The meeting of Dallas alumni and wives honoring Professor Wilber Katz, who is seated in the center at the far end of the table. On Professor Katz's right is Edward C. Fritz, '40, who arranged the meeting.

Alumni Notes

John Potts Barnes, JD'24, has been appointed General Counsel of the Internal Revenue Service. During his many years of practice in Chicago, Mr. Barnes has on occasion taught at The Law School as a Lecturer in Law. At the time of his appointment, and for some years previously, he was a member of the Chicago law firm of McKinney, Carlson, Barnes and Smalley. Mr. Barnes has agreed to speak at The Law School's annual Federal Tax Conference, to be held this year on October 26-28.

Henry Weihofen, JD'28, JSD'30, Professor of Law at the University of New Mexico, was the recipient of a double distinction this spring. He was selected to deliver the Annual Research Lecture at the University of New Mexico (nomination as lecturer may be made of any faculty member of the University in recognition of outstanding work in research). A short time later Professor Weihofen received the Isaac Ray Award from the American Psychiatric Association. The Ray Award is presented each year for outstanding work in furthering understanding between psychiatrists and lawyers on legal questions involving mental disorders. Professor Weihofen was one of the participants in the Law School's Conference on Insanity and the Law, held during the Winter Quarter of this year.

Albert S. Long, Jr., JD'47, has been appointed General Solicitor of the Chicago, Indianapolis, and Louisville Railway Company, generally known as the Monon.

We note with regret the recent deaths of two alumni of the School. William G. Stone, JD'18, was a lifelong resident of St. Joseph, Missouri, where he practiced from the time of his graduation. He served as president of the St. Joseph Bar Association and was active in church and charitable work, the American Legion, and the Masonic order. Robert Guntther, JD'15, was an eminent member of the Bar of Akron, Ohio, for many years. He was president of the Ohio State Bar Association and of the Akron Bar Association. He served as a member of the Akron Board of Education during a period in which he took a prominent part in defeating the efforts of the Ku Klux Klan to take over the Akron school system. He was active also in local Democratic politics and in Masonic and American Legion affairs. At the time of his death he was a director of eleven corporations and a trustee of five charitable and educational institutions.

Cola G. Parker, JD'12, of Neenah, Wisconsin, has been nominated for the presidency of the National Association of Manufacturers. Mr. Parker, chairman of the Kimberly-Clark Corporation, is a national vice-president and director of the NAM. He is a former chairman of the National Industrial Conference Board, chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago, and a member of the Commission on Foreign Policy.

Thomas S. Edmonds, JD'25, will soon take office as president of the Illinois State Bar Association. Mr. Edmonds is now completing his term as first vice-president and has been active in the Association for many years. He is a member of the firm of Edmonds and Linneman, Chicago.

Alumni Fund Meeting

Edward Ryerson, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the University of Chicago, was the featured speaker at a luncheon meeting held in May at the University Club for alumni who are working on the current Alumni Fund Campaign. Dwight P. Green, '12, General Chairman of the Campaign; Glen A. Lloyd, '23, Trustee of the University and former President of the Law School Alumni Association; Morris E. Feiwell, '15, President of the Alumni Association; and Dean Levi also spoke briefly to the more than fifty fund workers in attendance.

What '30 Did in 25!

Jerome S. Weiss, '30

Not only was it the largest class in the history of the Law School, but it was studded with more brilliant members than any other class, as any one of them would be the first to acknowledge.—Eli E. Fink, President, Class of '30.

This modest statement for such a rugged group of individualists is not so self-serving as appears at first blush. Consider if you will these dialectical truths:

a) The only class with 121 members. A sharp contrast to the 47 members in each of the classes of 1910 and 1940;

b) The only class to produce 9 Coif men; reputedly due to the over-all scholastic excellence;

c) The last class to savor the brilliance, learning, and challenge of each of these great ones: Hall, Freund,
The meeting of Dallas alumni and wives honoring Professor Wilber Katz, who is seated in the center at the far end of the table. On Professor Katz's right is Edward C. Fritz, '40, who arranged the meeting.

Alumni Notes

John Potts Barnes, JD’24, has been appointed General Counsel of the Internal Revenue Service. During his many years of practice in Chicago, Mr. Barnes has on occasion taught at The Law School as a Lecturer in Law. At the time of his appointment, and for some years previously, he was a member of the Chicago law firm of McKinney, Carlson, Barnes and Smalley. Mr. Barnes has agreed to speak at The Law School's annual Federal Tax Conference, to be held this year on October 26-28.

Henry Weihofen, JD’28, JD’30, Professor of Law at the University of New Mexico, was the recipient of a double distinction this spring. He was selected to deliver the Annual Research Lecture at the University of New Mexico (nomination as lecturer may be made of any faculty member of the University in recognition of outstanding work in research). A short time later Professor Weihofen received the Isaac Ray Award from the American Psychiatric Association. The Ray Award is presented each year for outstanding work in furthering understanding between psychiatrists and lawyers on legal questions involving mental disorders. Professor Weihofen was one of the participants in the Law School’s Conference on Insanity and the Law, held during the Winter Quarter of this year.

Albert S. Long, Jr., JD’47, has been appointed General Solicitor of the Chicago, Indianapolis, and Louisville Railway Company, generally known as the Moton.

We note with regret the recent deaths of two alumni of the School. William G. Stone, JD’18, was a lifelong resident of St. Joseph, Missouri, where he practiced from the time of his graduation. He served as president of the St. Joseph Bar Association and was active in church and charitable work, the American Legion, and the Masonic order. Robert Guenther, JD’15, was an eminent member of the Bar of Akron, Ohio, for many years. He was president of the Ohio State Bar Association and of the Akron Bar Association. He served as a member of the Akron Board of Education during a period in which he took a prominent part in defeating the efforts of the Ku Klux Klan to take over the Akron school system. He was active also in local Democratic politics and in Masonic and American Legion affairs. At the time of his death he was a director of eleven corporations and a trustee of five charitable and educational institutions.

Cola G. Parker, JD’12, of Neenah, Wisconsin, has been nominated for the presidency of the National Association of Manufacturers. Mr. Parker, chairman of the Kimberly-Clark Corporation, is a national vice-president and director of the NAM. He is a former chairman of the National Industrial Conference Board, chairman of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Chicago, and a member of the Commission on Foreign Policy.

Thomas S. Edmonds, JD’25, will soon take office as president of the Illinois State Bar Association. Mr. Edmonds is now completing his term as first vice-president and has been active in the Association for many years. He is a member of the firm of Edmonds and Linneman, Chicago.

Alumni Fund Meeting

Edward Ryerson, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the University of Chicago, was the featured speaker at a luncheon meeting held in May at the University Club for alumni who are working on the current Alumni Fund Campaign. Dwight P. Green, ’12, General Chairman of the Campaign; Glen A. Lloyd, ’23, Trustee of the University and former President of the Law School Alumni Association; Morris E. Feiwell, ’15, President of the Alumni Association; and Dean Levi also spoke briefly to the more than fifty fund workers in attendance.

What ’30 Did in 25!

Jerome S. Weiss, ’30

Not only was it the largest class in the history of the Law School, but it was studded with more brilliant members than any other class, as any one of them would be the first to acknowledge.—Elie E. Fink, President, Class of ’30.

This modest statement for such a rugged group of individualists is not so self-serving as appears at first blush. Consider if you will these dialectical truths:

a) The only class with 121 members. A sharp contrast to the 47 members in each of the classes of 1910 and 1940;

b) The only class to produce 9 Coif men; reputedly due to the over-all scholastic excellence;

c) The last class to savor the brilliance, learning, and challenge of each of these great ones: Hall, Freund,