I. Location, History, and Organization

The University of Chicago is located on the South Side of Chicago, eight miles from the center of the city. Its grounds lie on both sides of the Midway Plaisance between Washington and Jackson parks; its plant includes over a hundred buildings. The new Law School buildings occupy a square block on the Midway between Greenwood and University avenues. They are connected with the Burton-Judson Residence Halls and are opposite the American Bar Center.

The University of Chicago was incorporated in 1890, the product of the interest of the Baptist denomination in establishing a strong and well-equipped college at Chicago to serve the West. The University of Chicago includes: (1) The College. (2) The four Divisions—Biological Sciences, Humanities, Physical Sciences, Social Sciences. The Divisions of the Biological and the Physical Sciences constitute the Ogden School of Science. This School was established in 1891 under a gift made by the executors of the will of William B. Ogden, for sixteen years President of the Board of Trustees of the first University of Chicago and the first Mayor of Chicago. (3) The seven Professional Schools—Graduate School of Business, Divinity School, Graduate School of Education, Law School, Graduate Library School, School of Medicine, School of Social Service Administration. (4) University Extension, which includes the Downtown Center in Chicago’s Loop, the Center for Continuing Education, and other adult-education programs. (5) The libraries, laboratories, museums, clinics, and institutes. (6) The University Press.

A school of law and jurisprudence was contemplated in the original plan for the University of Chicago. The school, according to William Rainey Harper, the first president of the University, should be more than a training institution for admission to the bar. An education in law, President Harper said, “implies a scientific knowledge of law and of legal and juristic methods. These are the crystallization of ages of human progress. They cannot be understood in their entirety without a clear comprehension of the historic forces of which they are the product, and of the social environment with which they are in living contact. A scientific study of law involves the related sciences of history, economics, philosophy—the whole field of man as a social being.” Consequently, the Law School was not to be an institution that had a merely nominal connection with the University, and it was not to be separated either by location or by spirit from the University at large. It should be an organic part of the University, in close touch with the other divisions, embodying the spirit and purpose of university life and, in turn, contributing to that life.

In 1902 President Harper’s plan was approved by the Trustees, and the Law School was opened in October of that year. The goal of the School as stated in the first Announcements was “to afford adequate preparation for the practice of law as a profession in any jurisdiction in which the common law prevails, and to cultivate and encourage the scientific study of systematic and comparative jurisprudence, legal history, and principles of legislation.” The construction of the first law building was made possible through a gift from John D. Rockefeller; the cornerstone was laid on April 2, 1903, by President Theodore Roosevelt. The cornerstone ceremonies for the present Law School buildings were held on May 28, 1958. The Right Honorable Viscount Kilmuir of Creich, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and The Honorable Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the United States, participated in the ceremonies. The Law School began operations in its present buildings on October 5, 1959.
The University of Chicago Law School has been a member of the Association of American Law Schools since the School was founded in 1902. It has been on the approved list of the American Bar Association since the standards of that association were adopted in 1921.

II. General Statement

The undergraduate curriculum of the Law School is designed to provide the essential training required in preparation for the practice of law, and for scholarly work in law. Emphasis is placed on a knowledge of the history, principles, and purposes of legal institutions, the operation of these institutions in the modern world, and the development of skills of legal craftsmanship. The basic curriculum incorporates the traditional legal fields and disciplines essential to the work of the law. Where relevant and practicable, the data and theories of the social sciences are used to further the study of law. The usual, although not exclusive, form of instruction is the case method; emphasis is also placed on individual instruction through a legal writing and research program that is required of every student. Opportunity for specialization is provided in the second and third years of each student's program. The graduate program is planned to provide opportunity and guidance for research in law. A special graduate program exists for foreign students whose undergraduate law training has not been primarily in the field of the common law and who desire to do research in comparative law, and for graduates of American law schools who seek training in the civil law. The research work of the School is intended to further the knowledge of legal institutions, to enrich the instructional program of the School, and to contribute to the administration of justice.

III. Admission of Students

All applications for admission are subject to the approval of the faculty. The first-year class in the undergraduate (J.D.) program is limited to approximately 140 students.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE UNDERGRADUATE (J.D.) PROGRAM

Application for admission to the J.D. Program may be made by students who will have received a Bachelor's degree from an approved college prior to beginning their study in the Law School. It is not required that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects.

Students are selected principally upon the basis of their college records, the material furnished in their applications for admission, and the results shown on the Law School Admission Test. In special cases a personal interview with the applicant may be required. Preliminary questions concerning admission to the Law School and requests for copies of the application form should be addressed to the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. Completed applications, official transcripts of all college and university records, and letters of recommendation should be sent directly to the Law School.

Arrangements should be made by applicants to take the Law School Admission Test administered by the Educational Testing Service, 20 Nassau St., Princeton, New Jersey. The results of this test should be reported directly to the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. The Law School Admission Test will be given at selected locations throughout the country on November 9, 1963; February 8, 1964; April 18, 1964; and August 1, 1964.

Graduates of an approved law school whose studies have been primarily in the common law may apply for admission to the third year of the undergraduate school as candidates for the J.D. degree.

Graduates of an approved foreign law school whose studies have not been primarily in the common law may apply for admission as candidates for the J.D. degree in regular course. The requirements for this degree may be met in part for such students by the recognition of credits not to exceed 45 course hours (11 1/4 units), if performance in residence demonstrates the effective value of the student’s work in a foreign system.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE (LL.M.) (J.S.D.) PROGRAM

Application for admission to the graduate (LL.M.) (J.S.D.) program is limited to students who are the holders of a first degree in law from an approved law school, whose undergraduate work has been primarily in the common law, and who are qualified for advanced research in law. The degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) is awarded only to students who have been admitted to candidacy for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.).

Application for admission must be made upon a form obtained from the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. The completed form should be submitted directly to the Law School.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Graduates of an approved foreign law school whose studies have not been primarily in the common law may apply for admission to the program designed to give a one-year introduction to Anglo-American law. Upon completion of this program, such students will be given a certificate of attendance and a certificate for courses successfully completed.

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS TO THE GRADUATE (M.COMP.L.) (D.COMP.L.) COMPARATIVE LAW AND FOREIGN LAW PROGRAMS

Application for admission to the Graduate (M.Comp.L.) (D.Comp.L.) Comparative Law and Foreign Law programs is limited to the following students:

1. For the Graduate Comparative Law Program, those students who are graduates of an approved foreign law school, and whose previous training, though not in the common law, qualifies them to undertake advanced research in law.

2. For the Foreign Law Program, those students who will have received a first degree in law from an approved American law school prior to beginning their studies in the Foreign Law Program.

Application for admission to the Graduate Comparative Law and Foreign Law programs must be made upon a form obtained from the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

IV. Requirements for Degrees

THE UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM

The degree of Doctor of Law (J.D.) is awarded to students who (1) have been in residence for nine full quarters; (2) have shown by their standing in course examinations and by their individual investigations and reports a mastery of the fields for which they receive the requisite units of credit; (3) have shown an adequate mastery of English; and
(4) have successfully completed the work in the elective seminars or equivalent individual work approved by the faculty. A single course unit is the equivalent of four hours per week for one quarter. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units). Credit for 135 course hours (33 3/4 course units) and the maintenance of the required academic standing are needed for graduation. The degree of Doctor of Law, cum laude, is awarded to candidates who have satisfied the requirements with distinction. Graduates of an approved law school admitted as candidates for the J.D. degree must be in residence for three full quarters, have received credit for 44 course hours (11 course units), and have maintained the required academic standing.

THE GRADUATE PROGRAM

The degree of Master of Laws (LL.M.) is awarded to students who have completed with distinction the residence work required for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence and, after submission and approval of a detailed outline and partial draft of a dissertation, have been admitted to candidacy for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence.

The degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.S.D.) is awarded to students who have been in residence for three full consecutive quarters, have completed their studies with distinction, and, after admission to candidacy for the degree, have submitted a dissertation that is accepted by the faculty as a creditable contribution to legal science. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units). The rules relating to examinations, grading, and maintenance of academic standing are applicable to candidates for the LL.M. and J.S.D. degrees. The program is individually arranged with the student's faculty adviser and is expected to occupy the student's full time. The work may include any seminar or course open to undergraduates, with such supplementary work as may be required. It may consist of independent study or research as may be individually arranged. If the work in residence is completed with distinction, and a detailed outline and partial draft of the dissertation are submitted and approved, the student will be admitted as a candidate for the doctorate. Thereafter the candidate's dissertation must be submitted to the faculty for its approval within a reasonable period of time as set by the candidate's dissertation committee.

Students receiving the J.D. degree from this Law School and accepted as candidates for the J.S.D. degree may apply to the Committee on Graduate Studies for permission to satisfy up to two academic quarters of the residence requirement through off-campus activities approved in advance by the Committee. This application must be made prior to the award of the J.D. degree. Bigelow Teaching Fellows accepted as candidates for the J.S.D. degree may satisfy one academic quarter of the residence requirement during their three-quarter period as teaching fellows.

GRADUATE RULES

A more detailed set of rules and regulations relating to graduate study may be obtained on request from the Dean of Students.

THE CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

A certificate of attendance or a certificate for courses successfully completed will be given to graduates of foreign law schools who have been admitted to the Certificate Program, have been in residence for three full quarters, and have participated in the seminar in Problems of American Law for Foreign Students (572).
THE GRADUATE COMPARATIVE LAW PROGRAM

In the Graduate Comparative Law Program, the degree of Master of Comparative Law (M.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who have completed with distinction the residence work required for the degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.).

The degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who have been in residence for three full consecutive quarters, have completed their studies with distinction, and, after admission to candidacy for the degree, have submitted a dissertation that is accepted by the faculty as a creditable contribution to the literature of comparative law. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units). The rules relating to examinations, grading, and maintenance of academic standing are applicable to candidates for the M.Comp.L. and D.Comp.L. degrees, except that students whose native tongue is other than English may receive extra time on examinations with the consent of the instructor. The program is individually arranged with the student’s faculty adviser and is expected to occupy the student’s full time. At least half of the student’s work in residence must be devoted to some phases of Anglo-American law. If the work in residence is completed with distinction, and a detailed outline and partial draft of the dissertation are submitted and approved, the student will be admitted as a candidate for the doctorate. Thereafter the candidate’s dissertation must be submitted to the faculty for its approval within a reasonable period of time as set by the candidate’s dissertation committee.

THE FOREIGN LAW PROGRAM

In the Foreign Law Program, the degree of Master of Comparative Law (M.Comp.L.) is awarded to students who have successfully completed the two years of work as required in the curriculum of the program. The first year of work consists of three quarters of residence at the University of Chicago Law School, during which period a major portion of the student’s time will be spent in intensive and systematic study of the private law of France or Germany. The second year of work will be carried on, under guidance and supervision, in a foreign country. Upon the successful completion of the curriculum of the Foreign Law Program and the submission, within a reasonable period of time thereafter as set by the faculty, of a dissertation that is considered by the faculty to be a significant contribution, the candidate will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Comparative Law (D.Comp.L.).

V. Examinations, Grading, and Rules

Normally a written examination is required at the completion of each course. The work of each student is graded according to the following scale: A, 80 and above; B, 74-79; C, 68-73; D, 60-67; F, below 60. These grades are recorded as numerical grades in the Office of the Law School and as letter grades in the Office of the Registrar of the University. A minimum grade of 60 is required before credit may be received for the work involved. Maintenance of the required academic standing is a prerequisite to continuation in the School and to candidacy for a degree. To maintain the required academic standing, a student must receive a minimum weighted grade average of 68 for the work of each academic year. A student who receives a failing final grade during any given academic year must maintain a weighted grade average of at least 69 for that academic year. A student receiving two failing final grades in any one academic year, or three failing final grades during his period of residence at the School, will not have maintained the required academic standing. A student who completes his work for the degree of Doctor of Law with a weighted grade average of 78 or better will have satisfied the requirements for the degree with distinction.

Regular class attendance is required as a condition of receiving credit for work done. The privilege of membership in the School may be withdrawn for unsatisfactory classwork or attendance. After the first four weeks of any quarter, a student is not permitted to withdraw from a course, seminar, or special work for which he has registered that quarter, unless special authorization is given by the Dean. To qualify for residence for a full quarter, the student must take and complete 12 or more course hours (3 course units).

VI. Courses of Instruction

The program of each student is subject to the approval of the Dean. Normally all work for the first three quarters is required. A legal writing, research, and moot court program is also required of every student. Students are permitted to specialize in the second and third years. Members of the faculty may prescribe special qualifications for admission to particular courses or seminars.

Unless special permission is granted, the student must take all courses listed below for the first-year program. The numbers in parentheses at the end of each course description represent the value of the course in terms of course hours per quarter.

In order to achieve credit for 135 course hours in nine quarters, the student must take an average of 15 course hours (3.5 course units) per quarter. Unless special permission is granted, no student may take more than 17 course hours in any quarter.

FIRST-YEAR COURSES

301. Elements of the Law. A course designed to give beginning law students an understanding of the skills necessary in the professional use of case law and legislation. The principal subjects considered are: the sources and forms of American law, the analysis and synthesis of judicial precedents, the role of the advocate in the administration of justice, the interpretation of statutes, and the co-ordination of judge-made and statute law. Aut (3), Jones.

302. Contracts. Promises and consideration—the bargain; fairness, duress, mistake, supervening events, default as an excuse, damages; an introduction to multiple-party transactions. Aut (3), Win (3), Spr (2), Sharp, Treitel.

303. Criminal Law and Administration. General doctrines of criminal liability, crimes against persons and property, legislative problems of criminal-law revision; selected problems of procedure, administration, and constitutional rights. Aut (3), Win (3), Alien.

304. Civil Procedure. (1) Introduction to adjective law; division of business and function between state and federal courts; choice of forum; jurisdiction over persons and things; venue. (2) Pleading; parties; pretrial motions. (3) Deposition and discovery; pretrial hearings; trial motion practice; division of function between judge and jury; verdicts. Aut (4), Spr (4), Lucas, Kurland.

305. Property. Present and future interests in land and chattels; restrictions on the creation of future interests; conveyances inter vivos, including land contracts; adverse possession and statutes of limitation. Win (5), Spr (4), Dunham, Tefft.

306. Torts. Protection of personal integrity, including freedom from contact, defamation, etc.; compensation for personal injuries; protection against injuries to property interests; protection of consumers, purchasers, and investors; protection of business and other interests from willful invasion; theories of civil liability. Aut (3), Win (3), Kalven.

307. Agency. A study of that pervasive device by which one person (association, trust, or corporation) may employ others to do his work, construct his factory, acquire property, or sell and deliver goods, as if he were present and acting—with particular attention to the social basis for vicarious liability and the procedures for allocating risks. Spr (3), Currie.

1 An examination will be given at the end of the Winter Quarter.
2 An examination will be given at the end of the Autumn Quarter.
SECOND- AND THIRD-YEAR COURSES

The program for the second and third years is elective. Courses recommended, but not required, as second-year courses are marked with an asterisk.

400. Equity.* The origin and development of equitable remedies and their role under present conditions. Aut (4), Treitel.

401. Restitution. As an alternative remedy for tort; remedies in contracts induced by fraud or mistake, and in contracts unenforceable because of impossibility of performance, and statute of frauds, or plaintiff's breach; rescission for defendant's breach and duress. Spr (3), Kalven.

402. Redress of Certain Harms. A detailed study of injury to relational interests with special emphasis on defamation, disparagement, invasions on the right of privacy, and other dignitary torts, as well as tortious interference with contract rights. Spr (3), Trettel.

403. Trusts.* The creation and termination of trusts; contemporary use of the trust device; constructional problems of trusts. Win (4), Oaks.

404. Decedents' Estates.* Intestate succession; limitations upon testamentary power; execution and revocation of wills; interpretation of wills; will substitutes; probate and administration. Spr (3), Fatouros.

405. Community Property. A survey of community property laws of the United States and a comparison with common-law marital property rules. Students will be required to prepare a detailed paper on one subject. (3), Currie. [Not offered in 1963-64.]

407. Modern Real Estate Transactions. A study of land marketing transactions emphasizing problems of the development of urban land, of marketing urban land, whether by sale or by lease, of financial acquisition of urban land, and of marketable title and title examination. The problems are illustrated with materials from the area of marketing of housing. Spr (4), Dunham.

408. Oil and Gas. Nature of interests in oil and gas, trespassers and adverse claimants, rights and duties under leases, unitization, pooling, and other problems arising from exploration, ownership, and production of petroleum. Aut (3), Oaks.

409. Mortgages. A study of real estate and chattel mortgages and related types of security, with emphasis upon enforcement and liquidation. Win (4), Tefft.

412. Commercial Law II.* Chattel security, with special emphasis on the techniques of problem analysis, counseling and statutory construction. Commercial Law I is a prerequisite. Win (3), Mentschikoff.

415. Family Law. Marriage and the family as social and legal institutions; legal relations between members of the family and between the family and outsiders; dissolution of the family. Spr (4), Allen.

420. Evidence. The law governing the proof of disputed issues of fact in trials at law and equity, with incidental treatment of hearings before administrative agencies, including burden of proof, presumptions, and judicial notice; the functions of judge and jury; the examination, competency, and privileges of witnesses; the exclusionary rules of evidence. Aut (6), Meltzer.

425. Economic Analysis and Public Policy.* The pricing process and the allocation of resources in a free-market system; monopoly and restraint of trade; monetary theory and the credit system; industrial fluctuations; economic analysis and economic policy.1 Aut (4), Director.

426. Accounting.* Introduction to accounting techniques and the interpretation of financial statements.2 Aut (3), Davidson.

430. Corporation Law. Distribution of control; application of the fiduciary principle to directors, officers, shareholders, and promoters; the procuring and maintaining of corporate capital. Win (5), Kaplan.

432. Insolvency and Reorganization. Credit aspects of inflation and deflation; problems of investment, debt, and failure in a fluctuating economy; debtor relief, including corporate reorganization plans; corporate capital structure. Spr (4), Blum.

1 Recommended as preparation for Law 440, 445, and 446.
2 Recommended in connection with Law 430 and 435. Students who have had as much as a year of college accounting must secure permission of the instructor prior to registering for Law 426.
435. Federal Taxation I. Income taxation of individuals; the rate structure; the definition of income; the exclusions and deductions; the treatment of gains and losses from property; the taxable unit and the attribution of income. Aut (3), Blum.

436. Federal Taxation II. Income taxation of partnerships, corporations, and other business entities; the corporate income tax; the taxation of shareholders; the comparative tax treatment of partnerships and corporations; the accounting aspects of income taxation; the relationship of taxation to monetary and fiscal policy. Federal Taxation I is a prerequisite. Win (3), Blum.

437. Federal Taxation III. Estate planning; the income taxation of trusts and estates; the estate and gift taxes; the conservation of family estates from a tax point of view; the social and economic implications of progressive taxation. Federal Taxation I is a prerequisite. Spr (3), Oaks.

440. Labor Law I. The legal framework for collective bargaining, strikes, picketing, lockouts and other forms of pressure; the relationship between that framework and a general anti-monopoly policy; the selection of the collective bargaining representative and the representative's authority and responsibility with respect to the individual employee; the negotiation, administration, and enforcement of collective bargaining arrangements. Win (4), Meltzer.

441. Labor Law II. A more intensive examination of the grievance-arbitration process and of individual rights in the enforcement of the agreement; the regulation of union internal affairs, including admission, discipline, elections, fiduciary obligations and related requirements; inter-union relations. Labor Law I (or the consent of the instructor, which will be given only in unusual situations) is a prerequisite for Labor Law II. Spr (3), Meltzer.

445. Law of Competition and Monopoly. The structure of American industry; the theory of competition and monopoly; the growth and application of basic antitrust doctrines in the area of restraints and monopoly; antitrust aspects of the misuse of patents; international cartels. Spr (5), E. Levi, Director.

446. Regulation of Competition. A study of governmental limitations upon methods of competition and the right to compete, with emphasis on the Robinson-Patman Act, the law of unfair competition and trademark infringement, and antitrust aspects of government regulations of industry. State fair-trade legislation, state statutes prohibiting sales below cost, and unfair competition aspects of patent and copyright infringement also will be studied. Aut (4), Dam.

450. Administrative Law. Constitutional law, statutory law, common law, and agency-made law concerning the powers and procedures of administrative agencies, including problems of adjudication, rule-making, and judicial review. Aut (5), Davis.

451. Constitutional Law I. The first part of this course will be devoted to an evaluation of the history and role of the judiciary in a federal constitutional democracy, including such questions as the proper scope of judicial review and the propriety of judicial participation in such political matters as legislative districting. The second part will treat of the distribution of powers between the state and national governments primarily in the area of economic regulation. There will be special concern with the question whether federalism, at least in the realm of economic affairs, has been destroyed by the subjugation of the states. Aut (4), Kurland.

452. Constitutional Law II. This course is concerned with the rights of the members of the American community, non-citizens as well as citizens, vis-a-vis the state and national governments. Emphasis will be placed on the rights of freedom of speech, assembly, and press and the religion clauses of the First Amendment; on the rights to fair trial in criminal cases; and on the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment especially as it is concerned with the constitutional problems of the claims of Negroes to governmental action. Inherent in most of these problems is the question of the proper role of the judiciary in their resolution. Win (4), Kurland.

453. State and Local Government. Selected problems in state constitutional and administrative law and the general legal principles applicable to the operation of counties, cities, and towns. (4), Lucas. [Not offered in 1963-64.]

454. State and Local Taxation. A study of selected problems dealing with the power to tax and limitations placed upon such power by the federal and state constitutions; the chief sources of state and local tax revenues; and problems of conflict between tax systems in a federal state. Federal Taxation I is a prerequisite. Spr (4), Lucas.

455. Federal Jurisdiction. History of federal judiciary acts; structure and business of the federal courts; nature of federal judicial function; diversity of citizenship jurisdiction; federal question jurisdiction; jurisdictional amount; removal jurisdiction; jurisdiction to enjoin federal courts; three-judge courts; law applied by federal courts. Win (4), Currie.

456. Admiralty. Admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; marine insurance; carriage of goods; charter parties; general average; rights of seamen and other maritime workers; collision; salvage; maritime liens and ship mortgages; limitation of liability. Win (4), Lucas.
457. Conflict of Laws. The problems arising when significant aspects of a case relate to more than one state or country. Aut (4), Currie; Sum (4), Kaplan.

460. International Law. Nature, source, and application of international law; international agreements; membership in the international community; territory of states; nationality; jurisdiction and jurisdictional immunities; state responsibility and international claims; the law of war; and an introduction to international organization law. Spr (4), Mentschikoff.

461. International Commercial Problems. A study of international sales transactions with emphasis upon government controls over currency and commodities, such as exchange controls, quotas, licenses, tariffs, and the common market state trading. Commercial Law I is a prerequisite, except with special permission of the instructor. Aut (3), Mentschikoff.

462. International Investment Problems. A study of legal and economic factors influencing the international flow of capital, particularly in the form of direct investment in foreign subsidiaries. Problems of organizing, financing, and operating foreign companies will be examined with particular emphasis upon national and international law about concessions, subsidiaries, licensing, monopoly, and competition; expropriation and protection of property abroad; copyright and patent protection; taxation of foreign business; and related problems. Win (4), Dam.

463. Regional and International Institutions. A study of the substantive and procedural rules governing the activities of regional and international political, economic, and military institutions. Primary attention will be devoted to the European Economic Community and the United Nations. Spr (4), Dam.

470, 471, 472. Civil Law. Contracts, torts, property, and family relations law under the systems of the French and German civil code. This course constitutes a part of the Foreign Law Program; properly qualified students who are not in the Foreign Law Program may be admitted for one quarter. Aut (6), Win (6), Spr (6), Rheinstein, Drobnig, Laubinger.

473. Comparative Law. A general introduction and a brief examination of the historical background and the structure of civil law systems will be followed by an intensive study of selected fields of law. Aut (4), Fatouros.

474. Comparative Constitutional Law. Comparative treatment of the following topics: the vocabulary of constitutional law; the establishment of constitutions; the efficacy of constitutions; the content, development, and amendment of constitutions; the protection of fundamental human rights and freedoms (with reference also to International Law); problems of federalism. Win (4), Cowen.

475. Jurisprudence: Law in Society. A common-sense approach to a selection of basic problems facing the lawyer today as a craftsman, as a citizen, and as a person. (4), Cowen. [Not offered in 1963-64.]

SEMINARS

505. Seminar: Insurance. A study of the insurance contract, with some reference to the peculiar responsibilities of the insurance company. Permission of the instructor is required. Aut (3), Sharp.

515. Seminar: Law and Criminology. An examination of a variety of issues of criminal-law administration including juvenile delinquency, probation, parole, and the organization of correctional systems. Emphasis is given to the evaluation of relevant criminological materials. Win (3), Allen.

516. Seminar: The Child and the State. A study of the uses of state power to advance the welfare of minors. Among the problems considered are those of neglect and dependency, termination of parental rights, custody, and adoption. Legal and other relevant materials are employed. A research paper is required. Spr (3), Allen.

525. Seminar: Money, Banking, and Employment. Discussion of past and proposed plans for dealing with the problem of economic stability. Spr (3), Director.

530. Seminar: Current Corporation Problems. A more intensive consideration than is possible in the course in corporations of current corporation problems, such as matters relating to stock options, convertible securities, mutual funds, exculpatory clauses, or other matters of a similar nature. Corporation Law is a prerequisite. Spr (3), Kaplan.

540. Seminar: Labor Law. An examination of selected problems of labor law, including problems involved in the drafting, administration, and enforcement of collective-bargaining agreements. The basic course in labor law is usually a prerequisite, but students who have had relevant practical experience or relevant work in other departments may be admitted with consent of the instructor. (3), Meltzer. [Not offered in 1963-64; individual research may be arranged with the consent of the instructor.]
545. Seminar: Workshop in Industrial Organization. Studies in the structure and behavior of industries, with special emphasis on the role of government regulation. Permission of the instructor and Dean is required. Aut (3), Win (3), Spr (3), Stigler, Director, and other members of the faculty.

546. Seminar: Regulated Industries. A study of comprehensive regulation of individual industries by such federal agencies as the Interstate Commerce Commission, Civil Aeronautics Board, Federal Power Commission, and Federal Communications Commission. Primary emphasis will be on substantive rather than procedural issues. A different industry will be studied each year. Prerequisite: Law 446 or consent of instructor. Win (3), Dam.

547. Seminar: Administrative Regulation. Problems in a substantive field of administrative regulation, such as transportation, radio and television, or natural gas; emphasis on individual research. Law 450 is a prerequisite. Spr (3), Davis.

550. Seminar: Administrative Law. Research problems on the frontier of rapidly developing Administrative Law; that is, the law about powers and procedures of administrative agencies. Law 450 is a prerequisite. Win (3), Davis.

551. Seminar: Constitutional Law. Each year the seminar concerns itself with an intensive study of a comparatively narrow area of constitutional law. Last time it was given the subject was the religion clauses of the First Amendment. This year the subject will be the Eleventh Amendment and sovereign immunity of the states from suit. Students will be expected to prepare papers on the history and function of the Eleventh Amendment with special emphasis on Supreme Court decisions and their success or failure in evolving appropriate doctrine. Materials prepared by the instructor will be used as a basis for class discussion. Aut (3), Kurland.

552. Seminar: The Supreme Court. An analysis of work of the Supreme Court and its opinions for the current term. Enrollment is limited and by permission of the instructor. Win, (3), Currie, Neal, Oaks.

553. Seminar: Local Government. Selected topics in local government law and administration, with emphasis upon the design of units for general government, services, representation, and taxation. Aut (3), Lucas.

554. Seminar: Public Regulation of Land. A survey of various regulatory laws controlling land use, such as housing and building codes, zoning and planning, antinuisance statutes, fencing and part-wall statutes, water regulation, etc. Spr (3), J. Levi.

560. Seminar: International Business Problems. An intensive study of selected problems in international commercial and financial relations. Either Law 461 or 462 is a prerequisite except with the consent of the instructor. Spr (3), Fatiouros.

561. Seminar: Taxation of Foreign Income. A study of selected problems concerning the taxation of foreign income. Aut (3), Blum, Dam.

562. Seminar: Oil in the World Community. A study of the legal, economic, and political problems raised by the international structure and operation of the oil industry. (3), Katzenbach. [Not offered in 1963–64.]

571. Seminar: Land and Credit Laws and Economic Development in New Nations. Attention will be focused on those aspects of customary land tenure systems in Africa and elsewhere which it is said affect economic development. Several African land tenure systems and developments will be considered and compared with Israel, Puerto Rico, and the Anglo-American systems. Spr (3), Dunham, Fallers.

575. Seminar: Reasoning and Law. The functions of logic and other experiences in the law. Permission of the instructor is required. Win (3), Sharp.

576. Seminar: Jurisprudence. An examination of certain recurrent themes in the legal philosophy of the Western world. Each member of the seminar will be required to select a major jurisprudential writer (e.g., Aquinas, Bentham, Austin, Gery, Llewellyn) and to lead group discussion of that writer's essential views. Enrollment is limited and by permission of the instructor. Win (3), Jones.
578. Seminar: Law Revision. Examination of the need for uniformity in areas suggested by the National Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. Preliminary investigation and preparation of uniform statutes. Specific topics to be announced. (3), Dunham. [Not offered in 1963-64.]

COURSES IN THE SUMMER SESSION, 1963
Corporation Law. (5) Stanley A. Kaplan.
Decedents' Estates. (2) Allison Dunham.
State and Local Taxation. (3) Walter J. Blum.
Comparative Law. (4) Hans W. Baade.
Seminar: Economic Analysis of Antitrust Cases. (3) Aaron Director.

SUMMER SESSION, 1964
The Law School will be in regular session in the Summer Quarter of 1964. A special announcement will be made at a later date concerning the courses to be offered.

ADDENDUM

Effective at the beginning of the academic year 1964–65, tuition in the Law School will be $500 per quarter instead of $450 per quarter. Fees and other charges will be as stated in the Announcements, page 29.
VIII. Professorships and Teaching Fellowships

The John P. Wilson Professorship in Law was established in 1929 with funds contributed for the John P. Wilson Memorial Foundation by John P. Wilson, Jr., and Anna Wilson Dickinson as a memorial to their father, John P. Wilson, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar. The holders of the John P. Wilson Professorship have been Ernst Freund, Harry Augustus Bigelow, Wilber Griffith Katz, and Roscoe T. Steffen. The present holder of this professorship is Kenneth C. Davis.

The James Parker Hall Professorship in Law was established in 1930 by the alumni of the School in memory of James Parker Hall, Dean of the School from 1904 until his death in 1928. The holders of the James Parker Hall Professorship have been Edward Wilcox Hinton, George Gleason Bogert, and Wilber Griffith Katz. The present holder of this professorship is Sheldon Tefft.

The Max Pam Professorship in Comparative Law was established in 1935 in memory of Max Pam, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar, with funds allocated by the Trustees under the will of Mr. Pam. The present holder of this professorship is Max Rheinstein.

Under the will of Leo Spitz, J.D., 1910, provision is made for the establishment of The Caroline and Henry Spitz Professorship, in honor of Mr. Spitz's parents. This is a professorship in world organization, law and government, and related problems, including the protection of human rights and the peaceful settlement of international legal and political disputes.

Under the will of Harry A. Bigelow, the University is to receive, upon the death of certain life-beneficiaries, the remainder of a trust fund for the establishment of The Harry A. Bigelow Professorship in Law. Mr. Bigelow was Dean of the Law School from 1929 to 1939, and a member of the Faculty of the Law School from 1904 until his death in 1950.

The Harry A. Bigelow Teaching Fellowships were established in 1947 in honor of Harry A. Bigelow. The fellowships are awarded to law graduates of high standing.

IX. Graduate Fellowships and Research and Special Funds

The Law School has available a number of fellowships for graduate students. These include:

The James Nelson Raymond Fellowship, which was created in 1933 and 1934 by Anna Louise Raymond.

The Law Fellowships, which are supported by gifts of Law alumni to the Law School.

University Fellowships, a limited number of which is reserved for research students in law.

A limited number of special fellowships is available to students in the Foreign Law Program. The amount of these fellowships is $7,800 each, payable over the 21-month period of the Program.

Fellowships for a year of study at the University of Chicago Law School are available to a limited number of students from the British Commonwealth who are graduates in law or in jurisprudence of universities of the British Commonwealth.

A limited number of fellowships is available to graduates of European law schools who desire to pursue a program of graduate study in the Comparative Law Program.

Application for fellowships in connection with graduate work leading to a graduate degree should be made to the Dean of Students, The Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37.

Special Research Fellowships are available in connection with the various research programs of the School made possible through special grants and through gifts of Law alumni to the Law School Fund. Law-Economics Fellowships are available for graduate lawyers or economists who desire to pursue a program of study and research in the law-economics area. Application for these fellowships should be made to the Dean of the Law School, The University of Chicago, Chicago 37. A gift from an anonymous donor has made possible graduate fellowships concerned with the study of aspects of the legal problems of mass communications.

The Frieda and Arnold Shure Research Fund was established in 1945 by Frieda and Arnold Shure for the publication of legal studies of immediate importance for the public welfare.

The Arnold M. Chutkow Memorial Fund was established in 1958 as a memorial to Arnold M. Chutkow, J.D., 1951, through a gift from Samuel Chutkow, 1920, and the friends and classmates of Arnold Chutkow. The income of the Arnold M. Chutkow Memorial Fund is allocated by the Dean of the Law School toward the expenses of student contestants in moot court competitions and for the benefit of the University of Chicago Law Review.

The Leonard M. Rieser Fund was established in 1959 by the family and friends of Leonard M. Rieser, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago Bar, and a former Lecturer in Law at the Law School, as a memorial to him to be used in a manner consistent with his wide and varied interests in law. This fund has made possible the formation of The Rieser Society (see p. 22).

The Andrew J. Dallstream Memorial Fund, used in support of several aspects of the School’s work, was established in 1962 by the friends and colleagues of Mr. Dallstream, an eminent Chicago attorney who had served as president of the Law Alumni Association.

The Karl N. Llewellyn Memorial Fund was begun in 1962-63 by former students, colleagues, and other friends of Professor Llewellyn, to be used by the Law School for a purpose suitably recognizing his noteworthy contribution to the work of the School. A member of the Law Faculty from 1951 until his death in 1962, Professor Llewellyn was one of the outstanding figures in American legal education and scholarship.

The Bayer Fellowship in Foreign Law is contributed annually by the Farbenfabriken Bayer Corporation of West Germany. It supports the work of a student in the Foreign Law Program, which is described in detail in Section IV.

X. The Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom

The Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom, part of a co-operative effort of Bench, Bar, and School, provides an opportunity for students not only to engage in moot cases, but to observe the conduct of actual cases.

During the academic year 1962-63, the Illinois Appellate Court, First District, First Division (Mr. Justice Henry L. Burman, Presiding Justice, Mr. Justice Robert E. English, and Mr. Justice Arthur J. Murphy) met in regular session in the Courtroom on January 21, 1963. The Illinois Supreme Court (Mr. Chief Justice Roy J. Solfisburg, Jr., Mr. Justice Joseph E. Daily, Mr. Justice Harry B. Hershey, Mr. Justice Byron O. House, Mr. Justice Ray I. Klingbiel, Mr. Justice Walter V. Schaefer, and Mr. Justice Robert C. Underwood) met in regular session in the Courtroom on March 4, 1963.
XI. Program of Research in Law and the Behavioral Sciences

A program of research in law and the behavioral sciences has been made possible through a grant from the Ford Foundation. Three projects are now being conducted: (1) The nature and operation of the jury system. (2) The characteristics and performance of arbitration as a sublegal system. (3) A study of court congestion and judicial administration. The first publication of this program was the study Delay in the Court by Zeisel, Kalven, and Buchholz (Little, Brown & Co.). The first part of a study of the effect of separate trials of liability and damages in personal injury cases in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois appeared in 1963 (Zeisel and Callahan, Split Trials and Time Saving: A Statistical Analysis, 76 Harv. L. Rev. 1606). A fourth project of the Law and Behavioral Science Program, a study of intestate inheritance, was completed in 1963 and the results published in Dunham, The Method, Process and Frequency of Wealth Transmission at Death, 30 U. Chi. L. Rev. 241 (1963).

XII. The Comparative Law Research Center

The Comparative Law Research Center was established in 1949 to promote research in the field of international legal relations. The Center provides opportunities for qualified students from the United States and abroad to obtain training in the techniques appropriate to this field. The Center serves also as a clearing house of information for foreign research and teaching institutions and provides advice to scholars and students abroad who are engaged in international studies touching upon American law. Professor Max Rheinstein, Max Pam Professor of Comparative Law, is Director of the Center.

XIII. The Program for Legal Research (New Nations)

The Program for Legal Research (New Nations) was established in 1961. Under this program the Law School will offer special courses and seminars and engage in particular research projects dealing with aspects of the legal problems of the nations of Africa and Asia. It is planned to offer a series of seminars on such problems as (1) federalism: objectives and legal framework; (2) contact between indigenous and non-indigenous legal systems and the problem of inter-personal conflict of laws; (3) land-tenure; and (4) civil liberties and fundamental human rights. Participation in these seminars will be by invitation. The program was initiated with a symposium on “Federalism in the New Nations, with Special Reference to Africa,” held at the Law School during February, 1962. In 1962-63 a team of faculty members consisting of Mr. Bentsi-Enchill and Professors Cowen, Dunham, and Fallers made a survey of the land-tenure system of Basutoland at the request of the Basutoland government.

As part of the regular graduate program of the Law School, graduate study may be undertaken in the area of the legal problems of the new nations; a limited number of special fellowships is available for this purpose.

XIV. The Law Revision Program

The Law Revision Program is under the direction of a faculty committee of which Professor Allison Dunham is Chairman. The program includes studies and drafting on topics selected by the faculty committee from suggestions received from the Council of State Governments, the Conference of Attorneys-General, the Conference of Chief Justices, the Commissioners on Uniform State Laws, and committees of bar associations.
XV. The Law-Economics Program

The Law-Economics Program is under the general direction of a faculty committee of which Professor Aaron Director is Chairman. Special Law-Economics Fellowships are available to graduate lawyers or economists.

Annual publication of The Journal of Law and Economics, under the editorship of Professor Aaron Director, was begun in the autumn of 1958.

A special program of conferences and seminars on the interrelationship of law, ethics, and business practices has been made possible through a grant to the Law School from the New World Foundation.

XVI. The Supreme Court Review

Annual publication of The Supreme Court Review, dedicated exclusively to responsible professional criticism of the work of the United States Supreme Court, began in 1960. The Supreme Court Review is under the editorship of Professor Philip B. Kurland.

XVII. Student Scholarships and Loans

The Law School awards a limited number of full-tuition National Honor Scholarships to outstanding students designated by selected colleges. In addition, a number of scholarships are available each year for law students of outstanding ability who need financial assistance. Some of these scholarships are for full tuition, some for partial tuition, and some for amounts in excess of the tuition charge. In the case of veterans, scholarship awards may be made as cash grants to supplement government living allowances. A substantial proportion of Law School scholarship aid is reserved for entering students.

The Henry C. Murphy Scholarship Endowment provides aid for worthy boys to secure an education, preference to be shown to those who plan to adopt journalism as their profession.

The LaVerne Noyes Foundation Scholarships (for veterans of World War I and their descendants) are awarded on the basis of service in the armed forces of the United States in World War I.

In addition to the general University Scholarships, the Law School has available the following:

The James Nelson Raymond Scholarship, established in 1930 from a fund given by Anna Louise Raymond in memory of her husband, James Nelson Raymond.

Two Francis Kosmerl Fellowships, each in the amount of $1,350, were established in 1948 by a bequest under the will of Francis Kosmerl, J.D., 1918.

The Class of 1915 Scholarship, a full-tuition scholarship endowed by the Class of 1915, is awarded annually, upon vote of the Law Faculty, to an outstanding student in the Junior Class of the Law School.

The Edwin B. Mayer Scholarship provides tuition aid to a student in the Law School.

The Leo F. Wormser Scholarships were established in 1935 by friends of Leo F. Wormser, J.D., 1909, for many years an eminent member of the Chicago bar, as a memorial to him. In 1940 a gift to this fund was made by Mrs. Leo F. Wormser in memory of Mr. Wormser’s mother, Mrs. Frida Wormser; and from time to time additional gifts have also been made to this scholarship fund by the family and friends of Leo F. Wormser. In 1956 the Leo F. Wormser Memorial Fund was augmented by a bequest from the estate of Mrs. Leo F. Wormser.
The James B. Blake Scholarship Fund was established in 1951 as a memorial to James B. Blake, J.D., 1907, by his friends.

The Mary Beecher Scholarship is awarded to an outstanding graduate of a women's college in the entering class of the Law School.

The Phi Sigma Delta Scholarship, established by the members of Phi Sigma Delta fraternity, will provide a full-tuition scholarship for an outstanding law student during the academic year 1963-64.

The Anna Weiss Graff Honor Scholarship, established in 1961 by the Julian D. Weiss and Shirley W. Weiss Foundation, provides tuition aid for a worthy second- or third-year student.

Chicago Title and Trust Company Foundation Scholarships, awarded to outstanding students, have been made possible through gifts to the Law School by the Chicago Title and Trust Company Foundation.

The Farmers Insurance Group Scholarship provides annual tuition aid to a student in the Law School.

The Arnold I. Shure Scholarship, to be awarded by the Law Faculty to a deserving law student for the academic year 1963-64 was made possible through a gift to the Law School by Frieda Shure in honor of Arnold I. Shure, a graduate of the Law School in 1929.

The Floyd Russell Mechem Prize Scholarships were originally established in 1959 as a memorial to Professor Mechem, for many years a member of the Law Faculty. In 1962 the awards were expanded and enlarged to provide a stipend of $3,000 each to a maximum of ten entering law students to be chosen by the Mechem Selection Committee on the basis of superior ability, academic qualifications, and promise. The awards are renewable for the second and third years of study at the Law School. The members of the Mechem Selection Committee are: The Honorable Tom C. Clark, Associate Justice, United States Supreme Court; The Honorable Roger J. Traynor, Associate Justice, Supreme Court of California; The Honorable Sterry R. Waterman, Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit; William Merritt Beaney, Professor of Politics and Chairman, Department of Politics, Princeton University; The Honorable Ross L. Malone, Past President, American Bar Association, Roswell, New Mexico; J. Roland Pennock, Professor of Political Science and Chairman, Department of Political Science, Swarthmore College; The Honorable Whitney North Seymour, Past President, American Bar Association, New York, New York. The recipients of the 1963 Mechem Prize Scholarships are: Stephen L. Babcock, Freeport, Illinois; Donald J. Christl, Elmwood Park, Illinois; Robert J. Donovan, Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania; Paul F. Gleeson, Scotia, New York; J. Scott Hamilton, Park Ridge, Illinois; Duane W. Krohnke, Perry, Iowa; Roger P. Levin, Highland Park, Illinois; Walter J. Robinson, Yakima, Washington; and G. Perrin Walker, Idaho Falls, Idaho. All applications for the Mechem Prize Scholarships should be completed prior to March 9, 1964. Students desiring to be considered for the Mechem awards may obtain the special application forms from the office of the Dean of Students of the Law School.

The Class of 1959 Scholarship was established in 1959 through contributions of that class to support the annual award of a scholarship.

Application for scholarships should be made upon a form obtained from the office of the Dean of Students of the Law School. An exception to this procedure is made in the case of the award of a National Honor Scholarship. This award is granted upon the recommendation of a participating college, and application for it should be made to that college.

In addition to scholarship aid, the University administers funds under the provisions of the National Defense Education Act, maintains a tuition-loan program, and is able to offer cash loans through several specially endowed loan funds.

The tuition-loan program provides for loans in payment of tuition only. Notes securing these loans bear no interest while the borrower is a student at the University of Chicago, and only voluntary payments are expected. Thereafter, they bear interest at the annual rate of 3 per cent, and regular monthly payments in the minimum amount of $20 are required. Tuition loans are granted to law students who demonstrate financial need. It is possible for students to receive both scholarship and loan assistance.

The special loan funds available exclusively or preferentially to students of the Law School include:

The Harry A. Bigelow Loan Fund was established in 1929 by the Law Class of 1929 in honor of the late Dean Bigelow.

The Law School Student Loan Fund is available to students in the Law School.

The Bernhardt Frank Loan Fund was established in 1952 by Louis H. Silver, J.D., 1928, in honor of his brother-in-law, who was for many years a member of the Chicago Bar and an outstanding appellate lawyer.

The Ernst Freund Loan Fund was established in 1922 by the late Professor Ernst Freund and since his death has been augmented by other contributions.

The Raphael and Rose Golde Loan Fund was established in 1955 by provision of the will of the late Joseph A. Golde, J.D., 1915, in memory of his parents.

The James Parker Hall Loan Fund was established by the alumni of the Law School in memory of the late Dean Hall.

The Ronald G. Hillebrand Memorial Loan Fund was established in 1962 by the Class of 1962 and other friends of Ronald G. Hillebrand in his memory. It is available to third-year, married students in the Law School.

The Floyd R. Mechem Loan Fund for Law Students was established in 1921 by the late Professor Floyd R. Mechem.

The Harvey Puchowitz Loan Fund was established in 1955 by friends of Harvey Puchowitz in his memory.

The Ernst W. Puttkammer Loan Fund was established in 1956 by students in the Class of 1958.

The Anna Louise Raymond Loan Fund was established in 1932 for the benefit of students in the Law School, preference to be given to women.

The Julius Rosenthal Fund was established in 1903 in memory of Julius Rosenthal by the late Judge Julian W. Mack, formerly a professor in the School.

The Frederick and Edith Shaffer Sass Loan Fund was established by Frederick Sass, Jr., Ph.B., 1930, J.D., 1932, and Louis Sass, S.B., 1932, in memory of their parents. Preference is given to students in the Law School.

The Ben and May Shapiro Loan Fund, established by Robert B. Shapiro, J.D., 1935, in memory of his parents, is available to students, preferably in the Law School, who are dependent in whole or in part upon their own efforts to secure an education.

The Clark B. Whittier Law Loan Fund was established by Professor Clark B. Whittier, a former member of the Law Faculty.

An application form for a loan may be obtained from the Office of the Dean of Students of the Law School.
XVIII. Conferences, Meetings, and Lectures

The Law School recognizes its responsibility as a law center to contribute to the development of law through research and co-operation with the profession. It recognizes also the importance of such activities as broadening influences in the education of law students. Special student seminars with members of the Bench and Bar and public conferences on major problems of the law are an integral part of the program of the School.

The annual lecture to the entering class at the opening of the Autumn Quarter was delivered in 1962 by The Honorable Frank R. Kenison, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire.

During the Autumn Quarter, 1962, a conference was held on "The Uniform Commercial Code." Papers were given by John G. Fleming, Professor of Law, University of California, Berkeley; Peter F. Coogan, Esq., of the Boston Bar; Allan Farnsworth, Professor of Law, Columbia University; William D. Warren, Professor of Law, University of California, Los Angeles; and Grant Gilmore, William K. Townsend Professor of Law, Yale University. Professor Soia Mentschikoff of the University of Chicago Law School was the moderator.

The speakers were The Reverend Harold Fey, Editor, The Christian Century; William Gorman, Staff Member, Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions; Paul G. Kauper, Professor of Law, University of Michigan; Monrad G. Paulsen, Professor of Law, Columbia University; The Reverend Robert F. Drinan, S.J., Professor of Law and Dean of the Law School, Boston College; and Robert Maynard Hutchins, President, The Fund for the Republic. Harry Kalven, Jr., Professor of Law, and Dallin H. Oaks, Associate Professor of Law, the University of Chicago, presided at the sessions of the conference.

During the Spring Quarter, 1963, a conference was held on "The Control of Narcotic Addiction." Speakers and participants were Carl J. DeBaggio, Esq., Chief Counsel, Bureau of Narcotics, United States Treasury Department; John R. Silber, Professor of Philosophy, University of Texas; Maurice H. Seever, M.D., Professor of Pharmacology, University of Michigan; Edwin M. Schur, Assistant Professor of Sociology, Tufts University; Lawrence Zelic Freedman, M.D., Foundations' Fund Research Professor in Psychiatry, the University of Chicago; Herbert L. Packer, Professor of Law, Stanford University; Harold W. Solomon, Visiting Professor of Law, the University of Chicago; and Harry Kalven, Jr., Professor of Law, the University of Chicago.

Informal talks to the students during the academic year 1962–63 were given by Ernst von Caemmerer, Professor of Commercial Law, The University of Freiburg, who spoke on "The Uniform Commercial Code—a Fusion of Common Law and Civil Law"; T. B. Smith, Professor of Civil Law, University of Edinburgh, who spoke on "The St. Ninian's Isle Treasure Case"; Folke Schmidt, Professor of Law, University of Stockholm, who spoke on "The Philosophy of Swedish Labor Law"; and Nicholas deBelleville Katzenbach, Esq., Deputy Attorney-General of the United States.

In January, 1963, the Secretary-General of the International Commission of Jurists Sir Leslie Knox Munro, Visiting Professor of Law at the Law School, delivered a series of public lectures on "The Minority Position of the Western Powers in the Enlarged General Assembly of the United Nations," "Reflections on the Tendency of the United States and Certain European States To Work through NATO and Like Organizations Rather than through the United Nations," and "The International Commission of Jurists.” Sir Leslie also conducted a seminar for students and supervised individual research in the field of international law.

Distinguished foreign visitors to the Law School during the year 1962-63 included Kanetomo Tanaka, Professor of Law and Director of the Institute of American Studies, Kyoto University, Japan; Joaquin Maldonado, Professor of Management, Valencia School of Business Administration, Spain; Ahmadu-Suka, Lecturer in Law, Ahmadu-Bello University, Nigeria; Lee Tai-Hee, former Dean of the Law School, Ewha University, Seoul, Korea, and former Attorney-General of Korea; Hyman Tarlo, Professor of Law, Australian National University, Canberra; The Honorable Malcolm P. Crisp, Justice of the Supreme Court of Tasmania, Australia; Honorato Karrasco, Dean of the School of Architecture, Universidad Ibero-Americana, Mexico City, Mexico; Gilbert Olivier, Director of the School of Economic Studies of the Catholic Institute of Paris, France; William A. Robson, Professor of Law, London School of Economics and Political Science, England; H. Jungbluth, of the Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs, Federal Republic of Germany; Kai Valter Korte, Chief of Juridical Administration, Ministry of Justice, Finland; il Young Choi, Senior Prosecutor, Seoul, Korea; Sun Kim, Vice-Chief Prosecutor, Chonju, Korea; R. W. Parsons, Professor of Law, University of Sydney, Australia; R. B. K. Okaro, Junior Minister of Justice, Nigeria; Kassa Wolde Mariam, President, Haile Selassie I University, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia; S. P. Cilliers, Professor of Sociology, University of Stellenbosch, South Africa; Jabra Hanna El Ankar, President, Bar Association of Jordan; The Honorable Salvadore Bergel, Chief Justice, La Pampa Province, Argentina; Silvio Romano, Professor of Jurisprudence, University of Turin, Italy; The Honorable B. P. Sinha, Chief Justice of India; Juan Isaac Lovato Vargas, Professor of Jurisprudence, Central University of Ecuador; K. N. Subramanian, Joint Secretary of Labor, Government of India; The Honorable V. L. Stewart, Chief Judge, Juvenile and Family Court of Metropolitan Toronto, Canada; Antonio Salazar Soriano, Professor of Law, University of San Simon, Bolivia; and Samim Bilgen, Head Legal Advisor to the Ministry of Finance, Turkey.

The Rieser Society, named in honor of the late Leonard M. Rieser, a prominent Chicago attorney who took a personal interest in the affairs of the Law School and in the education of law students, invites the faculty, selected law students, and others to meet from time to time to hear discussion of current problems collateral to the law. In February, 1962, Arnold C. Harberger, Professor of Economics at the University of Chicago, led a discussion of the tax-cut and tax-reform proposals of the Administration. In April, John P. Roche, Professor of Politics at Brandeis University and Visiting Professor of Political Science at the University of Chicago, discussed civil liberties in modern America from a historical point of view. The Society is supported by a fund contributed by the family and friends of Mr. Rieser.

The Ernst Freund Lectureship was established in 1953 in honor of a distinguished member of the Law Faculty from 1902 to 1932. Holders of the Lectureship have been The Honorable Felix Frankfurter, Associate Justice, Supreme Court of the United States; The Honorable Walter V. Schaefer, Associate Justice, Supreme Court of Illinois; The Honorable Charles E. Wyzanski, Jr., Judge, United States District Court for Massachusetts; The Right Honorable Lord Denning of Whitchurch, Lord of Appeal in Ordinary; The Right Honorable Lord Parker of Waddington, the Lord Chief Justice of England; and Wilber G. Katz, Professor of Law, University of Wisconsin. During the academic year 1962-63, the Freund Lecture was given by The Honorable John M.
Harlan, Associate Justice, United States Supreme Court, on "A Glimpse of the Supreme Court at Work." In the academic year 1963–64, the Freund Lecture will be given by The Right Honorable Lord Justice Diplock, Lord Justice of the Court of Appeal, and in 1964–65 by The Right Honorable Lord Devlin, Lord of Appeal in Ordinary.

The Henry C. Simons Memorial Lectureship was established in 1955 as a biennial lectureship in the field of law and economics, in honor of Henry C. Simons, for many years a distinguished member of the Faculty of the Law School and of the Department of Economics. The first Simons Lecture was given in February, 1958, by George Stigler, then Professor of Economics, Columbia University, on "The Goals of Economic Policy." The second Simons Lecture was given November 18, 1959, by Jacob Viner, Professor of Economics, Princeton University, on "The Intellectual History of Laissez Faire."

The C. R. Musser Lectureship, an endowed lectureship in honor of a distinguished citizen, was established by the University in 1955 out of funds previously given to the Law School by the General Service Foundation. The Lectureship is awarded for a public lecture on some phase of the problems of government, to be given by an experienced citizen who has held public office. The first Musser Lecture was given on November 29, 1961, by Willard F. Libby, former member of the Atomic Energy Commission and now Professor of Chemistry at the University of California, Los Angeles, on the subject, "Science in Administration."

The Federal Tax Conference is an annual three-day conference sponsored by the Law School and participated in by tax specialists from all over the United States. The conference is planned in cooperation with members of the tax bar in Chicago. Professor Walter Blum is in charge of the Law School's sponsorship of the conference. During the academic year 1962–63 the Tax Conference was held October 24–26. The Federal Tax Conference for the academic year 1963–64 will be held October 23–25.

XIX. Student Activities and Honors

The University of Chicago Law Review, founded in 1933, is published by the School under the management of a Board of Editors composed of students. Students ranking highest in scholarship upon completion of their first year are invited to become competitors for election to the staff of the Review. From this group the editorial staff and the Board of Editors are chosen. The Editor-in-Chief for 1963–64 is William A. Wineberg, Jr. Managing Editors are Harold L. Henderson, Edmund W. Kitch, Lilian K. Vincent, and Michael G. Wolfson. The Associate Editors are Richard L. Chesney, Michael Davidson, Bruce L. Engel, William H. Goodman, Charles A. Heckman, George B. Javaras, Malcolm S. Kamin, Gerald M. Penner, Michael H. Shapiro, and Robert J. Vollen.

The Moot Court Committee conducts the Hinton Competition, a two-year round robin moot court program open to all students after their first year who wish to advance their technique in the art of brief writing and oral argument. Prizes are awarded to winners of the competition; the team that represents the Law School in national competition is selected from among the most successful competitors in the second year. The Chairman of the Committee for 1963–64 is Robert V. Johnson; Vice-Chairmen, Jerome H. Marcus and Peter E. Thauer; and Secretary, David L. Paulsen. The following awards for achievement were made in the 1962–63 competition: Russell M. Pelton, Jr., and Barry E. Fink, competition winners; in the second-year competition, John D. Daniels and Alvin Hirshen, best brief, and John D. Daniels, best oral argument. The Karl N. Llewellyn Memorial Cup, which is presented each year to the highest scoring team in the second-year competition, was awarded this year to John D. Daniels and Alvin Hirshen. The 1963-64 national moot court teams are composed of John D. Daniels and Alvin Hirshen; and William S. Hanley and Allen R. Faurot.

The Edwin F. Mandel Legal Aid Clinic, made possible through a gift from Mr. Edwin F. Mandel, was established in 1957 to provide needed legal services for indigent persons and for the training of Law School students in the handling of cases under supervision. Henry J. Kaganiec is Director of the Edwin F. Mandel Legal Aid Clinic. The officers for 1963-64 are Edward M. Burgh, President, and Melinda E. Aikins, Secretary. The members of the Board of Directors are Frank C. Dunbar III, Lawrence E. Scholl, and Ronald K. Kolins.

The University of Chicago Law School Student Association is composed of the entire student body and is affiliated with the American Law Student Association, a national organization sponsored by the American Bar Association. The Student Association sponsors various legal and social functions throughout the year. The 1962-63 officers were T. Frank O'Rourke, President (through the Winter Quarter); Charles Kleinbaum, Vice-President (through the Winter Quarter) and President (Spring Quarter); Bruce L. Engel, Secretary; and Thomas A. Ross, Treasurer. The President of the Senior Class for 1963-64 and Chairman of the Council of the Association is Alan R. Orschel.

The Karl Llewellyn Inn of Phi Delta Phi, a national legal fraternity, maintains a program of social and professional activities for its student membership.

The Chicago Chapter of the Order of the Coif is an honor society founded to encourage and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Its members are elected each spring from the 10 per cent of the graduating class who rank highest in scholarship. In 1962-63 the elected members were Dorsey D. Ellis, Jr., Anthony C. Gilbert, Burton E. Glazov, Noel Kaplan, William L. Kelley, Ross R. Kinney, Rex E. Lee, Lee B. McTurnan, Bethilda L. Olson, William Shlensky, and William L. Velton.

The Joseph Henry Beale Prize, named in honor of the first Dean of the Law School, is awarded to the first-year student whose work in the first-year tutorial program is judged by the Faculty to be most worthy of special recognition. The prize for 1962-63 was awarded to Frank Cicero, Jr.

The Institute for International Order offers two prizes for winning essays on subjects designated annually.

The Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company and the Bancroft-Whitney Company, joint publishers of American Jurisprudence, annually make available the relevant separately bound subjects from American Jurisprudence as an award to the highest ranking students in various course areas.

The Lawyers Title Award, sponsored by the Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation, Richmond, Virginia, is awarded annually to a student for excellence in work in the field of real estate. The award was given in 1962-63 to Noel Kaplan.

The Edwin F. Mandel Award is made annually to that member of the graduating class who, during his Law School career, has contributed the most to the Legal Aid program, both in the quality of the work done and the conscientious exercise of legal aid responsibilities. The award for 1962-63 was made to Charles B. Persell.

The Nathan Burkan Memorial Competition Prizes, sponsored by the American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers, are available annually to two students whose papers in the field of copyright law are deemed by the faculty to be worthy of the prizes. The award for 1962-63 was made to Norman Vieira.
The "Wall Street Journal" Award is given annually to a student for excellence in work in the field of corporation law. The award for 1962–63 was given to Noel Kaplan.

The "United States Law Week" Award is given annually to the graduating student who, in the judgment of the faculty, has made the most satisfactory scholastic progress in his final year at the Law School. The award for 1962–63 was given to Robert G. Weber.

XX. Placement

The Law School maintains a placement office to help students find suitable employment after their graduation. In collaboration with the Law School Alumni Association, special placement groups in large cities, and the University's general placement office, it secures information about openings in law offices, corporations, and government offices throughout the country and furnishes information about University of Chicago Law School graduates. The Placement Office also assists in arrangements for teaching positions; through the Comparative Law Center, efforts are made to place properly qualified students in research centers and other institutions abroad and to help foreign students to find opportunities for study and research in American law.

Early in their third year, students submit placement data indicating their plans and preferences after graduation. It is important that these records, which facilitate appropriate recommendations, be filled out accurately and kept up to date. Accordingly students whose plans or preferences change during the third year are asked to indicate such changes to the Placement Office. In the event that a student enters the armed forces following his graduation, the facilities of the Placement Office are available to him upon his return to civilian status. All third-year students have a personal interview with Dean Ratcliffe, who is Director of Placement. Other members of the faculty are also available for consultation and advice.

XXI. Buildings and Library

The Law Quadrangle, on the south side of the Midway Plaisance, contains four connected buildings: the Auditorium-Courtroom Building; the Classroom-Seminar Building; the Library-Office Building; the Administration Building. The buildings, designed by Eero Saarinen, use twentieth-century materials, techniques, and design concepts. The architect has related the new buildings in the quadrangle to the Burton-Judson Residence Halls and to the American Bar Center. An open court, with a reflecting pool, is at the center of the group of buildings.

The Auditorium-Courtroom Building is situated in such a way that it is directly accessible to the public. It contains an auditorium seating 475 and the Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom, which seats 175. The Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom is a completely equipped courtroom, providing facilities for the moot court program of the School and for official cases. Rooms on two floors on both sides of the Weymouth Kirkland Courtroom are provided for judges, court officials, and lawyers.

The Classroom-Seminar Building lies between the Auditorium-Courtroom and the Library-Office Building. There are five seminar-conference rooms, accommodating 18 to 43 students, and four classrooms varying in capacity from 85 to 175. A large area for student lockers and lounges is located on the lower floor. The Edwin F. Mandel Legal Aid Clinic is also located in the Classroom-Seminar Building with direct access to University Avenue on the east. The building includes a wide arcade-like corridor—the James Parker Hall Concourse—that runs along the open court side of the structure and connects with the Auditorium-Courtroom Building.
The Library-Office Building includes the Harold J. Green Law Lounge and an exhibition and conference area on the first floor. On the second floor is the John P. Wilson Reading Room, together with the Library administrative offices, the Louis H. Silver Room for Special Collections, and two conference and reception rooms. A balcony overlooking the Reading Room is occupied by stacks and study areas, the Ernst W. Puttkammer Suite for the University of Chicago Law Review, and special rooms. Each of the next three floors contains a central core of stacks surrounded by a ring of faculty and research offices. Each floor contains a student study-room, a special-collection room, an office for a student organization, and carrels. The Library-Office Building is air-conditioned.

The Administration Building contains a suite of offices for the administrative activities of the School and the Harry N. Gottlieb Faculty Conference Room. The building also includes a public corridor connecting the Law Buildings with the Burton-Judson Courts, which make available student housing facilities, lounges, dining halls, and private dining rooms.

The Law Library collection covers substantially all fields and systems of law. The Anglo-American Law section contains an almost complete collection of the statutes, session laws, and reported decisions of the courts of each jurisdiction, together with digests, encyclopedias, loose-leaf services, periodicals, and the principal treatises. It includes also an extensive collection of the original briefs and records of cases in the Supreme Court of the United States and a representative collection of the reports and opinions of the federal and state administrative agencies and of the proceedings of the various bar associations. The International and Foreign Law section contains basic source and secondary materials relating to early legal systems and the law of continental European countries, including the latest codes, laws, decisions, and current periodicals. There are also special sections on legal history, including biography, jurisprudence, comparative law, canon law, and international law. Materials on the laws of the oriental countries, ancient and modern, can be found on the Quadrangles in the library of the Oriental Institute. Law students have ready access to the other libraries of the University, to the library of the nearby Public Administration Service, and to the library of the American Bar Center.

The Law Library has eight special funds at its disposal to supplement general library appropriations. These are the James Nelson Raymond Memorial Fund, established in 1929 by Anna L. Raymond as a memorial to her husband, James Nelson Raymond, an eminent businessman of Chicago; the Wallace Heckman Memorial Fund, established in 1929 by Mrs. Wallace Heckman as a memorial to her husband, Wallace Heckman, business manager of the University from 1903 to 1924; the William B. Hale Fund, established in 1944 by the family of Mr. Hale for the collection of materials for research and study in the field of monopoly; the Jerome N. Frank Memorial Library Fund, established by the friends of Judge Jerome Frank, '13, in 1961; the Frederic Woodward Law Library Fund, established by friends of Frederic Woodward, formerly a member of the faculty of the Law School, and a Vice-President of the University; the Platt Law Library Fund, established in 1961 by the Hanna K. Platt Trust, under the last will and testament of Hanna K. Platt; the Cowan Law Library Fund, established in 1961 by Louis G. Cowan for the purchase of library books, particularly in the new nations (African studies) area; and a special Law Library endowment fund that has been established for the Law School under the guidance and with the help of Arnold I. Shure.
XXII. Linn House, Mathews House, and Salisbury House, the Law School Residences

Linn House, Mathews House, and Salisbury House are the Law School Men's Residences, located in the Burton-Judson Courts and connected with the new Law School buildings. There are common-room and lounge facilities as well as living quarters for law students. The lounges in Burton-Judson Courts also provide a meeting place for law students and a center for extracurricular activities of the Law School.

The John B. Phillips Memorial Library, established by the classmates of John B. Phillips, J.D., 1941, who was killed in action at Tarawa, is housed in the Law Lounge in Burton-Judson Courts as an open-shelf collection of general cultural books pertaining to the law.

Applications for residence in Linn House, Mathews House, and Salisbury House or inquiries concerning other housing accommodations should be addressed to the Student Housing Office, The University of Chicago, 5801 Ellis Avenue, Chicago 37. Arrangements may be made by law students not rooming in the Houses to take regularly lunch or dinner, or both, in the Burton-Judson Courts dining-room. Unless special arrangements are made, the assignment of rooms is for a period of three academic quarters.

XXIII. International House

International House, with accommodations for over five hundred residents (men and women), is a gift of Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and is designed primarily to provide living quarters for qualified students from abroad and for American students. Full-time graduate students and upperclass undergraduate students registered in the University of Chicago and in other colleges and universities in the Chicago area are eligible for residence at International House. Accommodations are available also on a quarterly, short-term, or transient basis to visiting foreign faculty members, scholars, research associates, and Fellows.

International House offers a varied program of cultural and social activities planned to give opportunities for the students to acquire knowledge of each other's customs and culture. Informal discussion groups interpret the historical, political, and sociological aspects of various countries. Social events include dances, concerts, receptions, and programs presenting activities of a national character. Opportunities are provided for foreign and American students to work together in many types of student enterprises. A broad program of community hospitality allows foreign students to meet American families and to visit American homes. Tours are arranged quarterly to Chicago's outstanding industries and historical centers.

Quarterly rates for rooms in International House are as follows: for double rooms equipped with individual beds, $98.00 to $118.00 per person; for single rooms, $98.00 to $165.50. Short periods of residence (minimum of three weeks) are arranged for at favorable weekly rates, which vary according to length of stay and type of room. The daily rate is $3.50 per person for the first seven days and $2.50 per day thereafter. All rooms are furnished, including blankets and bed linen. Moderately priced meals are served in the cafeteria, which is open to all university students and faculty members.

All inquiries should be addressed to the Office of Admissions, International House, 1414 East Fifty-ninth Street, Chicago 37, Illinois.
XXIV. The Chapel

Sunday morning services of worship are held throughout the academic year in the Rockefeller Memorial Chapel. Students and faculty members participate in the service. Guest preachers include members of the University Theological Faculty and outstanding churchmen from all parts of the nation and abroad. Special services are scheduled for the major seasons of the Church Year: Advent, Christmas, Lent, Holy Week, and Pentecost. The sacrament of Holy Communion is celebrated each quarter. The Chapel is open daily for private meditation and prayer.

Membership in the Chapel Choir is open to all qualified students. The Choir sings at the Sunday services and, accompanied by members of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, gives four or five major concerts each year. These include such works as Handel's The Messiah and Bach's St. Matthew Passion and Mass in B Minor as well as modern works of sacred music. Frequent organ concerts are given by the University Organist and by distinguished guest organists. Carillon concerts are played each Sunday and Wednesday by the University Carillonneur.

The University Chapel is the center of a wide variety of student groups organized for religious fellowship and activities within the University and for social service in the city. These groups plan their own programs with the advice of counselors or of student pastors chosen by the authorities of their respective churches. The Episcopal, Jewish, and Roman Catholic groups have for their activities houses of their own near the Quadrangles. Several Protestant groups provide programs at their churches in the immediate neighborhood of the University. A number of other Protestant groups co-operate with the University in maintaining Chapel House, adjacent to the Chapel at 5810 Woodlawn Avenue, for their joint activities. Information may be secured, and appointments with the officers or counselors of the several groups may be made, through the Chapel office.

XXV. Physical Education

The University has an extensive athletic plant and encourages the broadest participation of its students in the Physical Education program.

The Frank Dickinson Bartlett Gymnasium contains basketball, badminton, and volleyball courts, space for gymnastics, wrestling, fencing, squash, weight lifting, and handball, and a swimming pool. The Field House provides facilities for practice and enjoyment of a variety of athletic sports under favorable conditions in cold months and in bad weather. It contains a removable basketball floor, a track, a baseball diamond and batting cage, five tennis courts, a golf-driving range, and a football practice field. The University also maintains outdoor tennis courts, two large playing fields, baseball diamonds, golf greens, a one-quarter-mile cinder track, and an ice-skating and hockey rink.

Ida Noyes Hall provides equipment for the program of athletics for women. The building contains a gymnasium, dance room, games room, swimming pool, golf cages, bowling alleys, billiard room, and shower and dressing quarters. To the south of Ida Noyes Hall is the Midway Plaisance, where the Chicago Park District provides three hockey fields.

XXVI. The Student Health Service

The Student Health Center is part of the group of hospitals, doctors' offices, and research laboratories known as the University of Chicago Hospitals.
During the quarters when a student is registered and for the week following each such quarter, those who have paid the quarterly health fee are entitled to the complete facilities of the Student Health Center. The benefits include office visits to the professional staff of the Student Health Service, access to the Emergency Room of Billings Hospital when Student Health is closed, and hospitalization for the first five days for any single illness when authorized by a Student Health Service physician, provided the illness did not exist before the student's admission to the University.

The University requires a medical examination at time of entrance and periodic re-checks thereafter for selected diseases of concern to the health of the University community. New students on registering must make an appointment for the entrance medical examination and failure to do so or breaking an appointment after it has been made entails an added service fee of $3.00 to reimburse the University for additional expense.

The Health Service does not provide for house or room calls and, except in serious emergency and following advance authorization by Student Health Service, does not pay for ambulance or other types of transport to the Student Health Service Clinic or the Hospital Emergency Room.

For a more complete description of services available, the Student Handbook should be consulted.

XXVII. Suggestions for Pre-legal Study

The Law School does not require that applicants for admission present college credit in any specified subjects. A broad general education is thought more important for the student of law than specialized study in fields closely related to law.

Such a general education should include study of the social sciences, including economics, political science, and history; the humanities, especially philosophy and literature; and the elements of physical and biological sciences and mathematics. It is also of great importance that a law student should have acquired habits of precision, fluency, and economy in writing and speaking.

XXVIII. Fees and Other Information

Application fee. An application fee of $5.00 must accompany the original application for admission to the University. No part of the fee is refundable nor is it applicable as an advance payment on other fees.

Tuition fee. The tuition fee in the Law School is $450.00 a quarter. A student is required to pay full tuition unless a reduced program of work and a reduction of fees are approved by the Dean.

Registration and general service fee. The fee of $45.00 a quarter includes a general registration and service fee of $20.00, a health service fee of $15.00, and a special Law School fee of $10.00.

Residence-hall fees. Room and board are available in Linn House, Mathews House, and Salisbury House at a cost of $1,051.00 for the nine-month academic year.*

Deposit on admission. An applicant who is accepted for admission into the Law School is required to make a deposit of $45.00 within four weeks after notice of acceptance has been sent. This deposit will be applied on the tuition fee and will not be refunded unless illness or other sufficient cause prevents an applicant from entering the School at the beginning of the quarter for which he has been accepted.

* Beginning with the Autumn Quarter, 1964, room-and-board rates in the Law School residence halls will be increased to $1,081.00 for the nine-month academic year.
