I. Location, History, and Organization

The University of Chicago is located on the South Side of Chicago, eight miles from the center of the city. Its grounds lie on both sides of the Midway Plaisance between Washington and Jackson parks; its plant includes nearly a hundred buildings. The present Law School Building, completed in 1903, is situated on the Quadrangles near Fifty-ninth Street and University Avenue. Linn House, the Law School Residence, is located on the Midway between Ellis and Greenwood Avenues. The American Bar Center, national headquarters for administration and research of the American Bar Association, is located on the south side of the Midway Plaisance, as is the Public Administration Clearing House. The new Law School buildings, which will be completed for the Autumn Quarter, 1959, will occupy a square block on the Midway between Greenwood and University Avenues. They will be connected with the Burton-Judson Residence Halls and will be opposite the American Bar Center.

The University of Chicago was incorporated in 1890, the product of the interest of the Baptist denomination in establishing a strong and well-equipped college at Chicago to serve the West. The University of Chicago includes: (1) The College. (2) The four Divisions—Biological Sciences, Humanities, Physical Sciences, Social Sciences. (3) The six Professional Schools—School of Business, Divinity School, Law School, Graduate Library School, School of Medicine, School of Social Service Administration. (4) University College, which includes the center for adult education, located in downtown Chicago, and the Home-Study Department. (5) The Libraries, Laboratories, Museums, Clinics, and Institutes. (6) The University Press.

A school of law and jurisprudence was contemplated in the original plan for the University of Chicago. The school, according to William Rainey Harper, the first president of the University, should be more than a training institution for admission to the bar. An education in law, President Harper said, "implies a scientific knowledge of law and of legal and juristic methods. These are the crystallization of ages of human progress. They cannot be understood in their entirety without a clear comprehension of the historic forces of which they are the product, and of the social environment with which they are in living contact. A scientific study of law involves the related sciences of history, economics, philosophy—the whole field of man as a social being." Consequently, the Law School was not to be an institution that had a merely nominal connection with the University, and it was not to be separated either by location or by spirit from the University at large. It should be an organic part of the University, in close touch with the other divisions, embodying the spirit and purpose of university life and, in turn, contributing to that life.

In 1902 President Harper's plan was approved by the Trustees, and the Law School was opened in October of that year. The goal of the School as stated in the first Announcements was "to afford adequate preparation for the practice of law as a profession in any jurisdiction in which the common law prevails, and to cultivate and encourage the scientific study of systematic and comparative jurisprudence, legal history, and principles of legislation."

The University of Chicago Law School has been a member of the Association of American Law Schools since the School was founded in 1902. It has been on the approved list of the American Bar Association since the standards of that association were adopted in 1921.
II. General Statement

The undergraduate curriculum of the Law School is designed to provide the essential training required for preparation for the practice of law, and for scholarly work in law. Emphasis is placed on a knowledge of the history, principles, and purposes of legal institutions, the operation of these institutions in the modern world, and the development of skills of legal craftsmanship. The basic curriculum incorporates the traditional legal fields and disciplines essential to the work of the law. Where relevant and practicable, the data and theories of the social sciences are used to further the study of law. The usual, although not exclusive, form of instruction is the case method; emphasis is also placed on individual instruction through a legal writing and research program which is required of every student. Opportunity for specialization is provided in the second and third years of each student’s program. The graduate program is planned to provide opportunity and guidance for research in law. A special graduate program exists for foreign students whose undergraduate law training has not been primarily in the field of the common law and who desire to do research in comparative law, and for graduates of American law schools who seek training in the civil law. The research work of the School is intended to further the knowledge of legal institutions, to enrich the instructional program of the School, and to contribute to the administration of justice.

III. Admission of Students

All applications for admission are subject to the approval of the faculty. The first-year class in the undergraduate (J.D.) program is limited to approximately 140 students.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE UNDERGRADUATE (J.D.) PROGRAM

Application for admission to the J.D. Program may be made by students who will have received a Bachelor’s degree from an approved college prior to beginning their study in the Law School. It is not required that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects. In exceptional cases students who have not satisfied the requirements for a Bachelor’s degree from an approved college prior to entering the Law School, but who have had three years of college work, may be admitted to the J.D. Program. Students in the College of the University of Chicago may be admitted after having secured a certificate of completion of General Studies.

Students are selected principally upon the basis of their college records, the material furnished in their applications for admission, and the results shown on the Law School Admission Test. In special cases a personal interview with the applicant may be required. Preliminary questions concerning admission to the Law School and requests for copies of the application form should be addressed to the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. Completed applications, official transcripts of all college and university records, and letters of recommendation should be sent directly to the Law School.

Arrangements should be made by applicants to take the Law School Admission Test administered by the Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau St., Princeton, New Jersey. The results of this test should be reported directly to the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. The Law School Admission Test will be given at selected locations throughout the country on November 8, 1958; February 21, 1959; April 18, 1959; and August 1, 1959.

Graduates of an approved law school whose studies have been primarily in the common law may apply for admission to the third year of the undergraduate school as candidates for the J.D. degree.

Graduates of an approved foreign law school whose studies have not been primarily in the common law may apply for admission as candidates for the J.D. degree in regular course. The requirements for this degree may be met in part for such students by the recognition of credits not to exceed 45 course hours (11½ units), if performance in residence demonstrates the effective value of the student's work in a foreign system.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE (LL.M.) (J.S.D.) PROGRAM

Application for admission to the graduate (LL.M.) (J.S.D.) program is limited to students who are the holders of a first degree in law from an approved law school, whose undergraduate work has been primarily in the common law, and who are qualified for advanced research in law. The degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) is awarded only to students who have been admitted to candidacy for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.).

Application for admission must be made upon a form obtained from the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. The completed form should be submitted directly to the Law School.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Graduates of an approved foreign law school whose studies have not been primarily in the common law may apply for admission to the program designed to give a one-year introduction to Anglo-American law. Upon completion of this program, such students will be given a certificate of attendance and a certificate for courses successfully completed.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE (M.COMP.L.) (D.COMP.L.) COMPARATIVE LAW AND FOREIGN LAW PROGRAMS

Application for admission to the Graduate (M.Comp.L.) (D.Comp.L.) Comparative Law and Foreign Law programs is limited to the following students:

1. For the Graduate Comparative Law Program, those students who are graduates of an approved foreign law school, and whose previous training, though not in the common law, qualifies them to undertake advanced research in law.

2. For the Foreign Law Program, those students who will have received a first degree in law from an approved American law school prior to beginning their studies in the Foreign Law Program.

Application for admission to the Graduate Comparative Law and Foreign Law programs must be made upon a form obtained from the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

IV. Requirements for Degrees

THE UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM

The degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) is awarded to students who (1) have been in residence for nine full quarters; (2) have shown by their standing in course examinations and by their individual investigations and reports a mastery of the fields for which they receive the requisite units of credit; (3) have shown an adequate mastery of English; and
(4) have successfully completed the work in the elective seminars or equivalent individual work approved by the faculty. A single course unit is the equivalent of four hours per week for one quarter. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units). Credit for 135 course hours (33 1/4 course units) and the maintenance of the required academic standing are needed for graduation. The degree of Doctor of Law, cum laude, is awarded to candidates who have satisfied the requirements with distinction. Graduates of an approved law school admitted as candidates for the J.D. degree must be in residence for three full quarters, have received credit for 44 course hours (11 course units), and have maintained the required academic standing.

THE GRADUATE PROGRAM

The degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) is awarded to students who have completed with distinction the residence work required for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence and, after submission and approval of a detailed outline and partial draft of a dissertation, have been admitted to candidacy for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence.

The degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) is awarded to students who have been in residence for three full consecutive quarters, have completed their studies with distinction, and, after admission to candidacy for the degree, have submitted a dissertation that is accepted by the faculty as a creditable contribution to legal science. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units). The program is individually arranged with the student's faculty adviser and is expected to occupy the student's full time. The work may include any seminar or course open to undergraduates, with such supplementary work as may be required. It may consist of independent study or research as may be individually arranged. If the work in residence is completed with distinction, and a detailed outline and partial draft of the dissertation are submitted and approved, the student will be admitted as a candidate for the doctorate. Thereafter the candidate's thesis must be submitted to the faculty for its approval within a reasonable period of time as set by the candidate's thesis committee.

Students receiving the J.D. degree from this Law School and accepted as candidates for the J.S.D. degree may apply to the Committee on Graduate Studies for permission to satisfy up to two academic quarters of the residence requirement through off-campus activities approved in advance by the Committee. This application must be made prior to the award of the J.D. degree. Bigelow Teaching Fellows accepted as candidates for the J.S.D. degree may satisfy one academic quarter of the residence requirement during their three-quarter period as teaching fellows.

THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

A certificate of attendance or a certificate for courses successfully completed will be given to graduates of foreign law schools who have been admitted to the Certificate Program, have been in residence for three full quarters, and have participated in the seminar in Problems of American Law for Foreign Students (488).

THE GRADUATE COMPARATIVE LAW PROGRAM

In the Graduate Comparative Law Program, the degree of Master of Comparative Law (M.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who have completed with distinction the residence work required for the degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.).

The degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who have been in residence for three full consecutive quarters, have completed their studies with distinction, and, after admission to candidacy for the degree, have submitted a dis­ ssertation that is accepted by the faculty as a creditable contribution to the literature of comparative law. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units). The program is individually arranged with the student's faculty adviser and is expected to occupy the student's full time. At least half of the student's work in residence must be devoted to some phases of Anglo-American law. If the work in residence is completed with distinction, and a detailed outline and partial draft of the dissertation are submitted and approved, the student will be admitted as a candidate for the doctorate. Thereafter the candidate's thesis must be submitted to the faculty for its approval within a reasonable period of time as set by the candidate's thesis committee.

THE FOREIGN LAW PROGRAM

In the Foreign Law Program, the degree of Master of Comparative Law
(M.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who have successfully completed the two years of work as required in the curriculum of the program. The first year of work consists of three quarters of residence at the University of Chicago Law School, during which period a major portion of the student's time will be spent in intensive and systematic study of the private law of France or Germany. The second year of work will be carried on, under guidance and supervision, in a foreign country. Upon the successful completion of the curriculum of the Foreign Law Program and the submission, within a reasonable period of time thereafter as set by the faculty, of a thesis that is considered by the faculty to be a significant contribution, the candidate will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.)

V. Examinations, Grading, and Rules

Normally a written examination is required at the completion of each course. The work of each student is graded according to the following scale: A, 80 and above; B, 74–79; C, 68–73; D, 60–67; F, below 60. These grades are recorded as numerical grades in the Office of the Law School and as letter grades in the Office of the Registrar of the University. A minimum grade of 60 is required before credit may be received for the work involved. Maintenance of the required academic standing is a prerequisite to continuation in the school and to candidacy for a degree. To maintain the required academic standing, a student must receive a minimum weighted grade average of 68 for the work of each academic year. A student who receives a failing final grade during any given academic year must maintain a weighted grade average of at least 69 for that academic year. A student receiving two failing final grades in any one academic year, or three failing final grades during his period of residence at the School, will not have maintained the required academic standing. A student who completes his work for the degree of Doctor of Law with a weighted grade average of 78 or better will have satisfied the requirements for the degree with distinction.

Regular class attendance is required as a condition of receiving credit for work done.
The privilege of membership in the School may be withdrawn for unsatisfactory classwork or attendance. After the first four weeks of any quarter, a student is not permitted to withdraw from a course, seminar, or special work for which he has registered that quarter, unless special authorization is given by the Dean. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units).
VI. Courses of Instruction

The program of each student is subject to the approval of the Dean. Normally all work for the first three quarters is required. A legal writing, research, and moot court program is also required of every student. Students are permitted to specialize in the second and third years. Members of the faculty may prescribe special qualifications for admission to particular courses or seminars.

Unless special permission is granted, the student must take all courses listed below for the first-year program. The numbers in parentheses at the end of each course description represent the value of the course in terms of course hours per quarter.

In order to achieve credit for 135 course hours in nine quarters, the student must take an average of 15 course hours (3\(\frac{3}{4}\) course units) per quarter. Unless special permission is granted, no student may take more than 17 course hours in any quarter.

VIII. Professorships and Teaching Fellowships

The John P. Wilson Professorship in Law was established in 1929 with funds contributed for the John P. Wilson Memorial Foundation by John P. Wilson, Jr., and Anna Wilson Dickinson as a memorial to their father, John P. Wilson, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar. The present holder of this professorship is Roscoe T. Steffen.

The James Parker Hall Professorship in Law was established in 1930 by the alumni of the School in memory of James Parker Hall, Dean of the School from 1904 until his death in 1928. The present holder of this professorship is Wilber G. Katz.

The Max Pam Professorship in Comparative Law was established in 1935 in memory of Max Pam, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar, with funds allocated by the Trustees under the will of Mr. Pam. The present holder of this professorship is Max Rheinstein.

Under the will of Leo Spitz, J.D. 1910, provision is made for the establishment of The Caroline and Henry Spitz Professorship, in honor of Mr. Spitz’s parents. This is a professorship in world organization, law, and government, and related problems, including the protection of human rights and the peaceful settlement of international legal and political disputes.

Under the will of Harry A. Bigelow, the University is to receive, upon the death of certain life-beneficiaries, the remainder of a trust fund for the establishment of The Harry A. Bigelow Professorship in Law. Mr. Bigelow was Dean of the Law School from 1929 to 1939, and a member of the Faculty of the Law School from 1904 until his death in 1950.

The Harry A. Bigelow Teaching Fellowships were established in 1947 in honor of Harry A. Bigelow. The fellowships are awarded to law graduates of high standing.

IX. Graduate Fellowships and Research Funds

The Law School has available a number of fellowships for graduate students. These include:

The James Nelson Raymond Fellowship, which was created in 1933 and 1934 by Anna Louise Raymond.

The Law Fellowships, which are supported by gifts of Law alumni to the Law School.

University Fellowships, a limited number of which are reserved for research students in law.

A limited number of special fellowships are available to students in the Foreign Law Program. The amount of these fellowships is $7,500 each, payable over the 21-month period of the Program.

Fellowships for a year of study at the University of Chicago Law School are available to a limited number of students from the British Commonwealth who are graduates in law or in jurisprudence of universities of the British Commonwealth.

Application for fellowships in connection with graduate work leading to a graduate degree should be made to the Dean of Students, Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

Special Research Fellowships are available in connection with the various research programs of the School made possible through special grants and through gifts of Law alumni to the Law School Fund. The Law and Behavioral Science Research Fellowships are available as a result of a grant from the Ford Foundation; preference for these fellowships is given to teachers of law or of the social sciences. Application for these fellowships should be made to the Dean of the Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

The Frieda and Arnold Shure Research Fund was established in 1945 by Frieda and Arnold Shure for the publication of legal studies of immediate importance for the public welfare.

X. Program of Research in Law and the Behavioral Sciences

A program of research in law and the behavioral sciences has been made possible through a grant from the Ford Foundation. Four projects are now being conducted: (1) The nature and operation of the jury system. (2) The characteristics and performance of arbitration as a sublegal system. (3) A study of court congestion and judicial administration. (4) A study of intestate inheritance.

XI. The Comparative Law Research Center

The Comparative Law Research Center was established in 1949 to promote research in the field of international legal relations. The Center provides opportunities for qualified students from the United States and abroad to obtain training in the techniques appropriate to this field. The Center serves also as a clearing house of information for foreign research and teaching institutions and provides advice to scholars and students abroad who are engaged in international studies touching upon American law. Professor Max Rheinstein, Max Pam Professor of Comparative Law, is Director of the Center.

XII. The Law Revision Program

The Law Revision Program is under the direction of a faculty committee of which Professor Allison Dunham is Chairman and Mr. Fred Merrifield is Research Associate. The Program includes studies and drafting on topics selected by the faculty committee from suggestions received from the Council of State Governments, the Conference of Attorneys General, the Conference of Chief Justices, the Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, and committees of bar associations. The Law Revision Group has participated in a draft of a proposed Illinois Habitual Criminal Act, the Illinois Savings and Loan Act of 1955, the Habitual Offender Act, an amendment to the Condemnation Statute to provide for quick taking, the preparation of the Housing Code of an Administrative Procedure Act, and preparatory work on a proposed revision of the Illinois Criminal Code.

XIII. The Law-Economics Program

The Law-Economics Program is under the general direction of a faculty committee of which Professor Aaron Director is chairman. During the academic year 1957–58, the results of a study in the area of the development of inventions and large-scale enterprise was published: Jewkes, Sawers, Stillerman, The Sources of Invention (New York: St. Martin’s Press, 1958).

The first issue of an annual journal of Law and Economics under the editorship of Professor Director will appear in the Autumn, 1958.

XIV. Student Scholarships and Loans

The Law School awards a limited number of full-tuition National Honor Scholarships to outstanding students designated by selected colleges. In addition, a number of scholarships are available each year for law students of outstanding ability who need financial assistance. Some of these scholarships are for full tuition, some for half-tuition, and some for amounts in excess of the tuition charge. In the case of veterans, scholarship awards may be made as cash grants to supplement government living allowances. A substantial proportion of Law School scholarship aid is reserved for entering students.

The Henry C. Murphy Scholarship Endowment provides aid for worthy boys to secure an education, preference to be shown to those who plan to adopt journalism as their profession.

The LaVerne Noyes Foundation Scholarships (for veterans of World War I and their descendants) are awarded on the basis of service in the armed forces of the United States in World War I.

In addition to the general University Scholarships, the Law School has available the following:

The James Nelson Raymond Scholarship, established in 1930 from a fund given by Anna Louise Raymond in memory of her husband, James Nelson Raymond.

Two Francis Kosmerl Fellowships, each in the amount of $1,000, were established in 1948 by a bequest under the will of Francis Kosmerl, J.D. 1918.

The Class of 1915 Scholarship, a full-tuition scholarship endowed by the Class of 1915, is awarded annually, upon vote of the Law Faculty, to an outstanding student in the Junior Class of the Law School.

The Edwin B. Mayer Scholarship provides tuition aid to a student in the Law School.

The Leo F. Wormser Scholarships were established in 1935 by friends of Leo F. Wormser, J.D. 1909, as a memorial to him. In 1940 a gift to this fund was made by Mrs. Leo F. Wormser in memory of Mr. Wormser's mother, Mrs. Frida Wormser; and from time to time additional gifts have also been made to this scholarship fund by the family and friends of Leo F. Wormser. In 1956 the Leo F. Wormser Memorial Fund was augmented by a bequest from the estate of Mrs. Leo F. Wormser.

The James B. Blake Scholarship Fund was established in 1951 as a memorial to James B. Blake, J.D. 1907, by his friends.

The Mary Beecher Scholarship is awarded to an outstanding graduate of a women's college in the entering class of the Law School.

The Phi Sigma Delta Scholarship, established by the members of Phi Sigma Delta fraternity, will provide a full-tuition scholarship for an outstanding law student during the academic year 1958-59.

Chicago Title and Trust Company Foundation Scholarships, awarded to outstanding students, have been made possible through gifts to the Law School by the Chicago Title and Trust Company Foundation.

Application for scholarships should be made upon a form obtained from the office of the Dean of Students of the Law School. An exception to this procedure is made in the case of the award of a National Honor Scholarship. This award is granted upon the recommendation of a participating college, and application for it should be made to that college.

In addition to scholarship aid, the Law School has available several specially endowed loan funds, as well as general University loan funds.

The special loan funds available exclusively or preferentially to students of the Law School include:

The Harry A. Bigelow Loan Fund was established in 1929 by the Law Class of 1929 in honor of the late Dean Bigelow. It is available to law students.

The Law School Student Loan Fund is available to students in the Law School.
The Bernhardt Frank Loan Fund, established in 1952 by Louis H. Silver, J.D. 1928, in honor of his brother-in-law, who was for many years a member of the Chicago Bar and an outstanding appellate lawyer.

The Ernst Freund Loan Fund was established in 1922 by the late Professor Ernst Freund and since his death has been augmented by other contributions. It is available to law students.

The Raphael and Rose Golde Loan Fund was established in 1955 by provision of the will of the late Joseph A. Golde, J.D. 1915, in memory of his parents.

The James Parker Hall Loan Fund was established by the alumni of the Law School in memory of the late Dean Hall. It is available to law students.

The Floyd R. Mechem Loan Fund for Law Students was established in 1921 by the late Professor Floyd R. Mechem.

The Harvey Puchowitz Loan Fund was established in 1955 by friends of Harvey Puchowitz in his memory.

The Ernst W. Puttkammer Loan Fund was established in 1956 by students in the Class of 1958.

The Anna Louise Raymond Loan Fund was established in 1932 for the benefit of students in the Law School, preference to be given to women.

The Julius Rosenthal Fund was established in 1903 in memory of Julius Rosenthal by the late Judge Julian W. Mack, formerly a professor in the School. It is available to students in the Law School.

The Frederick and Edith Shaffer Sass Loan Fund was established by Frederick Sass, Jr., Ph.B. 1930, J.D. 1932, and Louis Sass, S.B. 1932, in memory of their parents. Preference is given to students in the Law School.

The Ben and May Shapiro Loan Fund, established by Robert B. Shapiro, J.D. 1935, in memory of his parents, is available to students, preferably of the Law School, who are dependent in whole or in part upon their own efforts to secure an education.

The Clark B. Whittier Law Loan Fund was established by Professor Clark B. Whittier, a former member of the University of Chicago Law School faculty.

A form of application for a loan may be obtained from the Office of the Dean of Students of the Law School.

XV. Conferences, Meetings, and Lectures

The Law School recognizes its responsibility as a law center to contribute to the development of law through research and co-operation with the profession. It recognizes also the importance of such activities as broadening influences in the education of law students.

Special students seminars with members of the Bench and Bar are an integral part of the program of the School. Among those who participated in such seminars during the year 1957-58 are The Right Honorable The Viscount Kilmuir of Creich, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain; The Honorable Tom C. Clark, Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States; The Honorable Walter V. Schaefer, Justice of the Illinois Supreme Court; The Honorable Charles E. Clark, Chief Judge for the Federal Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit; The Honorable Melvin F. Abrahamson, Circuit Judge, Illinois; Gerald W. Gettys, Public Defender of Cook County; John F. Grady, Assistant U.S. Attorney; John B. Hendriks, Secretary-Treasurer of the Illinois State Board of Law Examiners; Albert E. Jenner, of Thompson, Raymond, Mayer, Jenner & Bloomstein; Earl A. Jinkinson, Chief of the Midwest Office, Antitrust Division, Department of Justice; Luis Kutner, Esq.; David L. Ladd, of the Firm of Casper Ooms; Joseph Lohman, Sheriff of Cook County; James L. Montrose, Dean of Law, Queen's University, Belfast; Dean Emeritus Roscoe Pound of Harvard Law School; Erwin W. Roemer, of Gardner, Carton, Douglas, Roemer & Chilgren; The Honorable Robert Tieken, United States Attorney, Northern District of Illinois.

Public lectures were given by Peter Fitzpatrick, Esq.; Dr. Welf Heinrich, Prince of Hanover, and Andrew G. Haley, President of the International Astronautical Federation; The Honorable Calvert Magruder, Chief Judge of the Federal Court of Appeals for the First Circuit; Erwin W. Roemer, Esq.; George J. Stigler, Professor of Economics at Columbia University; The Honorable William G. Stratton, Governor of Illinois; John P. Wilson, Esq.

Each year the Law School conducts one or more public conferences on major problems of the law. These conferences are designed to draw together members of the Bench, the Bar, the Law Faculty, the student body, and allied disciplines to permit a joint approach to problems of common interest.

During the Autumn Quarter, 1957, a conference was held on Fiduciary Responsibility in Labor Relations. The speakers included: Charles O. Gregory, Professor of Law, University of Virginia; The Honorable Abner J. Mikva, Illinois House of Representatives; George B. Christensen, of Winston, Strawn, Smith and Patterson; William Price, of Vedder, Price, Kaufman and Kammholz; Archibald Cox, Professor of Law, Harvard Law School; Harold Cranefield, General Counsel, United Auto Workers; The Honorable Paul W. Williams, United States Attorney, Southern District of New York; The Honorable Robert Tieken, United States Attorney, Northern District of Illinois; Sylvester Petro, Professor of Law, New York University; Mozart G. Ratner, of Jacobs and Ratner; Owen Fairweather, of Seyfarth, Shaw, Fairweather and Geraldson; Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., of Rauh and Levy; Lester Asher, of Asher, Gubbins and Segall; William P. Treacy, of Stevenson, Conaghan, Velde and Hackbert; Tom Harris, Associate General Counsel, AFL-CIO; and Gerard D. Reilly, of Reilly, Wells and Rhodes.

The Law School sponsors an annual three-day Conference on Federal Taxation, featuring papers by tax specialists drawn from all over the United States. The conference is planned in co-operation with members of the tax bar in Chicago. Professor Walter Blum is in charge of the Law School's participation in this Conference.

In September, 1957, upon the invitation of the University of Chicago Law School and the American Foreign Law Association, the International Association of Legal Science held its first conference in the United States. The conference was held at the University of Chicago Law School from September 8 to September 16 and was attended by 115 scholars from 23 countries. The topics that were discussed at the three round tables of the conference were (1) the rule of law as understood in the West; (2) the rule of law in Oriental countries; (3) legal devices to protect and promote the stability of marriage.

On December 5, 1957, ground was broken for construction of the new law buildings. Among those taking part in the ceremony were The Honorable Charles Davis, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois; Dean Walter Harrelson of the University of Chicago Divinity School; Lawrence A. Kimpton, Chancellor of the University of Chicago; Glen A. Lloyd, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the University of Chicago; Charles A. Rhyne, President of the American Bar Association; E. Douglas Schwantes, President of the Chicago Bar Association, and Barnabas Sears, President of the Illinois State Bar Association.

On May 28, 1958, a cornerstone ceremony was held at the site of the new law buildings. Glen A. Lloyd, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the University of Chicago, presided. The invocation was given by Dean Jerald C. Brauer of the Federated Theological Faculties of the University of Chicago. Participating in the ceremony were The Honorable Richard J. Daley, Mayor of Chicago; Morris E. Feiwell, President, The University of Chicago Law School Alumni Association; The Right Honorable The Viscount Kilmuir of Creich, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain; The Honorable Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the United States. The cornerstone ceremony was followed by a dinner held in the grand Ballroom of the Palmer House with Chancellor Lawrence A. Kimpton presiding. The invocation was given by Dean Walter Harrelson of the University of Chicago Divinity School. Addresses were given by The Right Honorable The Viscount Kilmuir of Creich, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and by The Honorable Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the United States.

The Ernst Freund Lectureship was established in 1953 in honor of a distinguished member of the Law Faculty from 1902 to 1932. The lectures are given biennially and later are published. In 1953 the Ernst Freund Lecture was delivered by The Honorable Felix Frankfurter, Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, on “Some Observations on Supreme Court Litigation and Legal Education.” In 1955 the lecture was delivered by The Honorable Walter V. Schaefer, ’28, Justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois, who spoke on “Precedent and Policy.” In 1958 the Ernst Freund Lecture will be delivered by The Honorable Charles E. Wyzanski, Jr., Judge of the United States District Court for Massachusetts. In 1960 the Ernst Freund Lecture will be delivered by The Honorable John Marshall Harlan, Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

The C. R. Musser Lectureship, an endowed lectureship in honor of a distinguished citizen, was established by the University in 1955 out of funds previously given to the Law School by the General Service Foundation. The lectureship is awarded biennially for a public lecture on some phase of the problems of government, to be given by an experienced citizen who has held public office. The Musser Lecture will be given in 1959 by The Honorable Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

The Henry C. Simons Memorial Lectureship was established in 1955 as a biennial lectureship in the field of law and economics, in honor of Henry C. Simons, for many years a distinguished member of the Faculty of the Law School and of the Department of Economics. The first Simons Lecture was given in February, 1958, by George Stigler, Professor of Economics, Columbia University, on “The Goals of Economic Policy.”

XVI. Student Activities and Honors

The University of Chicago Law Review, founded in 1933, is published by the School under the management of a Board of Editors composed of students. Students ranking highest in scholarship upon completion of their first year are invited to become competitors for election to the staff of the Review. For the year 1957–58, the Editor-in-Chief was Robert Zener. The Managing Editors were James Beaver, Alden Guild, and Francis Kareken. The Associate Editors were William Brackett, Richard Goodman, Philip H. Hedges, Ralph Long, Fred Mardell, John Ritsher, Terry Satinover, and Ronald Tonidandel. The Editor-in-Chief for 1958–59 is Alan Washburn. Managing Editors are Kenneth Howell and George Saunders. The Associate Editors are Richard Allen, George Bobrinskoy, Michael Douty, Ronald Finch, John Gilhooly, Kenneth Haberman, Herma Hill, Julius Kaplan, Mark Lieberman, Robert Lofts, Robert Martineau, Frank Mayer, Eric Rosenfeld, Amy Scupi, Richard Scupi, and John Voortman.

The Moot Court Committee conducts the Hinton Competition, a competitive moot court program open to all students who have completed the moot court segment of the first-year tutorial course. Prizes are awarded to winners of the competition; the team that represents the Law School in national competition is selected from among the most successful competitors. Chairman of the Moot Court Committee during the academic year 1957–58 was Robert T. Cornwell. The Committee made the following awards for achievement in the 1957–58 competition: C. John Amstutz, Robert Cornwell, Robert Reinke, competition winners; Robert Doan, Rufus Cook, best brief; Rufus Cook, best oral argument. The Law School’s team in the 1957–58 national competition was composed of Morton Brody, Robert Cornwell, and James Goodale. The 1958–59 national moot court team is composed of Rufus Cook and Robert Doan. The Chairman of the Committee for 1958–59 is Frederic Lane.

The Student Lawyer Journal, national publication of the American Law Student Association, is published in Chicago. Its editorial staff is composed entirely of University of Chicago Law School students, chosen for their writing ability. The student staff is responsible for all aspects of the publication. Editorial consultants are Jo Desha Lucas, Associate Professor of Law; Earl Hagen, Director, American Bar Association Law Student Program; and James M. Spiro, American Bar Association Director of Activities. The Editor-in-Chief for 1957–58 was Joe A. Sutherland. The Editor-in-Chief for 1958–59 is Gloria Martinez. Associate Editors are Maurice Oppenheim, George Unverzagt, and Kenneth Butler.

The Edwin F. Mandel Legal Aid Clinic, made possible through a gift from Mr. Edwin F. Mandel, was established in 1957 to provide needed legal services for indigent persons and for the training of law school students in the handling of cases under supervision. Henry J. Kaganiec is Director of the Edwin F. Mandel Legal Aid Clinic. The faculty committee on the clinic is composed of Nicholas Katzenbach, Chairman, Wilber Katz, and Francis Allen. The 1957–58 officers were Neale A. Secor, President; Matthew Brislawn, First Vice-President; James Weldon, Second Vice-President; Frederic Roehr III, Secretary-treasurer.

The University of Chicago Law School Student Association is composed of the entire student body and is affiliated with the American Law Student Association, a national organization sponsored by the Junior Bar Conference and the American Bar Association. The Student Association sponsors various legal and social functions throughout the year. The 1957–58 officers were John Satter, Chairman; John Gilhooly, Vice-Chairman; Gloria Martinez, Secretary; Ronald Tonidandel, Treasurer. The President of the Senior Class for 1958–59 and Chairman of the Council of the Association is John Gilhooly.

The Chicago Chapter of the Order of the Coif is an honor society founded to encourage and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Its members are elected each spring from the ten per cent of the graduating class who rank highest in scholarship. In 1957 the elected members were James E. Beaver, Francis J. Gerlits, Richard M. Goodman, Alden Guild, Francis A. Kareken, Ralph B. Long, John A. Ritsher, Terry K. Satinover, Robert V. Zener.

The Joseph Henry Beale Prize, named in honor of the first Dean of the Law School, is awarded to the first-year student whose work in the first-year tutorial program is judged by the Faculty to be most worthy of special recognition. The prize for 1957–58 was awarded to Neil H. Adelman and Lauren C. Hickman.

The Walter Wheeler Cook Prize, named in honor of a distinguished member of the Law Faculty from 1910 to 1916, is awarded to the student whose work in the second-year tutorial program is judged by the Faculty to be most worthy of special recognition. The prize for 1957–58 was awarded to Robert L. Doan.

The Institute for International Order offers two prizes for winning essays on subjects designated annually.

The Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company and the Bancroft-Whitney Company, joint publishers of American Jurisprudence, annually make available the relevant separately bound subjects from American Jurisprudence as an award to the highest ranking students in various course areas.

The Lawyers Title Award, sponsored by the Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation, Richmond, Virginia, is awarded annually to a student for excellence in work in the field of real estate. The award was given in 1957–58 to James E. Beaver.

The Edwin F. Mandel Award is made annually to that member of the graduating class who, during his law school career, has contributed the most to the Legal Aid program, both in the quality of the work done and the conscientious exercise of legal aid responsibilities. The award for 1957–58 was made to Frederic P. Roehr, III.

The Nathan Burkan Memorial Competition Prizes, sponsored by the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers, are available annually to two students whose papers in the field of copyright law are deemed by the Faculty to be worthy of the prizes.

The “Wall Street Journal” Award is given annually to a student for excellence in work in the field of corporation law. The award for 1957–58 was given to Alan V. Washburn.

XVII. Placement

The Law School maintains a placement office to help students find suitable employment after their graduation. In collaboration with the Law School Alumni Association, special placement groups in large cities, and the University's general placement office, it secures information about openings in law offices, corporations, and government offices throughout the country, and furnishes information about University of Chicago Law School graduates. The Placement Office also assists in arrangements for teaching positions; through the Comparative Law Center, efforts are made to place properly qualified students in research centers and other institutions abroad and to help foreign students to find opportunities for study and research in American law.

Early in their third year, students submit placement data indicating their plans and preferences after graduation. It is important that these records, which facilitate appropriate recommendations, be filled out accurately and kept up to date. Accordingly students whose plans or preferences change during the third year are asked to indicate such changes to the Placement Office. In the event that a student enters the armed forces following his graduation, the facilities of the Placement Office are available to him upon his return to civilian status. All third-year students have a personal interview with Dean Ratcliffe, who is Director of Placement. Members of the faculty are also available for consultation and advice.

XVIII. Building and Library

The Law School occupies a building situated on the Quadrangles of the University near Fifty-ninth Street and University Avenue. The cornerstone was laid on April 2, 1903, by President Theodore Roosevelt. Built of Bedford stone in the English Gothic style, its external appearance is suggestive of the Chapel of King's College, Cambridge. On the walls of the building are hung the Charles B. Pike Collection of etchings and engravings of English and American judges and lawyers and also portraits of various members of the faculty and benefactors of the School. In the basement are seminar rooms, tutorial and law review offices, a clubroom, lockers, women's lounge, and library stack-rooms housing the foreign law collection and the briefs and records of cases in the Supreme Court of the United States. On the first floor are two large classrooms, a courtroom, the Law School Office, and the offices of the Dean and two assistant deans. On the mezzanine floor are the offices of the faculty and the stacks housing the bulk of the Law Library collection. On the third floor is the Law Library Reading-Room, a great hall one hundred and eighty feet long and fifty feet wide, with timbered roof and clerestory windows on all sides. Around its walls is an open-shelf collection, almost one-sixth of the Law Library's volumes, comprising duplicate sets of United States Supreme Court Reports, National Reporter System, reports of all state courts of highest resort and principal English Court Reports, together with citators, digests, encyclopedias, indexes, and annotated reports. A bridge affords a direct connection between the Law Library Reading-Room and the Harper Memorial Library, which houses approximately half of the University Library's two million volumes. Immediately across the bridge is the Periodical and Document Room, which houses recent and current issues of approximately 2,800 periodicals, principally in the social sciences and business, and the Social Science Reading-Room, which has an open-shelf reference collection of approximately five thousand volumes. In addition to the foregoing, law students have ready access to the other departmental libraries of the University, to the library of the near-by Public Administration Service, and to the library of the American Bar Center. The University of Chicago legal collection comprises approximately 212,000 volumes of which 126,000 are housed in the Law School building. The close proximity of the Law building to the general University Library has made it possible to house a substantial amount of legal material in the general collection for the joint use of Law, the School of Business, the Division of the Social Sciences, and others.

The Law Library collection covers substantially all fields and systems of law. The Anglo-American Law section contains an almost complete collection of the statutes, session laws, and reported decisions of the courts of each jurisdiction, together with digests, encyclopedias, loose-leaf services, periodicals, and the principal treatises. It includes also an extensive collection of the original briefs and records of cases in the Supreme Court of the United States and a representative collection of the reports and opinions of the federal and state administrative agencies and of the proceedings of the various bar associations. The International and Foreign Law section contains basic source and secondary materials relating to early legal systems and the law of continental European countries, including the latest codes, laws, decisions, and current periodicals. There are also special sections on legal history, including biography, jurisprudence, comparative law, canon law, and international law. Materials on the laws of the oriental countries, ancient and modern, can be found on the Quadrangles in the library of the Oriental Institute.

The Law Library has four special funds at its disposal to supplement general library appropriations. These are the James Nelson Raymond Memorial Fund, established in 1929 by Anna L. Raymond as a memorial to her husband, James Nelson Raymond, an eminent businessman of Chicago; the Wallace Heckman Memorial Fund, established in 1929 by Mrs. Wallace Heckman as a memorial to her husband, Wallace Heckman, business manager of the University from 1903 to 1924; the William B. Hale Fund, established in 1944 by the family of Mr. Hale for the collection of materials for research and study in the field of monopoly; and a special Law Library endowment fund which has been established for the Law School under the guidance and with the help of Arnold I. Shure.

The new Law School buildings on the south side of the Midway Plaisance, connected with the Burton-Judson Residence Halls and opposite the American Bar Center, will be occupied by the Law School beginning with the Autumn Quarter, 1959.

XIX. Linn House, The Law School Residence

Linn House is the Law School Men's Residence. It is one of the residence halls in the Burton-Judson Courts, located on The Midway between Ellis and Greenwood avenues and one block from the American Bar Center. There are common-room and lounge facilities as well as living quarters for a limited number of law students. The Law Lounge in Burton-Judson Courts also provides a meeting place for law students and a center for extracurricular activities of the Law School.

The John B. Phillips Memorial Library, established by the classmates of John B. Phillips, J.D. 1941, who was killed in action at Tarawa, is housed in The Law Lounge in Burton-Judson Courts as an open-shelf collection of general cultural books pertaining to the law.

Applications for residence in Linn House, or inquiries concerning other housing accommodations, should be addressed to the Student Housing Office, The University of Chicago, 5801 Ellis Avenue, Chicago 37. Arrangements may be made by law students not rooming in the Hall to take regularly lunch or dinner, or both, in the Burton-Judson Courts dining-room. Unless special arrangements are made, the assignment of a room in Linn House is for a period of three academic quarters.

XX. International House

International House, with accommodations for over five hundred residents (men and women), is a gift of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and is designed primarily to provide living quarters for qualified students from abroad and for American students. Full-time graduate students and upperclass undergraduate students registered in the University of Chicago and in other colleges and universities in the Chicago area are eligible for residence at International House. Accommodations are available also on a quarterly, short-term, or transient basis to visiting foreign faculty members, scholars, research associates, and fellows.

International House offers a varied program of cultural and social activities planned to give opportunities for the students to acquire knowledge of each other's customs and culture. Informal discussion groups interpret the historical, political, and sociological aspects of various countries. Social events include dances, concerts, receptions, and programs presenting activities of a national character. Opportunities are provided for foreign and American students to work together in many types of student enterprises. A broad program of community hospitality allows foreign students to meet American families and to visit American homes. Tours are arranged quarterly to Chicago's outstanding industries and historical centers.

The office of the Adviser to Foreign Visitors is located in International House. Foreign students are welcome at any time to consult with the Adviser on immigration matters, on personal problems, and on problems of adjustment to conditions in a new land.
Individual consideration is given to each student upon arrival, and efforts are made to relate him or her quickly and in a friendly way to the new environment.

Quarterly rates for rooms in International House are as follows: for double rooms equipped with individual beds, $75.00 to $99.00 per person; for single rooms, $85.00 to $120.00. Weekly short-term rates (applicable for a minimum period of residence of two weeks) are one-tenth of the quarterly rate. The rate by the day is $2.50 per person. All rooms are furnished except for towels, which may be rented for an additional $2.50 per quarter. Moderately priced meals are served in the cafeteria, which is open to all university students and faculty members.

All inquiries should be addressed to the Office of Admissions, International House, 1414 East Fifty-ninth Street, Chicago 37, Illinois.

XXI. The Chapel

EWELL J. REAGIN, A.B., D.B., Assistant to the Dean of the Chapel.
RICHARD E. VIKSTROM, A.M., Director of Chapel Music.
HEINRICH FLEISCHER, PH.D., University Organist.
JAMES R. LAWSON, A.B., LAUREAT, Chapel Carillonneur.

Sunday morning services of worship are held throughout the academic year in the Rockefeller Memorial Chapel. Students and faculty members participate in the service. The Dean preaches on about half the Sundays of each quarter; on the other Sundays the guest preachers include members of the Federated Theological Faculty and outstanding churchmen from all parts of the nation and abroad. Special services are scheduled for the major seasons of the Church Year: Advent, Christmas, Lent, Holy Week, and Pentecost. The sacrament of Holy Communion is celebrated each quarter. The Chapel is open daily for private meditation and prayer.

Membership in the University Choir is open to all qualified students. The Choir sings at the Sunday services and, accompanied by members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, gives four or five major concerts each year. These include such works as Handel’s The Messiah and Bach’s St. Matthew Passion and Mass in B Minor as well as modern works of sacred music. Frequent organ concerts are given by the University Organist and by distinguished guest organists. Carillon concerts are played each Sunday and Wednesday by the Chapel Carillonneur.

The University Chapel is the center of a wide variety of student groups organized for religious fellowship and activities within the University and for social service in the city. These groups plan their own programs with the advice of counselors or of student pastors chosen by the authorities of their respective churches. The Jewish, Episcopal, and Roman Catholic groups have for their activities houses of their own near the Quadrangles. A number of Protestant groups co-operate with the University in maintaining Chapel House, adjacent to the Chapel at 5810 Woodlawn Avenue, for their joint activities. Information may be secured, and appointments with the officers or counselors of the several groups may be made, through the Chapel office.

XXII. Physical Education

The University has an extensive athletic plant and encourages the broadest participation of its students in the Physical Education program.

The Frank Dickinson Bartlett Gymnasium contains basketball, badminton, and volleyball courts, space for gymnastics, wrestling, fencing, squash, weight lifting, and handball, and a swimming pool. The Field House provides facilities for practice and enjoyment of a variety of athletic sports under favorable conditions in cold months and in bad weather. It contains a removable basketball floor, a track, a baseball diamond and batting cage, five tennis courts, a golf-driving range, and a football practice field. The University also maintains outdoor tennis courts, two large playing fields, baseball diamonds, golf greens, a one-quarter-mile cinder track, and an ice-skating and hockey rink.

Ida Noyes Hall provides equipment for the program of athletics for women. The building contains a gymnasium, dance room, games room, swimming pool, golf cages, bowling alleys, billiard room, and shower and dressing quarters. To the south of Ida Noyes Hall is the Midway Plaisance, where the Chicago Park District provides three hockey fields.

XXIII. The Student Health Service

STAFF

HENRIETTA HERBOLSHEIMER, S.B., M.P.H., M.D., Director of the Student Health Service and Associate Professor of Medicine.

JANE MCKONNELL, A.B., N.B., Executive Assistant to the Director of the Student Health Service.

JOHN KRAMER, M.D., Chief of the Student Health Service Mental Hygiene Clinic, Assistant Director of the Student Health Service, and Associate Professor of Psychiatry.

ROBERT C. DRYE, M.D., Assistant Chief of the Student Health Service Mental Hygiene Clinic and Instructor in Psychiatry.

MIRIAM ELSON, A.M., Chief Psychiatric Social Worker of the Student Health Service Mental Hygiene Clinic, and Psychiatric Social Worker in the Department of Psychiatry.

OLGA GILLOEGLY, M.D., Physician in the Student Health Service and Assistant in Medicine.

ALPHONSE GNILKA, M.D., Physician in the Student Health Service and Assistant in Medicine.

MARIORIE HAYES, M.D., Psychiatrist in the Student Health Service and Assistant in Psychiatry.

AARON HILKEVITCH, M.D., Psychiatrist in the Student Health Service and Lecturer in Psychiatry.

ALICE ICHIKAWA, A.M., Psychiatric Social Worker in the Student Health Service Mental Hygiene Clinic and the Department of Psychiatry.

GEORGINE KAVKA, M.D., Physician in the Student Health Service and Assistant in Medicine.

SUSANNE E. LARSH, A.B., M.D., Physician in the Student Health Service and Assistant in Medicine.

MORTON LIEBERMAN, PH.D., Psychologist in the Student Health Service and Instructor in Psychology.

J. ALLEN MARSHALL, M.D., Physician in the Student Health Service and Assistant in Medicine.

NÁNDOR SZENT-GYÖRGYI, M.D., Physician in the Student Health Service and Assistant Professor of Medicine.

The Student Health Center is a part of the medical plant of the University, which is comprised of hospitals, clinics, and medical-research facilities. The complete facilities of the Health Service are available to students in the quarters when they are registered and for a week following any such quarter. Eligibility for service is further defined by payment of the quarterly registration and general service fee.

An entrance medical examination is part of registration. Coverage includes ambulatory care in SHS; costs of hospitalization are covered by the Health Service up to a limit of one week for any single illness provided that the condition did not exist before admission to the University.
Since any illness can best be diagnosed in the clinic, emergency room, or hospital, the Health Service does not provide house or room calls.

A new student must make arrangements for the entrance medical examination at the time he registers. Failure to make this arrangement or to keep an appointment already made for such examination entails added cost to the Health Service. To offset this cost, an extra service fee of $3.00 must be paid to the Health Service by the student.

For a more complete description of services available, the Student Handbook should be consulted.

From time to time students with special health problems affecting their own welfare or that of the University community may be recalled to the Health Service. Failure of a student to comply with this request of the Health Service is reported to the Dean's office.

XXIV. Suggestions for Pre-legal Study

The Law School does not require that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects. A broad general education is thought more important for the student of law than specialized study in fields closely related to law.

Such a general education should include study of the social sciences, including economics, political science, and history; the humanities, especially philosophy and literature; and the elements of physical and biological sciences and mathematics. It is also of great importance that a law student should have acquired habits of precision, fluency, and economy in writing and speaking.

XXV. Fees and Other Information

Application fee. An application fee of $5.00 must accompany the original application for admission to the University. No part of the fee is refundable nor is it applicable as an advance payment on other fees.

Tuition fee. The tuition fee in the Law School is $280 a quarter. A student is required to pay full tuition unless a reduced program of work and a reduction of fees are approved by the Dean.

Registration and general service fee (including Health Service). A fee of $20 a quarter.

Residence-hall fees. Room and board are available in Linn House at a cost of $879 for the nine-month academic year.

Deposit on admission. An applicant who is accepted for admission into the Law School is required to make a deposit of $35 within four weeks after notice of acceptance has been sent. This deposit will be applied on the tuition fee and will be refunded only in the event that illness or other sufficient cause prevents an applicant from entering the School at the beginning of the quarter for which he has been accepted.
