I. Location, History, and Organization

The University of Chicago is located on the South Side of Chicago, eight miles from the center of the city. Its grounds lie on both sides of the Midway Plaisance between Washington and Jackson parks; its plant includes over a hundred buildings. The new Law School buildings occupy a square block on the Midway between Greenwood and University Avenues. They are connected with the Burton-Judson Residence Halls and are opposite the American Bar Center.

The University of Chicago was incorporated in 1890, the product of the interest of the Baptist denomination in establishing a strong and well-equipped college at Chicago to serve the West. The University of Chicago includes: (1) The College. (2) The four Divisions—Biological Sciences, Humanities, Physical Sciences, Social Sciences. (3) The seven Professional Schools—Graduate School of Business, Divinity School, Graduate School of Education, Law School, Graduate Library School, School of Medicine, School of Social Service Administration. (4) University College, which includes the center for adult education, located in downtown Chicago, and the Home-Study Department. (5) The Libraries, Laboratories, Museums, Clinics, and Institutes. (6) The University Press.

A school of law and jurisprudence was contemplated in the original plan for the University of Chicago. The school, according to William Rainey Harper, the first president of the University, should be more than a training institution for admission to the bar. An education in law, President Harper said, "implies a scientific knowledge of law and of legal and juristic methods. These are the crystallization of ages of human progress. They cannot be understood in their entirety without a clear comprehension of the historic forces of which they are the product, and of the social environment with which they are in living contact. A scientific study of law involves the related sciences of history, economics, philosophy—the whole field of man as a social being." Consequently, the Law School was not to be an institution that had a merely nominal connection with the University, and it was not to be separated either by location or by spirit from the University at large. It should be an organic part of the University, in close touch with the other divisions, embodying the spirit and purpose of university life and, in turn, contributing to that life.

In 1902 President Harper's plan was approved by the Trustees, and the Law School was opened in October of that year. The goal of the School as stated in the first Announcements was "to afford adequate preparation for the practice of law as a profession in any jurisdiction in which the common law prevails, and to cultivate and encourage the scientific study of systematic and comparative jurisprudence, legal history, and principles of legislation." The construction of the first law building was made possible through a gift from John D. Rockefeller; the cornerstone was laid on April 2, 1903, by President Theodore Roosevelt. The cornerstone ceremonies for the present Law School buildings were held on May 28, 1958. The Right Honorable Viscount Kilmuir of Creich, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and The Honorable Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the United States, participated in the ceremonies. The Law School began operations in its present buildings on October 5, 1959.

The University of Chicago Law School has been a member of the Association of American Law Schools since the School was founded in 1902. It has been on the approved list of the American Bar Association since the standards of that association were adopted in 1921.
II. General Statement

The undergraduate curriculum of the Law School is designed to provide the essential training required for preparation for the practice of law, and for scholarly work in law. Emphasis is placed on a knowledge of the history, principles, and purposes of legal institutions, the operation of these institutions in the modern world, and the development of skills of legal craftsmanship. The basic curriculum incorporates the traditional legal fields and disciplines essential to the work of the law. Where relevant and practicable, the data and theories of the social sciences are used to further the study of law. The usual, although not exclusive, form of instruction is the case method; emphasis is also placed on individual instruction through a legal writing and research program which is required of every student. Opportunity for specialization is provided in the second and third years of each student’s program. The graduate program is planned to provide opportunity and guidance for research in law. A special graduate program exists for foreign students whose undergraduate law training has not been primarily in the field of the common law and who desire to do research in comparative law, and for graduates of American law schools who seek training in the civil law. The research work of the School is intended to further the knowledge of legal institutions, to enrich the instructional program of the School, and to contribute to the administration of justice.

III. Admission of Students

All applications for admission are subject to the approval of the faculty. The first-year class in the undergraduate (J.D.) program is limited to approximately 140 students.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE UNDERGRADUATE (J.D.) PROGRAM

Application for admission to the J.D. Program may be made by students who will have received a Bachelor's degree from an approved college prior to beginning their study in the Law School. It is not required that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects. Students in the College of the University of Chicago may be admitted after having secured a certificate of completion of general studies.

Students are selected principally upon the basis of their college records, the material furnished in their applications for admission, and the results shown on the Law School Admission Test. In special cases a personal interview with the applicant may be required. Preliminary questions concerning admission to the Law School and requests for copies of the application form should be addressed to the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. Completed applications, official transcripts of all college and university records, and letters of recommendation should be sent directly to the Law School.

Arrangements should be made by applicants to take the Law School Admission Test administered by the Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau St., Princeton, New Jersey. The results of this test should be reported directly to the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. The Law School Admission Test will be given at selected locations throughout the country on November 12, 1960; February 18, 1961; April 15, 1961; and August 5, 1961.

Graduates of an approved law school whose studies have been primarily in the common law may apply for admission to the third year of the undergraduate school as candidates for the J.D. degree.
Graduates of an approved foreign law school whose studies have not been primarily in the common law may apply for admission as candidates for the J.D. degree in regular course. The requirements for this degree may be met in part for such students by the recognition of credits not to exceed 45 course hours (11 1/4 units), if performance in residence demonstrates the effective value of the student's work in a foreign system.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE (LL.M.) (J.S.D.) PROGRAM

Application for admission to the graduate (LL.M.) (J.S.D.) program is limited to students who are the holders of a first degree in law from an approved law school, whose undergraduate work has been primarily in the common law, and who are qualified for advanced research in law. The degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) is awarded only to students who have been admitted to candidacy for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.).

Application for admission must be made upon a form obtained from the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. The completed form should be submitted directly to the Law School.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Graduates of an approved foreign law school whose studies have not been primarily in the common law may apply for admission to the program designed to give a one-year introduction to Anglo-American law. Upon completion of this program, such students will be given a certificate of attendance and a certificate for courses successfully completed.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE (M.COMPL.) (D.COMPL.) COMPARATIVE LAW AND FOREIGN LAW PROGRAMS

Application for admission to the Graduate (M.Compl.) (D.Compl.) Comparative Law and Foreign Law programs is limited to the following students:

1. For the Graduate Comparative Law Program, those students who are graduates of an approved foreign law school, and whose previous training, though not in the common law, qualifies them to undertake advanced research in law.

2. For the Foreign Law Program, those students who will have received a first degree in law from an approved American law school prior to beginning their studies in the Foreign Law Program.

Application for admission to the Graduate Comparative Law and Foreign Law programs must be made upon a form obtained from the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

IV. Requirements for Degrees

THE UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM

The degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) is awarded to students who (1) have been in residence for nine full quarters; (2) have shown by their standing in course examinations and by their individual investigations and reports a mastery of the fields for which they receive the requisite units of credit; (3) have shown an adequate mastery of English; and (4) have successfully completed the work in the elective seminars or equivalent individual work approved by the faculty. A single course unit is the equivalent of four hours per week for one quarter. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units). Credit for 135 course hours (33¼ course units) and the maintenance of the required academic standing are needed for graduation. The degree of Doctor of Law, cum laude, is awarded to candidates who have satisfied the requirements with distinction. Graduates of an approved law school admitted as candidates for the J.D. degree must be in residence for three full quarters, have received credit for 44 course hours (11 course units), and have maintained the required academic standing.

THE GRADUATE PROGRAM

The degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) is awarded to students who have completed with distinction the residence work required for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence and, after submission and approval of a detailed outline and partial draft of a dissertation, have been admitted to candidacy for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence.

The degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) is awarded to students who have been in residence for three full consecutive quarters, have completed their studies with distinction, and, after admission to candidacy for the degree, have submitted a dissertation that is accepted by the faculty as a creditable contribution to legal science. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units). The program is individually arranged with the student’s faculty adviser and is expected to occupy the student’s full time. The work may include any seminar or course open to undergraduates, with such supplementary work as may be required. It may consist of independent study or research as may be individually arranged. If the work in residence is completed with distinction, and a detailed outline and partial draft of the dissertation are submitted and approved, the student will be admitted as a candidate for the doctorate. Thereafter the candidate’s dissertation must be submitted to the faculty for its approval within a reasonable period of time as set by the candidate’s dissertation committee.

Students receiving the J.D. degree from this Law School and accepted as candidates for the J.S.D. degree may apply to the Committee on Graduate Studies for permission to satisfy up to two academic quarters of the residence requirement through off-campus activities approved in advance by the Committee. This application must be made prior to the award of the J.D. degree. Bigelow Teaching Fellows accepted as candidates for the J.S.D. degree may satisfy one academic quarter of the residence requirement during their three-quarter period as teaching fellows.

THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

A certificate of attendance or a certificate for courses successfully completed will be given to graduates of foreign law schools who have been admitted to the Certificate Program, have been in residence for three full quarters, and have participated in the seminar in Problems of American Law for Foreign Students (588).

THE GRADUATE COMPARATIVE LAW PROGRAM

In the Graduate Comparative Law Program, the degree of Master of Comparative Law (M.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who have completed with distinction the residence work required for the degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.).

The degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who have been in residence for three full consecutive quarters, have completed their studies with distinction, and, after admission to candidacy for the degree, have submitted a dissertation that is accepted by the faculty as a creditable contribution to the literature of comparative law. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units). The program is individually arranged with the student's faculty adviser and is expected to occupy the student's full time. At least half of the student's work in residence must be devoted to some phases of Anglo-American law. If the work in residence is completed with distinction, and a detailed outline and partial draft of the dissertation are submitted and approved, the student will be admitted as a candidate for the doctorate. Thereafter the candidate's dissertation must be submitted to the faculty for its approval within a reasonable period of time as set by the candidate's dissertation committee.

THE FOREIGN LAW PROGRAM

In the Foreign Law Program, the degree of Master of Comparative Law (M.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who have successfully completed the two years of work as required in the curriculum of the program. The first year of work consists of three quarters of residence at the University of Chicago Law School, during which period a major portion of the student's time will be spent in intensive and systematic study of the private law of France or Germany. The second year of work will be carried on, under guidance and supervision, in a foreign country. Upon the successful completion of the curriculum of the Foreign Law Program and the submission, within a reasonable period of time thereafter as set by the faculty, of a dissertation that is considered by the faculty to be a significant contribution, the candidate will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.).

V. Examinations, Grading, and Rules

Normally a written examination is required at the completion of each course. The work of each student is graded according to the following scale: A, 80 and above; B, 74–79; C, 68–73; D, 60–67; F, below 60. These grades are recorded as numerical grades in the Office of the Law School and as letter grades in the Office of the Registrar of the University. A minimum grade of 60 is required before credit may be received for the work involved. Maintenance of the required academic standing is a prerequisite to continuation in the School and to candidacy for a degree. To maintain the required academic standing, a student must receive a minimum weighted grade average of 68 for the work of each academic year. A student who receives a failing final grade during any given academic year must maintain a weighted grade average of at least 69 for that academic year. A student receiving two failing final grades in any one academic year, or three failing final grades during his period of residence at the School, will not have maintained the required academic standing. A student who completes his work for the degree of Doctor of Law with a weighted grade average of 78 or better will have satisfied the requirements for the degree with distinction.

Regular class attendance is required as a condition of receiving credit for work done. The privilege of membership in the School may be withdrawn for unsatisfactory classwork or attendance. After the first four weeks of any quarter, a student is not permitted to withdraw from a course, seminar, or special work for which he has registered that quarter, unless special authorization is given by the Dean. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units).
VI. Courses of Instruction

The program of each student is subject to the approval of the Dean. Normally all work for the first three quarters is required. A legal writing, research, and moot court program is also required of every student. Students are permitted to specialize in the second and third years. Members of the faculty may prescribe special qualifications for admission to particular courses or seminars.

Unless special permission is granted, the student must take all courses listed below for the first-year program. The numbers in parentheses at the end of each course description represent the value of the course in terms of course hours per quarter.

In order to achieve credit for 135 course hours in nine quarters, the student must take an average of 15 course hours (3 1/4 course units) per quarter. Unless special permission is granted, no student may take more than 17 course hours in any quarter.

FIRST-YEAR COURSES

302. Contracts. Promises and consideration—the bargain; fairness, duress, mistake, supervening events, default as an excuse, damages; an introduction to multiple-party transactions. Aut (3), Win (3), Spr (2), Sharp.

303. Criminal Law and Administration. General doctrines of criminal liability, crimes against persons and property, legislative problems of criminal-law revision; selected problems of procedure, administration, and constitutional rights. Aut (3), Win (3), Allen.

304. Civil Procedure I: Jurisdiction and Judgments. Introduction to adjective law; division of business and function between state and federal courts; choice of forum; jurisdiction over persons and things; venue; kinds of judgments, res judicata and collateral estoppel; full faith and credit. Spr (4), Currie.

305. Property. Present and future interests in land and chattels; restrictions on the creation of future interests; conveyances inter vivos, including land contracts; adverse possession and statutes of limitation. Aut (2), Win (3), Spr (4), Dunham, Tefft.

306. Torts. Protection of personal integrity, including freedom from contact, defamation, etc.; compensation for personal injuries; protection against injuries to property interests; protection of consumers, purchasers, and investors; protection of business and other interests from wilful invasion; theories of civil liability. Aut (3), Win (3), Kalven.

307. Agency. A study of that pervasive device by which one person (association, trust, or corporation) may employ others to do his work, construct his factory, acquire property, or sell and deliver goods, as if he were present and acting—with particular attention to the social basis for vicarious liability and the procedures for allocating risks. Spr (5), Steffen.

348. Tutorial Work I. Intensive training in analysis, research, and exposition. Aut (2), Win (2), Spr 0), Katz and Bigelow Teaching Fellows.

SECOND- AND THIRD-YEAR COURSES

With the exception of the required second-year tutorial work, the program for the second and third years is elective. Courses recommended, but not required, as second-year courses are marked with an asterisk.

400. Equity.* The origin and development of equitable remedies and their role under present conditions. Aut (4), Tefft.

401. Administrative Law.* The powers and procedures of administrative agencies in the United States. The constitutional position of the administrative agency; procedural problems relating to the exercise of administrative power; the methods and extent of judicial control over administrative action. Spr. (4), Cramton.

* Students may take both Commercial and Investment Paper and Commercial Law Practice.
* Course required for the second year.
* Recommended in connection with Law 410a and 520. Students who have had as much as a year of college accounting must secure permission of the instructor prior to registering for Law 404.
* Students taking Constitutional Law may elect 402a-1 or 402a-2 or both, or may take 402b.
* Students electing to take all three Constitutional Law courses must secure the permission of the Dean.
* in the Foreign Law Program. Consent of instructor is required.
* This schedule is subject to change.
VIII. Professorships and Teaching Fellowships

The John P. Wilson Professorship in Law was established in 1929 with funds contributed for the John P. Wilson Memorial Foundation by John P. Wilson, Jr., and Anna Wilson Dickinson as a memorial to their father, John P. Wilson, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar. The present holder of this professorship is Roscoe T. Steffen.

The James Parker Hall Professorship in Law was established in 1930 by the alumni of the School in memory of James Parker Hall, Dean of the School from 1904 until his death in 1928. The present holder of this professorship is Wilber G. Katz.

The Max Pam Professorship in Comparative Law was established in 1935 in memory of Max Pam, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar, with funds allocated by the Trustees under the will of Mr. Pam. The present holder of this professorship is Max Rheinstein.

Under the will of Leo Spitz, J.D. 1910, provision is made for the establishment of The Caroline and Henry Spitz Professorship, in honor of Mr. Spitz’s parents. This is a professorship in world organization, law, and government and related problems, including the protection of human rights and the peaceful settlement of international legal and political disputes.

Under the will of Harry A. Bigelow, the University is to receive, upon the death of certain life-beneficiaries, the remainder of a trust fund for the establishment of The Harry A. Bigelow Professorship in Law. Mr. Bigelow was Dean of the Law School from 1929 to 1939, and a member of the Faculty of the Law School from 1904 until his death in 1950.

The Harry A. Bigelow Teaching Fellowships were established in 1947 in honor of Harry A. Bigelow. The fellowships are awarded to law graduates of high standing.

IX. Graduate Fellowships and Research and Special Funds

The Law School has available a number of fellowships for graduate students. These include:

The James Nelson Raymond Fellowship, which was created in 1933 and 1934 by Anna Louise Raymond.

The Law Fellowships, which are supported by gifts of Law alumni to the Law School.

University Fellowships, a limited number of which are reserved for research students in law.

A limited number of special fellowships are available to students in the Foreign Law Program. The amount of these fellowships is $7,500 each, payable over the 21-month period of the Program.

Fellowships for a year of study at the University of Chicago Law School are available to a limited number of students from the British Commonwealth who are graduates in law or in jurisprudence of universities of the British Commonwealth.

A limited number of fellowships are available to graduates of European law schools who desire to pursue a program of graduate study in the Comparative Law Program.

Application for fellowships in connection with graduate work leading to a graduate degree should be made to the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

Special Research Fellowships are available in connection with the various research programs of the School made possible through special grants and through gifts of Law alumni to the Law School Fund. The Law and Behavioral Science Research Fellowships are available as a result of a grant from the Ford Foundation; preference for these fellowships is given to teachers of law or of the social sciences. Law-Economics Fellowships are available for graduate lawyers or economists who desire to pursue a program of study and research in the law-economics area. Application for these fellowships should be made to the Dean of the Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

The Frieda and Arnold Shure Research Fund was established in 1945 by Frieda and Arnold Shure for the publication of legal studies of immediate importance for the public welfare.

The Arnold M. Chutkow Memorial Fund was established in 1958 as a memorial to Arnold M. Chutkow, J.D., 1951, through a gift from Samuel Chutkow, 1920, and the friends and classmates of Arnold Chutkow. The income of the Arnold M. Chutkow Memorial Fund is allocated by the Dean of the Law School toward the expenses of student contestants in moot court competitions and for the benefit of the University of Chicago Law Review.

The Leonard M. Rieser Fund was established in 1959 by the family and friends of Leonard M. Rieser, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar, and a former Lecturer in Law at the Law School, as a memorial to him to be used in a manner consistent with his wide and varied interests in law.

X. Program of Research in Law and the Behavioral Sciences

A program of research in law and the behavioral sciences has been made possible through a grant from the Ford Foundation. Four projects are now being conducted: (1) The nature and operation of the jury system. (2) The characteristics and performance of arbitration as a sublegal system. (3) A study of court congestion and judicial administration. (4) A study of intestate inheritance. As a result of this program, the study Delay in the Court by Zeisel, Kalven, and Buchholz (Little, Brown & Co.) was published in July, 1959.

XI. The Comparative Law Research Center

The Comparative Law Research Center was established in 1949 to promote research in the field of international legal relations. The Center provides opportunities for qualified students from the United States and abroad to obtain training in the techniques appropriate to this field. The Center serves also as a clearing house of information for foreign research and teaching institutions and provides advice to scholars and students abroad who are engaged in international studies touching upon American law. Professor Max Rheinstein, Max Pam Professor of Comparative Law, is Director of the Center.

XII. The Law Revision Program

The Law Revision Program is under the direction of a faculty committee of which Professor Allison Dunham is Chairman. The Program includes studies and drafting on topics selected by the faculty committee from suggestions received from the Council of State Governments, the Conference of Attorneys General, the Conference of Chief Justices, the Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, and committees of bar associations.

XIII. The Law-Economics Program

The Law-Economics Program is under the general direction of a faculty committee of which Professor Aaron Director is Chairman. A special program of conferences and seminars on the interrelationship between law, ethics, and business practices has been made possible through a grant to the Law School from the New World Foundation. Annual publication of The Journal of Law and Economics, under the editorship of Professor Aaron Director, was begun in the autumn of 1958.

XIV. The Supreme Court Review

Annual publication of The Supreme Court Review, dedicated exclusively to responsible professional criticism of the work of the United States Supreme Court, will commence in 1960. The Supreme Court Review is under the editorship of Professor Philip B. Kurland.

XV. Student Scholarships and Loans

The Law School awards a limited number of full-tuition National Honor Scholarships to outstanding students designated by selected colleges. In addition, a number of scholarships are available each year for law students of outstanding ability who need financial assistance. Some of these scholarships are for full tuition, some for half-tuition, and some for amounts in excess of the tuition charge. In the case of veterans, scholarship awards may be made as cash grants to supplement government living allowances. A substantial proportion of Law School scholarship aid is reserved for entering students.

The Henry C. Murphy Scholarship Endowment provides aid for worthy boys to secure an education, preference to be shown to those who plan to adopt journalism as their profession.

The La Verne Noyes Foundation Scholarships (for veterans of World War I and their descendants) are awarded on the basis of service in the armed forces of the United States in World War I.

In addition to the general University Scholarships, the Law School has available the following:

The James Nelson Raymond Scholarship, established in 1930 from a fund given by Anna Louise Raymond in memory of her husband, James Nelson Raymond.

Two Francis Kosmerl Fellowships, each in the amount of $1,000, were established in 1948 by a bequest under the will of Francis Kosmerl, J.D. 1918.

The Class of 1915 Scholarship, a full-tuition scholarship endowed by the Class of 1915, is awarded annually, upon vote of the Law Faculty, to an outstanding student in the Junior Class of the Law School.

The Edwin B. Mayer Scholarship provides tuition aid to a student in the Law School.

The Leo F. Wormser Scholarships were established in 1935 by friends of Leo F. Wormser, J.D. 1909, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago bar, as a memorial to him. In 1940 a gift to this fund was made by Mrs. Leo F. Wormser in memory of Mr. Wormser's mother, Mrs. Frida Wormser; and from time to time additional gifts have also been made to this scholarship fund by the family and friends of Leo F. Wormser. In 1956 the Leo F. Wormser Memorial Fund was augmented by a bequest from the estate of Mrs. Leo F. Wormser.

The James B. Blake Scholarship Fund was established in 1951 as a memorial to James B. Blake, J.D. 1907, by his friends.

The Mary Beecher Scholarship is awarded to an outstanding graduate of a women's college in the entering class of the Law School.

The Phi Sigma Delta Scholarship, established by the members of Phi Sigma Delta fraternity, will provide a full-tuition scholarship for an outstanding law student during the academic year 1960-61.
Chicago Title and Trust Company Foundation Scholarships, awarded to outstanding students, have been made possible through gifts to the Law School by the Chicago Title and Trust Company Foundation.

The Arnold I. Shure Scholarship, to be awarded by the Law Faculty to a deserving law student for the academic year 1960-61, was made possible through a gift to the Law School by Frieda Shure in honor of Arnold I. Shure, a graduate of the Law School in 1929.

The Floyd Russell Mechem Law Scholarships, limited to not more than four, to be awarded annually to an entering law student and renewable for the second- and third-year of Law School work, were established in 1959, to be supported by annual law alumni and other gifts, as a memorial to Professor Floyd R. Mechem, for many years a member of the Law Faculty. Each of the Floyd Russell Mechem Law Scholarships provides a stipend of $2,000.

The Class of 1959 Scholarship was established in 1959 through contributions of that class to support the annual award of a scholarship.

Application for scholarships should be made upon a form obtained from the office of the Dean of Students of the Law School. An exception to this procedure is made in the case of the award of a National Honor Scholarship. This award is granted upon the recommendation of a participating college, and application for it should be made to that college.

In addition to scholarship aid, the Law School has available several specially endowed loan funds, as well as general University loan funds.

The special loan funds available exclusively or preferentially to students of the Law School include:

The Harry A. Bigelow Loan Fund was established in 1929 by the Law Class of 1929 in honor of the late Dean Bigelow.

The Law School Student Loan Fund is available to students in the Law School.

The Bernhardt Frank Loan Fund was established in 1952 by Louis H. Silver, J.D. 1928, in honor of his brother-in-law, who was for many years a member of the Chicago Bar and an outstanding appellate lawyer.

The Ernst Freund Loan Fund was established in 1922 by the late Professor Ernst Freund and since his death has been augmented by other contributions.

The Raphael and Rose Golde Loan Fund was established in 1955 by provision of the will of the late Joseph A. Golde, J.D. 1915, in memory of his parents.

The James Parker Hall Loan Fund was established by the alumni of the Law School in memory of the late Dean Hall.

The Floyd R. Mechem Loan Fund for Law Students was established in 1921 by the late Professor Floyd R. Mechem.

The Harvey Puchowitz Loan Fund was established in 1955 by friends of Harvey Puchowitz in his memory.

The Ernst W. Puttkammer Loan Fund was established in 1956 by students in the Class of 1958.

The Anna Louise Raymond Loan Fund was established in 1932 for the benefit of students in the Law School, preference to be given to women.

The Julius Rosenthal Fund was established in 1903 in memory of Julius Rosenthal by the late Judge Julian W. Mack, formerly a professor in the School.

The Frederick and Edith Shaffer Sass Loan Fund was established by Frederick Sass, Jr., Ph.B. 1930, J.D. 1932, and Louis Sass, S.B. 1932, in memory of their parents. Preference is given to students in the Law School.
The Ben and May Shapiro Loan Fund, established by Robert B. Shapiro, J.D. 1935, in memory of his parents, is available to students, preferably in the Law School, who are dependent in whole or in part upon their own efforts to secure an education.

The Clark B. Whittier Law Loan Fund was established by Professor Clark B. Whittier, a former member of the Law Faculty.

An application form for a loan may be obtained from the Office of the Dean of Students of the Law School.

XVI. Conferences, Meetings, and Lectures

The Law School recognizes its responsibility as a law center to contribute to the development of law through research and co-operation with the profession. It recognizes also the importance of such activities as broadening influences in the education of law students. Special student seminars with members of the Bench and Bar and public conferences on major problems of the law are an integral part of the program of the School.

During the Autumn Quarter, 1959, the Dedicatory Address was given on the evening of October 5 by the Vice-President of the United States, The Honorable Richard M. Nixon. On October 6, Lloyd K. Garrison, Esq., of the New York Bar gave the annual address to entering students on “The Practice of Law.” On October 8 a conference was held on “The Public Servant.” The speakers included William E. Stevenson, Esq., President of Oberlin College; John M. Gaus, Professor of Government, Harvard University; Sir Percival Waterfield, K.B.E., First Civil Service Commissioner of the United Kingdom, 1939-51; Oscar Schachter, Esq., Director of the Legal Division, the United Nations; Harrison Tweed, Esq., President of the American Law Institute and Acting President of Sarah Lawrence College; Brigadier General Charles L. Decker, Assistant Judge Advocate General of the Army; and The Honorable Stanley Reed, retired Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. On November 18 a conference was held on “Power and Responsibility.” Speakers included Robert M. Hutchins, Esq., President, Fund for the Republic; Armen A. Alchian, Professor of Economics, University of California at Los Angeles; Peter H. Odegard, Professor of Political Science, University of California, Berkeley; James R. Wiggins, Executive Editor, Washington Post and Times-Herald, and President, American Society of Newspaper Editors; Wilber G. Katz, James Parker Hall Professor of Law, The University of Chicago, and Paul R. Hays, Nash Professor of Law, School of Law, Columbia University.

During the Winter Quarter, 1960, a conference was held on “Criminal Justice.” Speakers included Frank J. Remington, Professor of Law, University of Wisconsin; Herman Goldstein, Staff Member, Public Administration Service; The Honorable Charles D. Breitel, Justice of the New York Supreme Court, Appellate Division, First Department; Lloyd E. Ohlin, Professor of Sociology, New York School of Social Work, Columbia University; Bruno Bettelheim, Principal, Sonia Shankman Orthogenic School; and The Honorable Sir Patrick Devlin, Lord Justice of the Court of Appeal. On February 8, 1960, a public lecture was given by Professor J. N. D. Anderson, Director of the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies at the University of London.

In the Spring Quarter a public lecture was given by Professor H. R. Hahlo, Dean of the Faculty of Law of the Witwatersrand University in Johannesburg, Union of South Africa. From April 29 through May 1 the final dedicatory celebration, culminating in a special convocation, was held. On the morning of April 29 the Illinois Supreme Court met in official session in the Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom. On the afternoon of April 29 Professors Roger C. Cramton, Brainerd Currie, and Philip B. Kurland of the University of Chicago Law School conducted a discussion on “Recent Cases in the United States Supreme Court.” On the evening of April 29 the final argument in the Hinton Competition was held before a court consisting of The Honorable Charles E. Clark, Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit; The Honorable John Hastings, Chief Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit; and The Honorable Roger J. Traynor, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of California. On the morning of April 30 Professors Allison Dunham, Harry Kalven, Jr., and Soia Mentschikoff of the University of Chicago Law School delivered papers on “Aspects of the Law and Behavioral Science Research Projects.” On the afternoon of April 30 Karl N. Llewellyn, Professor of Law, the University of Chicago Law School, spoke on “The Study of Law as a Liberal Art.” Professor Llewellyn was introduced by Professor Frank R. Strong, Dean of the College of Law, Ohio State University, and President of the Association of American Law Schools. Professors Walter J. Blum and Francis A. Allen of the University of Chicago Law School; Louis Gottschalk, Gustavus F. and Ann M. Swift Distinguished Service Professor of History, the University of Chicago; Richard P. McKeon, Charles F. Grey Distinguished Service Professor of Philosophy and of Classical Languages and Literatures, the University of Chicago; C. Herman Pritchett, Professor and Chairman of the Department of Political Science, the University of Chicago; and Theodore W. Schultz, Charles L. Hutchinson Distinguished Service Professor and Chairman of the Department of Economics, the University of Chicago, took part in a round-table discussion on “The Role of Law in the Achievement of National Goals.” This was followed by a reception for, and informal discussion with, The Honorable Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the United States. On the evening of April 30 an address was delivered by The Right Honorable Viscount Kilmuir of Creich, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain. The Lord Chancellor was introduced by Glen A. Lloyd, Esq., Chairman of the Board of Trustees, the University of Chicago. On the afternoon of May 1 a special convocation was held in Rockefeller Memorial Chapel. John D. Randall, Esq., President of the American Bar Association, brought greetings from the Organized Bar. The convocation speaker was The Honorable Nelson A. Rockefeller, Governor of the State of New York. Honorary degrees were conferred upon The Honorable Charles E. Clark, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit; The Honorable Herbert F. Goodrich, Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit; The Honorable Walter V. Schaef er, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois; The Honorable Roger J. Traynor, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of California; The Honorable Dag Hammarskjöld, Secretary-General of the United Nations; The Right Honorable Viscount Kilmuir of Creich, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain; and The Honorable Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the United States. On the evening of May 1 an address was delivered by The Honorable Dag Hammarskjöld, who was introduced by Andrew J. Dallstream, Esq., President of the University of Chicago Law School Alumni Association.

The Ernst Freund Lectureship was established in 1953 in honor of a distinguished member of the Law Faculty from 1902 to 1932. Holders of the lectureship have been The Honorable Felix Frankfurter, Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States; The Honorable Walter V. Schaef er, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois; and The Honorable Charles E. Wyzanski, Jr., Judge of the United States District Court for Massachusetts. During the academic year 1959–60 the Freund Lecture was given by The Right Honorable Lord Denning of Whitchurch, Lord of Appeal in Ordinary, on the subject "The Judiciary in Modern Democracy." For the academic year 1960–61 the Freund Lecture will be given by The Right Honorable Lord Parker of Waddington, The Lord Chief Justice of England.

The Henry C. Simons Memorial Lectureship was established in 1955 as a biennial lectureship in the field of law and economics, in honor of Henry C. Simons, for many years a distinguished member of the Faculty of the Law School and of the Department of Economics. The first Simons Lecture was given in February, 1958, by George Stigler, then Professor of Economics, Columbia University, on "The Goals of Economic Policy." The second Simons Lecture was given by Jacob Viner, Professor of Economics, Princeton University, on November 18, 1959, on "The Intellectual History of Laissez-Faire."

The C. R. Musser Lectureship, an endowed lectureship in honor of a distinguished citizen, was established by the University in 1955 out of funds previously given to the Law School by the General Service Foundation. The lectureship is awarded for a public lecture on some phase of the problems of government, to be given by an experienced citizen who has held public office.

The Federal Tax Conference is an annual three-day conference sponsored by the Law School and participated in by tax specialists from all over the United States. The conference is planned in cooperation with members of the tax bar in Chicago. Professor Walter Blum is in charge of the Law School's sponsorship of the conference. During the academic year 1959–60 the Tax Conference was held October 28–30. The Federal Tax Conference for the academic year 1960–61 will be held October 26–28.

XVII. Student Activities and Honors

The University of Chicago Law Review, founded in 1933, is published by the School under the management of a Board of Editors composed of students. Students ranking highest in scholarship upon completion of their first year are invited to become competitors for election to the staff of the Review. From this group the editorial staff and the Board of Editors are chosen. For the year 1959–60, the Editor-in-Chief was Howard B. Miller. The Managing Editors were Neil Adelman, Mattaniah Eytan, and Monroe G. McKay. The Associate Editors were Roger H. Bernhardt, James Hautzinger, Joseph H. Kaplan, Edward O'Dell, Jr., and Arthur H. Smith. The following students also served for a portion of the year in the following capacities: Joseph L. Sax, Co-Editor-in-Chief; David Floyd and Robert D. Hamilton, Managing Editors; Stephen Waite, Associate Editor. The Editor-in-Chief for 1960–61 is Erwin A. Tomaschoff. Managing Editors are Donald Egan, Richard Harter, James Hautzinger, and C. Keith Rooker. The Associate Editors are Richard Broude, John Cannon, Mary Ann Glendon, Thomas Jersild, Earl Johnson, Donald Mackay, Allen Turner, Donald Wessling, Michael Zavis, and Donald Zinn.

The Moot Court Committee conducts the Hinton Competition, a two-year round-robin moot court program open to all students after their first year who wish to advance their technique in the art of brief writing and oral argument. Prizes are awarded to winners of the competition; the team that represents the Law School in national competition is selected from among the most successful competitors in the second year. Chairman of the Committee during the academic year 1959–60 was John A. Spanogle, Jr. The Committee made the following awards for achievement in the 1959–60 competition: Jack Lani Bader, Roger Bernhardt, and Luther Harthun, competition winners; Robert Bills and Gene Brandzel, best brief; Fred Grant, best oral argument. The Law School's team in the 1959–60 national competition was composed of Stuart Applebaum, Robert Rachlin, and Harvey Stephens. The 1960–61 national moot court team is composed of Fred Grant, Robert Bills, and James Faulstich. The Co-Chairmen of the Committee for 1960–61 are Donald Janis and Edward Thomson.

The Edwin F. Mandel Legal Aid Clinic, made possible through a gift from Mr. Edwin F. Mandel, was established in 1957 to provide needed legal services for indigent persons and for the training of Law School students in the handling of cases under supervision. Henry J. Kaganiec is Director of the Edwin F. Mandel Legal Aid Clinic. The faculty committee on the clinic is composed of Nicholas Katzenbach, Chairman, Francis Allen, Stanley Kaplan, and Malcolm Sharp. The 1959–60 officers were H. Collyer Church, President; David James, First Vice-President; Keith Williams, Second Vice-President; and Philip Bransky, Secretary-Treasurer. The officers for 1960–61 are Jerry Pruzansky, President; George Blake, First Vice-President; Donald Dowling, Second Vice-President; and Thomas D. Schwartz, Secretary-Treasurer.

The University of Chicago Law School Student Association is composed of the entire student body and is affiliated with the American Law Student Association, a national organization sponsored by the Junior Bar Conference and the American Bar Association. The Student Association sponsors various legal and social functions throughout the year. The 1959–60 officers were Jerome Dixon, Chairman; Richard Newhouse, Vice-President; James Malkus, Secretary; and David Babb, Treasurer. The President of the Senior Class for 1960–61 and Chairman of the Council of the Association is Richard Newhouse.

The Chicago Chapter of the Order of the Coif is an honor society founded to encourage and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Its members are elected each spring from the 10 per cent of the graduating class who rank highest in scholarship. In 1959–60 the elected members were Neil Adelman, David M. Becker, Roger H. Bernhardt, David K. Floyd, Monroe G. McKay, Robert Lusher, Howard B. Miller, Joseph L. Sax, Jan M. Schlesinger, and Stephen Waite.

The Joseph Henry Beale Prize, named in honor of the first Dean of the Law School, is awarded to the first-year student whose work in the first-year tutorial program is judged by the Faculty to be most worthy of special recognition. The prize for 1959–60 was awarded to Norman Viera, with honorable mention to Richard Harris.

The Walter Wheeler Cook Prize, named in honor of a distinguished member of the Law Faculty from 1910 to 1916, is awarded to the student whose work in the second-year tutorial program is judged by the Faculty to be most worthy of special recognition. The prize for 1959–60 was awarded to Donald Wessling.

The Institute for International Order offers two prizes for winning essays on subjects designated annually.

The Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company and the Bancroft-Whitney Company, joint publishers of American Jurisprudence, annually make available the relevant separately bound subjects from American Jurisprudence as an award to the highest ranking students in various course areas.

The Lawyers Title Award, sponsored by the Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation, Richmond, Virginia, is awarded annually to a student for excellence in work in the field of real estate. The award was given in 1959–60 to Neil Adelman.

The Edwin F. Mandel Award is made annually to that member of the graduating class who, during his Law School career, has contributed the most to the Legal Aid program, both in the quality of the work done and the conscientious exercise of legal aid responsibilities. The award for 1959–60 was made to Harold Collyer Church, Jr., and Diana J. Eagon.

The Nathan Burkan Memorial Competition Prizes, sponsored by the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers, are available annually to two students whose papers in the field of copyright law are deemed by the Faculty to be worthy of the prizes.

The "Wall Street Journal" Award is given annually to a student for excellence in work in the field of corporation law. The award for 1959–60 was given to Gerald Brown.

XVIII. Placement

The Law School maintains a placement office to help students find suitable employment after their graduation. In collaboration with the Law School Alumni Association, special placement groups in large cities, and the University's general placement office, it secures information about openings in law offices, corporations, and government offices throughout the country and furnishes information about University of Chicago Law School graduates. The Placement Office also assists in arrangements for teaching positions; through the Comparative Law Center, efforts are made to place properly qualified students in research centers and other institutions abroad and to help foreign students to find opportunities for study and research in American law.

Early in their third year, students submit placement data indicating their plans and preferences after graduation. It is important that these records, which facilitate appropriate recommendations, be filled out accurately and kept up to date. Accordingly students whose plans or preferences change during the third year are asked to indicate such changes to the Placement Office. In the event that a student enters the armed forces following his graduation, the facilities of the Placement Office are available to him upon his return to civilian status. All third-year students have a personal interview with Dean Ratcliffe, who is Director of Placement. Other members of the faculty are also available for consultation and advice.

XIX. Buildings and Library

The Law Quadrangle, on the south side of the Midway Plaisance, contains four connected buildings: the Auditorium-Courtroom Building; the Classroom-Seminar Building; the Library-Office Building; the Administration Building. The buildings, designed by Eero Saarinen, use twentieth-century materials, techniques, and design concepts. The architect has related the new buildings in the quadrangle to the Burton-Judson Residence Halls and to the American Bar Center. An open court, with a reflecting pool, is at the center of the group of buildings.

The Auditorium-Courtroom Building is situated in such a way that it is directly accessible to the public. It contains an auditorium seating 475 and the Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom, which seats 175. The Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom is a completely equipped courtroom, which provides facilities for the moot court program of the School and for official cases. Rooms on two floors on both sides of the Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom are provided for judges, court officials, and lawyers. On April 28, 1960, the Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom was dedicated in ceremonies attended by Justices of the Supreme Court of Illinois, and in which Chancellor Lawrence A. Kimpton, the Honorable U. S. Schwartz, Justice of the Illinois Appellate Court, and Thomas E. Sunderland, Esq., participated. On April 29, 1960, the Supreme Court of Illinois met in official session and heard argument in two of its cases.
The Classroom-Seminar Building lies between the Auditorium-Courtroom and the Library-Office Building. There are five seminar-conference rooms, accommodating 18 to 43 students, and four classrooms varying in capacity from 85 to 175. A large area for student lockers and lounges is located on the lower floor. The Edwin F. Mandel Legal Aid Clinic is also located in the Classroom-Seminar Building with direct access to University Avenue on the east. The Building includes a wide arcade-like corridor—the James Parker Hall Concourse—that runs along the open court side of the structure and connects with the Auditorium-Courtroom Building.

The Library-Office Building includes a lounge and exhibition and conference area on the first floor. On the second floor is the John P. Wilson Reading Room, together with the Library administrative offices, the Louis H. Silver Room for Special Collections, and two conference and reception rooms. A balcony overlooking the Reading Room is occupied by stacks and study areas, the Ernst W. Puttkammer Suite for the University of Chicago Law Review, and special rooms. Each of the next three floors contains a central core of stacks surrounded by a ring of faculty and research offices. Each floor contains a student study-room, a special-collection room, an office for a student organization, and carrels. The Library-Office Building is air conditioned.

The Administration Building contains a suite of offices for the administrative activities of the School and the Harry N. Gottlieb Faculty Conference Room. The Building also includes a public corridor connecting the Law Buildings with the Burton-Judson Courts, which make available student housing facilities, lounges, dining halls, and private dining rooms.

The Law Library collection covers substantially all fields and systems of law. The Anglo-American Law section contains an almost complete collection of the statutes, session laws, and reported decisions of the courts of each jurisdiction, together with digests, encyclopedias, loose-leaf services, periodicals, and the principal treatises. It includes also an extensive collection of the original briefs and records of cases in the Supreme Court of the United States and a representative collection of the reports and opinions of the federal and state administrative agencies and of the proceedings of the various bar associations. The International and Foreign Law section contains basic source and secondary materials relating to early legal systems and the law of continental European countries, including the latest codes, laws, decisions, and current periodicals. There are also special sections on legal history, including biography, jurisprudence, comparative law, canon law, and international law. Materials on the laws of the oriental countries, ancient and modern, can be found on the Quadrangles in the library of the Oriental Institute. Law students have ready access to the other libraries of the University, to the library of the nearby Public Administrative Service, and to the library of the American Bar Center.

The Law Library has four special funds at its disposal to supplement general library appropriations. These are the James Nelson Raymond Memorial Fund, established in 1929 by Anna L. Raymond as a memorial to her husband, James Nelson Raymond, an eminent businessman of Chicago; the Wallace Heckman Memorial Fund, established in 1929 by Mrs. Wallace Heckman as a memorial to her husband, Wallace Heckman, business manager of the University from 1903 to 1924; the William B. Hale Fund, established in 1944 by the family of Mr. Hale for the collection of materials for research and study in the field of monopoly; and a special Law Library endowment fund that has been established for the Law School under the guidance and with the help of Arnold I. Shure.
XX. Linn House, the Law School Residence

Linn House is the Law School Men's Residence, located in the Burton-Judson Courts and connected with the new Law School buildings. There are common-room and lounge facilities as well as living quarters for law students. The lounges in Burton-Judson Courts also provide a meeting place for law students and a center for extra-curricular activities of the Law School.

The John B. Phillips Memorial Library, established by the classmates of John B. Phillips, J.D. 1941, who was killed in action at Tarawa, is housed in the Law Lounge in Burton-Judson Courts as an open-shelf collection of general cultural books pertaining to the law.

Applications for residence in Linn House or inquiries concerning other housing accommodations should be addressed to the Student Housing Office, The University of Chicago, 5801 Ellis Avenue, Chicago 37. Arrangements may be made by law students not rooming in the Hall to take regularly lunch or dinner, or both, in the Burton-Judson Courts dining-room. Unless special arrangements are made, the assignment of rooms is for a period of three academic quarters.

XXI. International House

International House, with accommodations for over five hundred residents (men and women), is a gift of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and is designed primarily to provide living quarters for qualified students from abroad and for American students. Full-time graduate students and upperclass undergraduate students registered in the University of Chicago and in other colleges and universities in the Chicago area are eligible for residence at International House. Accommodations are available also on a quarterly, short-term, or transient basis to visiting foreign faculty members, scholars, research associates, and Fellows.

International House offers a varied program of cultural and social activities planned to give opportunities for the students to acquire knowledge of each other's customs and culture. Informal discussion groups interpret the historical, political, and sociological aspects of various countries. Social events include dances, concerts, receptions, and programs presenting activities of a national character. Opportunities are provided for foreign and American students to work together in many types of student enterprises. A broad program of community hospitality allows foreign students to meet American families and to visit American homes. Tours are arranged quarterly to Chicago's outstanding industries and historical centers.

The office of the Adviser to Foreign Visitors is located in International House. Foreign students are welcome at any time to consult with the Adviser on immigration matters, on personal problems, and on problems of adjustment to conditions in a new land. Individual consideration is given to each student upon arrival, and efforts are made to relate him or her quickly and in a friendly way to the new environment.

Quarterly rates for rooms in International House are as follows: for double rooms equipped with individual beds, $80.00 to $100.00 per person; for single rooms, $90.00 to $122.50. Short-term rates (applicable for a minimum of three weeks' residence) are from $10.35 to $17.70 per week, depending upon the length of stay and type of room. The daily rate is $3.00 per person for the first seven days and $2.00 per day thereafter. All rooms are furnished except for towels, which may be rented for an additional $2.50 per quarter. Moderately priced meals are served in the cafeteria, which is open to all university students and faculty members.
All inquiries should be addressed to the Office of Admissions, International House, 1414 East Fifty-ninth Street, Chicago 37, Illinois.

XXII. The Chapel

WILLIAM BARNETT BLAKEMORE, D.B., PH.D., Associate Dean.
RICHARD E. VIKSTROM, A.M., Director of Chapel Music.
EDWARD MONDELLO, A.B., University Organist.

Sunday morning services of worship are held throughout the academic year in the Rockefeller Memorial Chapel. Students and faculty members participate in the service. Guest preachers include members of the University Theological Faculty and outstanding churchmen from all parts of the nation and abroad. Special services are scheduled for the major seasons of the Church Year: Advent, Christmas, Lent, Holy Week, and Pentecost. The sacrament of Holy Communion is celebrated each quarter. The Chapel is open daily for private meditation and prayer.

Membership in the University Choir is open to all qualified students. The Choir sings at the Sunday services and, accompanied by members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, gives four or five major concerts each year. These include such works as Handel's The Messiah and Bach's St. Matthew Passion and Mass in B Minor as well as modern works of sacred music. Frequent organ concerts are given by the University Organist and by distinguished guest organists. Carillon concerts are played each Sunday and Wednesday by the Chapel Carillonneur.

The University Chapel is the center of a wide variety of student groups organized for religious fellowship and activities within the University and for social service in the city. These groups plan their own programs with the advice of counselors or of student pastors chosen by the authorities of their respective churches. The Episcopal, Jewish, and Roman Catholic groups have for their activities houses of their own near the Quadrangles. Several Protestant groups provide programs at their churches in the immediate neighborhood of the University. A number of other Protestant groups co-operate with the University in maintaining Chapel House, adjacent to the Chapel at 5810 Woodlawn Avenue, for their joint activities. Information may be secured, and appointments with the officers or counselors of the several groups may be made, through the Chapel office.

XXIII. Physical Education

The University has an extensive athletic plant and encourages the broadest participation of its students in the Physical Education program.

The Frank Dickinson Bartlett Gymnasium contains basketball, badminton, and volleyball courts, space for gymnastics, wrestling, fencing, squash, weight lifting, and handball, and a swimming pool. The Field House provides facilities for practice and enjoyment of a variety of athletic sports under favorable conditions in cold months and in bad weather. It contains a removable basketball floor, a track, a baseball diamond and batting cage, five tennis courts, a golf-driving range, and a football practice field. The University also maintains outdoor tennis courts, two large playing fields, baseball diamonds, golf greens, a one-quarter-mile cinder track, and an ice-skating and hockey rink.

Ida Noyes Hall provides equipment for the program of athletics for women. The building contains a gymnasium, dance room, games room, swimming pool, golf cages, bowling alleys, billiard room, and shower and dressing quarters. To the south of Ida
Noyes Hall is the Midway Plaisance, where the Chicago Park District provides three hockey fields.

XXIV. The Student Health Service

STAFF

Henrietta Herboldsheimer, S.B., M.P.H., M.D., Director of the Student Health Service and Associate Professor of Medicine.

Eugene I. Scherba, M.D., Chief of the Student Health Service General Medical Unit, Assistant Director of the Student Health Service, and Assistant Professor of Medicine.

John Kramer, M.D., Chief of the Student Health Service Mental Hygiene Clinic, Assistant Director of the Student Health Service, and Associate Professor of Psychiatry.

J. Allen Marshall, M.D., Assistant Chief of the Student Health Service General Medical Unit and Assistant in Medicine.

Morton Millman, M.D., Assistant Chief of the Student Health Service Mental Hygiene Clinic and Instructor in Psychiatry.

Miriam Elson, A.M., Chief Psychiatric Social Worker in the Student Health Service Mental Hygiene Clinic and Psychiatric Social Worker in the Department of Psychiatry.

Olga Gilloegly, S.B., M.D., Physician in the Student Health Service and Assistant in Medicine.

Alice Ichikawa, A.M., Psychiatric Social Worker in the Student Health Service and in the Department of Psychiatry.

Susanne E. Larsh, A.B., M.D., Physician in the Student Health Service and Assistant in Medicine.

Morton Lieberman, Ph.D., Psychologist in the Student Health Service and Instructor in Psychology.

Nandor Szent-Gyorgyi, M.D., Physician in the Student Health Service and Assistant Professor of Medicine.

The Student Health Center is a part of the medical plant of the University, which is comprised of hospitals, clinics, and medical-research facilities. The complete facilities of the Health Service are available to students in the quarters when they are registered and for a week following any such quarter. Eligibility for service is further defined by payment of the quarterly registration and general service fee.

An entrance medical examination is part of the University registration procedure. Health Service coverage includes ambulatory care in the Student Health Service: costs of hospitalization are covered by the Health Service up to a limit of five days for any single illness, provided that the condition did not exist before admission to the University.

Since any illness can best be diagnosed in the clinic, emergency room, or hospital, the Health Service does not provide for house or room calls.

A new student must make arrangements for the entrance medical examination at the time he registers. Failure to make this arrangement or to keep an appointment already made for such examination entails added cost to the Health Service. To offset this cost, an extra service fee of $3.00 must be paid to the Health Service by the student.

For a more complete description of services available, the Student Handbook should be consulted.

XXV. Suggestions for Pre-legal Study

The Law School does not require that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects. A broad general education is thought more important for the student of law than specialized study in fields closely related to law.
Such a general education should include study of the social sciences, including economics, political science, and history; the humanities, especially philosophy and literature; and the elements of physical and biological sciences and mathematics. It is also of great importance that a law student should have acquired habits of precision, fluency, and economy in writing and speaking.

XXVI. Fees and Other Information

Application fee. An application fee of $5.00 must accompany the original application for admission to the University. No part of the fee is refundable nor is it applicable as an advance payment on other fees.

Tuition fee. The tuition fee in the Law School is $350 a quarter. A student is required to pay full tuition unless a reduced program of work and a reduction of fees are approved by the Dean.

Registration and general service fee (including Health Service). A fee of $30 a quarter.

Residence-hall fees. Room and board are available in Linn House at a cost of $879 for the nine-month academic year.

Deposit on admission. An applicant who is accepted for admission into the Law School is required to make a deposit of $35 within four weeks after notice of acceptance has been sent. This deposit will be applied on the tuition fee and will be refunded only in the event that illness or other sufficient cause prevents an applicant from entering the School at the beginning of the quarter for which he has been accepted.

The Louis H. Silver Special Collections Room in the Law Library houses an extensive collection of rare law books and manuscripts.

Robert Maynard Hutchins, President of the Fund for the Republic and former Chancellor of the University, with Professor Harry Kalven, Jr., just prior to Mr. Hutchins' address at the School's Conference on Power and Responsibility.
The Honorable Dag Hammarskjöld, Secretary-General of the United Nations (left), with Professor Nicholas deBelleville Katzenbach and Mrs. Katzenbach, at the dinner preceding Mr. Hammarskjöld's address during the Dedication Ceremonies.

A portion of those in attendance at the dedication of the Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom.
Viscount Kilmuir, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, speaks informally to law students in the Law Lounge.

Four members of the Faculty report, during the Dedication Ceremonies, on research projects currently in progress at the School. Left to right: Professor Harry Kalven, Jr.; Professor Allison Dunham; Wilber G. Katz, James Parker Hall Professor of Law; and Professor Soia Mentschikoff.
The Honorable Nelson Rockefeller, Governor of the State of New York, was the Convocation Speaker at the Special Convocation marking the dedication and occupancy of the new Law Buildings.

A panel discussion on "The Role of Law in the Achievement of National Goals" was held by (left to right) C. Herman Pritchett, Professor and Chairman of the Department of Political Science; Francis A. Allen, Professor of Law; Walter J. Blum, Professor of Law, Moderator; Louis Gottschalk, Gustavus F. and Ann M. Swift Distinguished Service Professor of History; Richard P. McKeon, Charles F. Grey Distinguished Service Professor of Philosophy and of Classical Languages and Literatures; and Theodore W. Schultz, Charles L. Hutchinson Distinguished Service Professor and Chairman of the Department of Economics.
Professor Karl Llewellyn makes a point in a discussion with Professor Malcolm Sharp; the two Faculty members had been invited by the students to debate issues of the law of contracts. This meeting was part of a regular weekly series in which judges, practitioners, and members of the Faculty meet informally in the Law Dormitory with students.

The late Grenville Beardsley, Attorney General of Illinois, and John D. Randall, President of the American Bar Association, entering the Law Quadrangle.
