Insanity and the Law Conference

Prominent lawyers, professors, public administrators, and psychiatrists from many parts of the country took part in The Law School conference, "Insanity and the Law." The conference, one of the regular Conference Series (The Law School Record, Winter issue), was held February 28. Some of the men who participated were: Dr. Addison Duval, assistant superintendent, St. Elizabeth Hospital, Washington; Herbert Wechsler, professor of law, Columbia University School of Law; Joseph D. Lohman, sheriff of Cook County and former Law School faculty member; Dr. Franz Alexander, Director, Institute for Psychoanalysis; Dr. Manfred S. Guttmacher, Chief Medical Officer, Supreme Bench of Baltimore; Abe Fortas, Professor Frank Remington, Dr. Addison Duval, and Professor Harry Kalven continue their discussion following the Dinner Session of the Conference on Insanity and the Law.

At the Conference on Insanity and the Law, Elmer Gertz, Professor Wilber Katz, who presided at the panel discussion, and Dr. Franz Alexander, Director of the Institute for Psychoanalysis.

Arnold, Fortas & Porter, Washington; and George Desession, professor of law, Yale Law School.

Law Review Reunion

The Fifth Annual Reunion Banquet of the University of Chicago Law Review took place at the Quadrangle Club on May 18. The Honorable Arthur Larsen, Undersecretary of Labor, was the featured speaker of the evening. Roger Cramton, one of the retiring Managing Editors of the Review, presided. A brief summary of the work of the Review during 1954-55 was presented by Norman Abrams, retiring Editor-in-Chief. Professors Brainerd Currie and Karl Llewellyn presented, in verse, two highly unusual casenotes.
Insanity and the Law Conference

Prominent lawyers, professors, public administrators, and psychiatrists from many parts of the country took part in The Law School conference, “Insanity and the Law.” The conference, one of the regular Conference Series (The Law School Record, Winter issue), was held February 28. Some of the men who participated were: Dr. Addison Duval, assistant superintendent, St. Elizabeth Hospital, Washington; Herbert Wechsler, professor of law, Columbia University School of Law; Joseph D. Lohman, sheriff of Cook County and former Law School faculty member; Dr. Franz Alexander, Director, Institute for Psychoanalysis; Dr. Manfred S. Guttmacher, Chief Medical Officer, Supreme Bench of Baltimore; Abe Fortas, Professor Frank Remington, Dr. Manfred Guttmacher, Professor Herbert Wechsler, Professor Henry Weholen, Professor George Dession, Dr. Franz Alexander, Mr. Abe Fortas.

Law Review Reunion

The Fifth Annual Reunion Banquet of the University of Chicago Law Review took place at the Quadrangle Club on May 18. The Honorable Arthur Larsen, Undersecretary of Labor, was the featured speaker of the evening. Roger Cramton, one of the retiring Managing Editors of the Review, presided. A brief summary of the work of the Review during 1954-55 was presented by Norman Abrams, retiring Editor-in-Chief. Professors Brainerd Currie and Karl Llewellyn presented, in verse, two highly unusual casenotes.
Insanity and the Law Conference

Prominent lawyers, professors, public administrators, and psychiatrists from many parts of the country took part in The Law School conference, "Insanity and the Law." The conference, one of the regular Conference Series (The Law School Record, Winter issue), was held February 28. Some of the men who participated were: Dr. Addison Duval, assistant superintendent, St. Elizabeth Hospital, Washington; Herbert Wechsler, professor of law, Columbia University School of Law; Joseph D. Lohman, sheriff of Cook County and former Law School faculty member; Dr. Franz Alexander, Director, Institute for Psychoanalysis; Dr. Manfred S. Guttmacher, Chief Medical Officer, Supreme Bench of Baltimore; Abe Fortas,

Law Review Reunion

The Fifth Annual Reunion Banquet of the University of Chicago Law Review took place at the Quadrangle Club on May 18. The Honorable Arthur Larsen, Undersecretary of Labor, was the featured speaker of the evening. Roger Cramton, one of the retiring Managing Editors of the Review, presided. A brief summary of the work of the Review during 1954-55 was presented by Norman Abrams, retiring Editor-in-Chief. Professors Brainerd Currie and Karl Llewellyn presented, in verse, two highly unusual casenotes.