor of Sociology, Florida State University; Thomas M. French, M.D., Associate Director, Institute for Psychoanalysis, Chicago; Emily H. Mudd, Executive Director, Marriage Council of Philadelphia; Francis J. Nosek, Chairman, Matrimonial Law Committee, Chicago Bar Association; Sarah Schaar, Head, Legal Department, Jewish Family and Community Center, Chicago; Herbert F. Goodrich, Judge, U.S. Court of Appeals, Third Circuit, Philadelphia; Anna M. Kross, Judge, Home Term, Magistrates Court of the City of New York.

The Spring Quarter Conference was on The Arts, Publishing, and the Law, and was under the chairmanship of Professor Allison Dunham. Speakers included Harry Kalven, Jr., Associate Professor of Law; John B. Martineau, of Kirkland, Fleming, Green, Martin and Ellis, Chicago; John F. Harding, General Counsel, Cowles Magazines, Inc., New York; Mark Benney, Visiting Lecturer of Social Sciences; Herman Finklestein, General Counsel of American Society of Composers, Artists and Publishers, New York; Robert L. Wright, Member of the District of Columbia Bar; Norman R. Tyre, of Gang, Koop and Tyre, Los Angeles; Morris I. Leibman, of Crowell and Leibman, Chicago; Seve Ljungman, Professor of Law, University of Stockholm; Aaron Director, Professor of Economics, University of Chicago Law School; Arthur Fisher, Register of Copyrights, Library of Congress, Washington, D.C.; Hon. Leon R. Yankwich, Judge, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of California; Arthur E. Farmer, of Stern and Reubens, General Counsel, American Book Publishers Council, New York.

Each year the Law School conducts one seminar designed for practicing lawyers. In 1951-52 it was held during the Winter and Spring quarters, was on Problems in Commercial Law, and was conducted by Professors Llewellyn, Mentschikoff, and Steffen.

The Law School participates annually in a Federal Tax Conference, in co-operation with University College, Downtown Center, and the School of Business. The participation of the Law School in this Conference is under the chairmanship of Professor Walter Blum.

XV. STUDENT ACTIVITIES AND HONORS

The University of Chicago Law Review, founded in 1933, is published by the School under the management of a Board of Editors composed of students. Members of the second-year class who rank highest in scholarship are invited to become competitors for election to the staff of the Review. From this group the Board of Editors chooses the editorial staff. The Editor-in-Chief from June, 1951, through February, 1952, was Edwin P. Wiley. The Managing Editors were Leo Herzl, Alexander H. Pope, and Bernard Weisberg. The Associate Editors were Howard Hoosin, Leonard R. Lamensdorf, Henry G. Manne, F. Raymond Marks, Jr., Walter Roth, A. Bruce Schimberg, and Melvin Spaeth. For the Spring Quarter, 1952, the Editor-in-Chief was Leo Herzl. The Managing Editors were Leonard R. Lamensdorf, Walter Roth, A. Bruce Schimberg, and Melvin Spaeth. The Associate Editors were Dale Broeder, Howard A. MacLeod, Alexander Polikoff, F. Raymond Marks, Jr., and Henry F. Manne.

The Chicago Chapter of the Order of the Coif is an honor society founded to encourage scholarship and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Its members are elected each spring from the 10 per cent of the graduating class who rank highest in scholarship. In 1952 the elected members were Julian R. Hansen, Elizabeth B. Head, Henry G. Manne, Alexander H. Pope, Walter Roth, Bernard Weisberg, and Edwin P. Wiley.

The University of Chicago Law School Student Association is comprised of the entire law student body and is affiliated with the American Law Student Association, a national organization sponsored by the Junior Bar Conference and the American Bar Association. The organization sponsors various legal and social student functions throughout the year. Officers are elected from each of the three classes. The officers for 1951–52 were: President, Burton W. Kanter; Vice-President-Treasurer, Ralph Mantyband; Secretary, George J. Phocas. Committee chairmen: Moot Court, Robert S. Clarke; Court Trips, Jason E. Bellows; Dance, Richard B. Kramer; Skits, Leon Gabinet.

The Joseph Henry Beal, Jr., Prize, named in honor of the first Dean of the Law School, is awarded to the first-year law student whose work in the first-year tutorial program is judged by the Faculty to be most worthy of special recognition.

The Walter Wheeler Cook Prize, named in honor of a distinguished member of the Law Faculty from 1910 to 1916, is awarded to the student who has written the best essay pursuant to the work of the second- and third-year seminars.

XVI. PLACEMENT

The Law School has a placement office to help students find suitable employment after their graduation. In collaboration with the Law School Alumni Association, special placement groups in large cities, and the University's general placement office it secures information about openings in law offices, corporations, and government offices throughout the country, and furnishes information about University of Chicago Law School graduates.

Early in their third year, students submit placement data indicating their plans and preferences after graduation. It is important that these records, which facilitate appropriate recommendations, be filled out accurately and be kept current. Accordingly, students whose plans or preferences change during the third year are asked to indicate such changes to the placement office. All third-year students have a personal interview concerning placement with Dean Carter, who is Director of Placement. Members of the faculty are also available for consultation and advice.

XVII. BUILDING AND LIBRARY

The Law School occupies a building situated on the Quadrangles of the University near Fifty-ninth Street and University Avenue. The cornerstone was laid on April 2, 1903, by President Theodore Roosevelt. Built of Bedford stone in the English Gothic style, its external appearance is suggestive of the Chapel of King's College, Cambridge. In the basement are seminar rooms, a clubroom, lockers, women's lounge, and library stack-rooms. On the first floor are two large classrooms, a courtroom, the office of the Law School, the office of the Dean, and the office of the Dean of Students. The mezzanine floor is occupied by the main library stackroom. Opening into the stackroom are the offices of the Faculty. On the third floor is the Law Library reading-room, a great hall one hundred and eighty feet long and fifty feet wide, with timbered roof and clerestory windows on all sides. A bridge affords a direct connection between the reading-room of the library of the Law School and the Harper Memorial Library.

On the walls of the building are hung the Charles B. Pike Collection of etchings and engravings of English and American judges and lawyers and also portraits of various members of the Faculty and benefactors of the School.

The Law Library has substantially all the reported decisions of the courts of the United States and of England, Scotland, Ireland, Canada, Australia, and the other parts of the British Empire, together with the statutes and session laws, textbooks, periodicals, digests, encyclopedias, and sets of classified and annotated reports of these jurisdictions. The Library has as well an extensive collection of the original briefs and records of cases in the Supreme Court of the United States. It also has a representative collection of the reports and opinions of various state and federal administrative agencies and the proceedings of various bar associations. The Library has an important collection of materials dealing with Greek and Roman law and the law of Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, The Netherlands, Italy, Mexico, Spain, and Switzerland. In addition, the students of the School have ready access to the Harper Memorial Library and to the libraries of the Public Administration Clearing House and of the Rosenwald Museum of Science and Industry.

To supplement general library appropriations, the Law Library has four special funds at its disposal. These are the James Nelson Raymond Memorial Fund, established in 1929 by Anna L. Raymond as a memorial to her husband, James Nelson Raymond, an eminent businessman of Chicago; the Wallace Heckman Memorial Fund, established in 1929 by Mrs. Wallace Heckman as a memorial to her husband, Wallace Heckman, business manager of the University from 1903 to 1924; the William B. Hale Fund, established in 1944 by the family of Mr. Hale to further the study of monopoly; and the Francis S. Kosmerl Law Library Fund, established in 1948 by a bequest under the will of Mr. Kosmerl, J.D. 1918.
XVIII. MARY BEECHER HALL, THE LAW SCHOOL RESIDENCE

Mary Beecher Hall is the Law School Men's Residence. Located on University Avenue between Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth streets, it forms part of a quadrangle with the Law School Building. There are commons and lounge facilities as well as living quarters for a limited number of law students, and the Hall also provides a meeting place for law students and a center for extra-curricular activities of the Law School.

The John B. Phillips Memorial Library, established by the classmates of John B. Phillips, J.D., 1941, who was killed in action at Tarawa, is housed in Beecher Hall as an open shelf collection of general cultural books pertaining to the law.

Applications for residence in Beecher Hall should be addressed to the Housing Bureau, The University of Chicago, 5801 Ellis Avenue, Chicago 37. Preference in the assignment of rooms will be given to entering students. Arrangements may be made by law students not rooming in the Hall to take regularly lunch or dinner, or both, in the Beecher Hall dining-room.

XIX. SUGGESTIONS FOR PRE-LEGAL STUDY

The Law School does not require that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects. A broad general education is thought more important for the student of law than specialized study in fields closely related to law.

Such a general education should include study of the social sciences, including economics and history; the humanities, especially philosophy and literature; and the elements of physical and biological sciences and mathematics. It is also of great importance that a law student should have acquired habits of precision, fluency, and economy in writing and speaking.

A list of books suggested for college students considering the study of law may be secured from the office of the Dean. A booklet by members of the Faculty on The Study and Practice of Law may be ordered for fifty cents from the University of Chicago Bookstore, Fifty-eighth Street and Ellis Avenue, Chicago 37. On request addressed to the Dean's Office, copies will be sent to college pre-legal advisers and other faculty members interested in legal education.

XX. FEES AND OTHER INFORMATION

Application fee. An application fee of $5.00 must accompany the original application for admission to the University. No part of the fee is refundable nor is it applicable as an advance payment on other fees.

Tuition fee. The tuition fee in the Law School is $246 a quarter. A student is required to pay full tuition unless a reduced program of work and a reduction of fees are approved by the Dean. The same fees apply to visitors.

Residence hall fees. For full board in Mary Beecher Hall the quarterly charge is $155.00; for lunch, $56.00; for dinner, $88.50. For individual occupancy of a room, the quarterly charge is $116.00.

Deposit on admission. An applicant who is accepted for admission into the Law School is required to make a deposit of $35 within four weeks after notice of acceptance has been sent. This deposit will be applied on the tuition fee and will be refunded only in the event that illness or other sufficient cause prevents an applicant from entering the School at the beginning of the quarter for which he has been accepted.

For further information concerning payment of bills, refunds, estimated expenses, living accommodations, University Health Service, and other matters of interest to the students, see the University Announcements: A General Statement.

LIBERAL EDUCATION AT CHICAGO

Since 1930 the University of Chicago has been developing a collegiate program concerned only with liberal education. The College which administers that liberal education is a four-year unit which students may enter after two years of high school. Most students entering the College after completing the sophomore year of high school are able to meet the requirements for the Bachelor's degree by the age of nineteen. Students may enter the College at the beginning of the Summer or of the Autumn Quarter, 1952, or at Midyear (about February 1), 1953.

An illustrated booklet entitled If You Want an Education may be obtained by writing to the Admissions Counselor, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37, Illinois.
